ALARM OVER BALKANS

Havana Strike To Force Cuban President Out Spreads Rapidly

Havana Facing Grave Situation As Strike Spreads

Only Two Government Departments Are Functioning Today

MOVE IS AIMED AT PRESIDENT

Seek To Force Carlos Mendieta Out Of Office In Republic

By RICHARD ARMSTRONG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HAVANA, Mar. 8.—Only two government departments were functioning, the city's health was imperilled, and transportation was paralyzed today as the strike aimed to force President Carlos Mendieta out of office rapidly spread.

Troops were called out to help skeleton crews man the aqueducts when a walkout threatened the city water supply. Doctors, nurses and internes in six public hospitals struck, leaving only skeleton staffs to handle emergency cases in a time of crisis.

Strike Spreads.

Employes of the departments of education, labor, justice, communications, agriculture and commerce struck yesterday, and today the strikers were joined by personnel of the state and sanitation departments. Only the departments of the interior and defense were still operating.

Naval forces manned the telegraph system after striking post office workers damaged the lines. City hall employes staged a noisy demonstration when they walked out, and later police found two unexploded bombs in the doorway.

Vandals Attempt Theft Of Gettysburg Cannon

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—Police today sought vandals who attempted to remove a 1600-pound cannon from the Gettysburg battlefield but were foiled when the 500-pound gun carriage broke. Eighteen of the 20 shells piled near the gun were taken but two were later found nearby.

The gun was one of the four Wentworth cannon loaned the Confederate forces by England. Wentworth cannon, the most advanced known at the time, had a range of four miles and fired 50-pound shells. The guns stand at Oak Ridge, held by the Confederate forces in a three-day battle in July, 1863.

SHANK IS EXECUTED AT LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

(International News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Mar. 8.—Mark Shank, picnic poisoner of four members of the Alvin Colley family, died in the electric chair at Tucker prison farm today.

Mrs. Geraldine Shank, the convicted man's wife, was unable to be present when her husband went to his death. Governor Futrell had promised to hold up the execution until she could reach Arkansas, if she desired, to visit the condemned man once more, but she refused when the governor said he would offer no hope of executive clemency.

Shank, who was 43 years old and a lawyer from Akron, Ohio, poisoned Colley, his wife and two sons at a picnic on August 15, 1933.

Kent, O., Mar. 8.—Unable to go to her husband to spend the last hours before death with him, Mrs. Geraldine Shank collapsed here today when informed that Mark Shank had been executed for the "poison picnic" murders of the Alvin Colley family in Arkansas.

Winter Attempts Short Comeback

Four Inches Of Snow In Bradford Area Reported Today

HIGHWAYS ARE AGAIN RATHER TREACHEROUS

(International News Service)

Old Man Winter, tired and weary from a week of brilliant sunshine and warm temperatures, engaged today in another battle with spring in Pennsylvania.

Aware that he has passed his peak and his days are numbered, the old man from the chilly north was aided in his battle by rain which turned to sleet and snow. His icy breath sent mercury tumbling in all sections of the state.

Freezing temperatures prevailed in the so-called "ice box" areas.

Mantle Of Snow

A four-inch mantle of snow covered the Bradford district while lesser falls were reported from other points in the northwestern region. Light flurries were general throughout the state.

Because of the icy condition of highways, travel was extremely hazardous.

Fair and slightly colder tonight with increasing cloudiness and rising temperatures were forecast.

Literary And Music Contest Being Planned

Preliminary Contest Will Have To Be Held In Some Events For County Contest

PLANS MADE FOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

Arrangements for the county music and literary contest, which will take place at Westminster College, March 30, are beginning to shape up well, County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling stated today.

Report of the arrangements for the event was given by President Glen Johnson, of the county principal's association, at the meeting of the association Wednesday evening, and disclosed the fact that there were so many entries in some of the events that a preliminary contest will have to be held to dispose of some of the entries in advance of the county meeting.

Entries for the events are being made through Mr. Johnson, but the arrangements for holding the affair, are in the hands of Westminster College, which is sponsoring the event.

Arrangements were made to conduct a baseball league among the county high schools this spring, and a committee headed by Principal Roy F. Conway, of the Union township schools, was named to adopt a schedule and set the opening date for the league.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Pa Newc just learned today that three North Hill boys, Sam Henry, Chuck Maloney and Bob Wilkinson, all of the Garfield avenue district, took their first swim of the season on Tuesday evening in Neshannock creek. The same group was in swimming about the same time last year, when there was still ice in the stream and report that the water was a little warmer this year.

* * *

New pedestal lights at the Washington and Jefferson street entrances to the new federal building on the public square, were burning last night for the first time. They add much to the night appearance of the new structure.

* * *

Maple Sugar season is arriving in our midst. "Sugar" camps in the district are being opened, as the sap starts running for the spring. While the number of sugar camps in this immediate district is smaller than years ago, there are still some of these interesting sites still in existence, and activity is getting under way for the season.

* * *

Students who travel in school buses every day have, in some instances, made a peck of fun out of it. Pa Newc heard one crowd of young students, in a bus, singing so lustily that pedestrians stopped in their tracks a block away, to watch the approach of the chorus.

Another old residential structure of the city is being razed to make way for a business establishment. This is the old brick house at the corner of South Jefferson and Lawrence streets. The site will be occupied in the near future by a gasoline filling station.

Richberg Hits Court Ruling

Declares "Some Federal Judges Need Education In Economics"

ASKS EXTENSION OF NRA TWO YEARS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Striking back at federal court rulings against NRA, Donald Richberg, NRA coordinator, today declared "some federal judges need an education in economics."

Testifying before the senate finance committee conducting an investigation into the NRA, Richberg said that in some instances federal judges have "completely disregarded the facts."

"In some decisions there has been a complete disregard of the facts on the part of some federal judges," said Richberg.

"That is what I mean when I say that we need an education of the bench in modern economic conditions."

Would Extend NRA.

Reiterating his argument that NRA should be extended for two years, Richberg recommended that congress investigate the entire economic system to determine the line between interstate and intrastate commerce in relation to code labor provisions. Yesterday he said the revamped NRA should provide codes only for industries engaged in or substantially affecting interstate commerce.

He cited in particular operation of the cleaning and dyeing industry in New Jersey, and declared NRA has never been able to bring it under its jurisdiction.

He said the industry has been a "stench in the nostrils" of the country and that it involves not only industrial competition but "industrial warfare, racketeering, bombing and every vile industrial practice known."

Labor Racketeers Will Be Probed

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Appointment of a presidential committee to investigate "Labor Racketeers" and "Espionage by Employers" was advocated today by Francis Biddle, chairman of the National Labor Relations board.

Biddle pointed out that the report of the NRA bureau of research and planning contained charges of wholesale espionage by automobile manufacturers in its study of the auto industry.

He referred also to the many charges of labor racketeering that have been made in Chicago, New York and other large communities.

Long Attacks Administration

Reply To Johnson Is Blast At Program Of Democratic Leaders

JOHNSON WAITS TIME TO REPLY

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Senator Huey P. Long admitted today he was "greatly pleased" with his blistering attack on President Roosevelt's new deal made over the radio late last night in answer to Brig. Gen. S. Johnson's condemnation of him and Rev. Charles E. Coughlin.

Johnson accused Long and Detroit's "radio priest" with preaching revolutiionary policies that would lead the country to ruin and charged they were working together.

Attacks Administration

Instead of lashing out at the former recovery administrator Long concentrated his attack on the administration and exclaimed the new deal "is more like the St. Vitus dance."

"God save us from two more years of the disaster we've had under that gang," Long shouted.

Long accused the White House of ordering Johnson to attack him and while he stood in front of the microphone delivering his oral attack he was surrounded by two bodyguards and 50 spectators, about 25 of whom studio officials said were "Long's friends."

He referred to Johnson as "the late lamented, the pampered ex-crown prince . . . loaned by Wall Street to run the government." He also mentiioned Mrs. Roosevelt as being among those who are running the government.

Have Had Their Way

Four Doomed To Death In April

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar .8.—With Bennett LeHodges convicted Philadelphia killer, sentenced to die April 15, Pennsylvania today had four murderers slated for electrocution next month. Gov. George H. Earle set the execution date for LeHodges yesterday.

Of the other three, also from Philadelphia, one was scheduled for death April 1 and the other two April 8.

Rural Teachers Have High Rating

Report Of State Department Of Education Shows Standard Here Among Highest

ONLY FIVE UNDER STATE STANDARD

Lawrence County teachers rank among the highest in the state of Pennsylvania, County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling has been informed by Henry Klowner, of the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

A total of 98.1 per cent of the teachers of the county have had two years or more of preparation for teaching, and of this number, who do not meet the standard requirements, all but two will complete advanced work which will bring them up to the standard required by the state.

In addition, Mr. Klowner states, it has been found that 32.8 per cent of the teachers in the county schools are graduates of accedited colleges.

In 1918, Lawrence County was among the lowest in the state in their teacher rating, but has now advanced to the very top.

Italians Send Three Warships

Ships Sent As Protective Measures To Grecian Waters Result Of Revolt

(International News Service)

ROME, Mar. 8.—The third great action to take protective measures in view of the civil war ranging in Greece, Italy today dispatched three warships to Grecian waters to guard Italian interests in the Aegean.

Premier Mussolini sent one cruiser and two destroyers to the scene of action. Great Britain and France previously had dispatched warships to Greek waters.

DEADLINE IS SET

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—April 1 today was set as the deadline for filing applications by Pennsylvania farmers for corn-hog reduction contracts under the AAA program for 1935. The corn-hog state board urged farmers who intend to join the program not to delay filing applications.

'Pink Slip' Defenders Missing In Local Crowd Awaiting Aid On Returns

Like in other parts of the country, many an income tax return writer in New Castle and Lawrence county thinks that now-famed "pink slip" which each and every 1935 return must carry with it is a "nuisance" and an "injustice."

A reporter mingled among a crowd of return filers at the Federal building this week and found out for himself that this plan to make public the returns isn't so popular.

"What if a man makes a million?" one young fellow asked. "I admire him for it and, besides, it's not my business!"

As he spoke, another man, somewhat older, grumbled: "It's a gross injustice."

The clause in the income tax law states that if the "pink slip" isn't filed the government will make it out for you at the cost of $5.

Not a word was voiced in defense of the publicity provision of the law and, if anyone was for it, they didn't speak. One could readily tell it was an "anti-pink slip" crowd.

Commencing Saturday morning, the income tax office, Rooms 207 and 209, will be open for any local resident to seek advice.

Walter H. Patterson, internal revenue agent representing the U. S. Treasury department, will assist Paul B. McCandless, deputy collector for the county, in handling the visitors. They will be at the office from Saturday through until next Friday evening, March 15, the deadline for filing returns.

The hours of 9 to 4 will be observed daily until Thursday and Friday. On Thursday the office will remain open until 9 p. m. and on Friday night, the last night, until midnight.

Governor Demands Speed On Tax Bills

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Pressed by Gov. George H. Earle for greater speed on his $203,000,000 tax program, administration legislative leaders today prepared to release several major revenue items from the cloister of the house ways and means committee and hasten their passage through the assembly next week.

Encouraged by the comparative ease with which his "chain store" tax bill passed the house finally on Wednesday night, the governor summoned Democratic members of the house ways and means committee into conference and laid down a vigorous demand that the tax bills be released from committee and prepared for passage.

Program Approved

After the two-hour conference the governor's secretary, Harry Kalodner, issued a statement announcing the Democratic legislators had given blanket endorsement to the administration tax program and that action would be speeded in the legislature when it reconvenes next Monday night.

"The meeting was entirely harmonious," Kalodner said, in answer to reports that several members of the committee were opposed to some of the administration measures. "There was no opposition to any part of the program," he added.

The governor was understood to have emphasized the precarious position of the state's treasury and

Justice Holmes Is Laid To Rest

PRESIDENT HEADS HOST OF MOURNERS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Escorted by the president of his country, Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes was buried this afternoon in Arlington to sleep not far from the resting place of another president and jurist, William Howard Taft.

The greatest liberal of them all found, in the end, a soldiers' grave. It was as he wished it. It was his wish, too, that he rest finally beside the body of his wife, with whom he used to say he had had a 47-year honeymoon before she preceded him in death a few years ago. That, too, was fulfilled. Today was his 94th birthday.

Mayor McNair Battles "Ripper"

Goes To Washington To Take Matter Up With President Roosevelt

DEFIES ALLEGHENY COUNTY LEADERS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—Temporarily discarding his threats to resign, Mayor William N. McNair was in Washington today battling against the "ripper" bill that would oust him from office.

After delivering an address here last night in which he defied two Allegheny county political leaders, James J. Coyne, Republican, and David L. Lawrence, Democrat, McNair planned to go to President Roosevelt on the matter of the "ripper" through Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior.

"If it's a party matter and if Roosevelt wants to run the rackets here just to help the Democratic campaign fund, then I think I will quit," McNair said.

In his address, the mayor charged that "politicians" were planning to open gambling halls in the city, and said they were mistaken if they thought they could do it.

"I'm not going to promise Jimmy Coyne a scrub woman to hold my job," he continued. "I promised nothing to get into office and I won't promise anything to stay in."

Questioned about his resignation, McNair asserted that "I was going to resign until one of the councilmen told me council wouldn't accept my resignation." He further pointed out that, in his opinion, the "ripper" was not legal.

German Operatic Singer Held On Technical Charge

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—Madame Elisabeth Rethberg, object of a $250,000 alienation suit by Signora Augusta Pinza, who says the noted German diva stole the love of her husband, Ezio Pinza, was in seclusion today, following her technical arrest yesterday on a warrant issued by Supreme Court Justice John E. McGeehan.

Judge McGeehan issued a warrant of civil arrest against the singer on the complaint of Signora Pinza, who alleged her husband and Mme. Rethberg had booked passage for England a month hence.

Apparently unperturbed by the day's events, the singer gave a scheduled recital at Carnegie hall last night.

Followers of the opera today predicted trial of the suit will bring to court, as witnesses, a veritable "who's-who" of the operatic world.

Bulgarian Complaint Against Turkey To Be Given For "Information Only"

(International News Service)

GENEVA, Mar. 8.—Torn by civil war at home, Greece today prepared to lay before the League of Nations her fears of foreign intervention.

With Turkey and Bulgaria already looking with suspicion upon their mutual troop concentrations on their Greek frontiers, Raphael Raphael, Greek representative on the league, arranged to call upon Secretary General Joseph Avenol, to direct his attention to the danger of Bulgarian troop increases on her border.

League officials took a grave view of the situation, dreading that the political and national repercussions of the Greek rebellion might cause another flare-up in the Balkans.

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Mar. 8.—It's the usual custom for a writer or speaker to tell how much better England or France or Zuzuland have handled their money than the United States.

Well, in today's paper France is prohibiting the shipment of gold out of their country and still they say they are not going off the gold—no, but they are not letting the gold go off them either. Then last week England had to put up millions of pounds to stabilize their money.

So I guess over there they are pointing to the excellent way our system is working. Your own country always looks like they are the only one doing the wrong thing.

This thing called money has got the whole mess of 'em buffaloed. Money, horse racing and women are three things the boys just can't figure out.

The skies were blue the sun was warm, the breezes full of balm, and all around was quietude and early springlike calm. When suddenly the winter broke and socked us two or three. Ah me, this spring is whimsical, the weather's thirty-three.

HEIRESS' DEATH TO REMAIN MYSTERY

Pinehurst Goes Back To Normal

Coroner's Jury Says Mrs. Davidson's Death Due To Unknown Circumstances

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING CAUSE

(International News Service)

PINEHURST, N. C., Mar. 8.—After a week of torrid excitement in which the strange death of Elva Statler Davidson was practically the only topic of conversation, the millionaire residents of this pretty resort village turned back to their golf and tennis today convinced that the death of 22-year-old hotel heiress would forever remain a mystery.

Unable to determine how Mrs. Davidson reached the unusual position in which she was found—her knees on the running board of her car in a garage, the rest of her body on the floorboard, her head lying on her right arm—the coroner's jury decided she came to her death by carbon monoxide poisoning, under circumstances unknown.

This verdict does not close the matter. Sheriff Charles McDonald said after the verdict that he had no comment to make, "but the case was still open for investigation."

cline towards maintaining the government of Premier Tsaldaris in power.

It is significant, league authorities pointed out, that the Greek rebel leader, former Premier Venizelos, is opposed to the Balkan pact, of which Bulgaria is not a partisan, while Turkey and Greece, as members, are pledged to maintain the existing territorial order.

Turkey today was on record with confirmation that she had sent troops to the Bulgarian frontier to "maintain the status quo in the Balkans."

Expressing surprise at Bulgaria's charge that Turkey had concentrated six divisions in European Turkey, Cemal Hasnu, Turkish delegate to the League of Nations, countered by accusing Bulgaria of taking military measures along her Grecian frontier.

Rebels Battle.

Athens, Mar. 8.—Rebel infantry fought bitterly today in spite of zero weather to push a path through the government lines on the Thracian front and regain Salonika, now regarded as the key to the rebellion, according to dispatches received here.

While the government insisted that only the weather prevented an immediate movement that would annihilate the rebels, other reports indicated that the loyal troops had suffered one or two reverses.

It was confirmed officially today rebel warships had occupied three Aegean islands, thus placing the forces of former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos in control of Crete, and Samos, Chios and Lesbos, off the coast of Asiatic Turkey.

Venizelos was reported ready to proclaim an independent republic on Crete if the rest of the revolt collapsed.

A British warship and one of three French ships have arrived at Phaleron to protect their nationals.

Bulgarian Complaint.

Geneva, Mar. 8.—Bulgarian complaints of Turkish troop concentration along her border will be transmitted to the council of the League of Nations "for information only", it was agreed today by Joseph Avenol, league secretary-general, and M. Antonoff, Bulgarian delegate.

Making every effort to avoid bringing the question before the council for action, the Bulgarian delegate will meet Cemal Husnu, Turkish minister, informally tomorrow in an attempt to reach a direct agreement.

Seize Turkish Ship.

London, Mar. 8.—The rebellious crew of the Greek armored Cruiser Averoff, flagship of the insurgent forces in the Greek civil war, today seized the Turkish steamer Konya in the harbor of Mytilene, island of Lesbos, it was stated in a Central News dispatch from Istanbul.

The seizure was made in reprisal for Turkey's recent action in holding two Greek vessels suspected of conveying stores to the rebel warships.

binders?" the speaker asked. "They think that Huey Long is the cause of all their worry. They go gunning for me.

"And now what is there for the Roosevelt crowd to do but to admit the facts and admit further that they are now on their third year, making matters worse instead of better all the time. No one is to blame except them for what is going on because they have had their way.

"And if they couldn't change the thing in two years, now bogged down worse than ever, how could anyone expect any good of them hereafter."

Johnson Waits Time

Providence, R. I., Mar. 8.—General Johnson, outspoken defender of President Roosevelt and the new deal, declined to comment on Senator Long's speech in Washington until "I've had a chance to think it over."

He was on his way to New York today after having addressed more than 500 members of the Rhode Island Bar Association on legal aspects of the NRA.

General Johnson said:

"I promise not to drag into this peaceful place any dead cats, ants-in-pants or other tribal totems of recent turmoil . . . although I can't forego the observation that Huey seems to have appropriated my ants to scatter about in senate seats. He says, with great elegance of diction, that they keep one scratching.

"It recalls the Duke of Argyll who, according to an old Irish forebear of mine, erected 'scratching posts' all over Erin . . . with no other compensation than that, as each man rubbed the small of his back against one, he should cry: 'God bless the Duke of Argyll.' That occurred during a plague of lice and, from all accounts, we may yet yearn for a new Duke of Argyll in our own day and generation."

night, and busmen followed. Further tie-up in transportation was feared when it was reported that the railway brotherhoods favored joining the strike.

Newspaper mechanical workers struck early in the morning as a protest against government censorship, which has closed all but two papers. Declaring that a national emergency existed, the cabinet met and decided to remain in a "permanent" session until the crisis was ended.

A statement branded the strike as "ultra-communistic," declaring that it was a "leftis blow against the Republican form of government," and urging all those unsympathetic to[illegible]ds the strike to protect their rights by calling on the government for protection.

Bitterness was increased with the government's re-emphasis that all strikers would be dismissed and replaced by local government workers.

Council Would Aid Steel Plant Move Of Workers

Would Act To Exonerate Taxes For 5 Years If Plant Is Placed In Operation

Upon motion of Councilman D. O. Davies during a formal session of council today at the city building, colleagues adopted the recommendation of steel workers whereby the Carnegie Steel company will be exonerated of their tax assessment for five years providing they start the steel mill or employ the money to make improvements which would cause employment, if such a move can be made legally.

Under the plan as contained in a petition presented by Richard L. Lewis, David Phillips, James Cooper, Hugh Hannon, M. W. Leckfor, George Matthews and Alfred Kissinger the assessment would again become effective in the sixth year when 10 per cent would be paid each year and at the end of the fifteenth year, the entire assessment would again be in force.

According to the spokesmen, Lewis, Hanna, Kissinger, and Attorney J. Elder Bryan, the councilmanic action would prove a friendly gesture toward the company and if an appropriation for the local plant was asked by officials from the board of directors April 1, the directors would know for a certainty that the city council was behind the steel workers in efforts to have the Carnegie mill operate. About 75 steel mill workers attended the meeting. The city assessment of the steel company property for 1935, was given as $2,409,330 and the county assessment as $1,246,430.

explained that prompt action was necessary to supply funds for unemployment relief. Also present at the conference were David L. Lawrence, secretary of the commonwealth and state democratic chairman; Dr. Luther A. Karr, secretary of banking; Guy J. Swope, director of the budget; Ralph M. Bashore, secretary of forests and waters, and Dr. Clyde L. King, fiscal adviser to the governor.

Eroe On Committee

A subcommittee comprised of Reps. William J. Eroe, Lawrence; Samuel P. Stevens, Westmoreland, and Roy Furman, acting chairman of ways and means, was appointed to give further study to the severance tax bill levying an impost on all natural resources except coal removed from the ground. It was believed the subcommittee will revise the bill after study.

As a result of the conference, bills increasing the tax on gasoline and taxing amusements and tobacco as well as several of the bills taxing manufacturers and utilities were expected to emerge from the ways and means committee Monday night for action on the floor of the house.

The governor was reported preparing for another Monday night appearance before senate and house to urge immediate enactment of his graduated income tax for schools to permit it to be tested in the courts.

Administration decision to sponsor an income tax now came unexpectedly and was viewed as a concession by Governor Earle that his plans for obtaining a new constitution this year may be delayed.

The senate committee handling the Ruth Administration Constitutional Revision bill finished public hearings on the measure and was to meet Monday to act on reporting a revised bill to the floor. Indications are the senate revision bill will delay a new constitution at least until June, 1936.

dignitaries, stood silent and uncovered in the drizzling rain of a dark day as the flag-draped casket slipped into the earth.

The services, as Justice Holmes also had wished, were simple.

Shortly before noon the casket was removed from the old red brick house in I street where it had rested since Wednesday to All Soul's Unitarian church. Every seat was taken. Up front sat Edward Holmes, a nephew, and the closest relative, and Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. Hughes and the eight associate justices sat in seats reserved for the honorary pallbearers.

Dr. Ylysses G. B. Pierce, the pastor, read Joseph Blanco White's poem, "Mysterious Night," one of Holmes' favorite poems, then some of the jurist's own quotations. No euglogy was delivered. The Unitarian funeral service was read and the organist played a selection from "The New World Symphony."

Passers-by stopped and watched as the procession proceeded to Arlington. Soldiers from Fort Myer were awaiting at the gates and took charge of the burial rites. As the coffin was removed from the hearse to a gun caisson the army band played patriotic airs from the "American Medley Grand March." Then the nine justices started their march beside the caisson to the grave.

Strains of martial music again rent the chill air as the body was removed from the caisson and lowered in the grave. Dr. Pierce offered a brief prayer and the benediction. Eight riflemen stepped forward and fired three volleys in the air. This was followed by the sounding of taps by a bugler—the army's farewell salute to a soldier.

Empty Purse Helps

Mrs. Catherine McMahon and her cat.

"Many times I've started to write about my work, but I never got beyond the title, 'What an Empty Purse Can Do'," says Mrs. Catherine McMahon, of Melbourne Beach, Fla., and Ithaca, N. Y. After the World war Mrs. McMahon started making tiny change purses and selling them to her friends to aid the work in the Near East. So well did they sell that she soon was able to buy a machine to punch the leather for lacing, and larger and larger checks rolled in to the relief fund. Then cataracts formed on Mrs. McMahon's eyes, and she gave up working in leather and started knitting gay scarfs which she also sold or gave for charity. She is 81, and the widow of Prof. James McMahon, 38 years professor of mathematics at Cornell university.

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Miss Gertrude Ely, Bryn Mawr, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the state senate last year, today was named by Secretary of Labor and Industry Edward N. Jones, to represent Pennsylvania at a meeting of the commission on interstate compacts to be held in Boston, Mass., tomorrow.

Representatives of nine states are expected to ratify a compact on hours of labor. Similar legislation will be placed before legislatures in all nine states in an effort to obtain uniform laws. States represented are Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Vermont and Pennsylvania.

Wealthy Woman Leaves Estate To Her Servants

Chauffeur, Cook And "Upstairs Girl" Are Sole Owners Of Big Estate

(International News Service)

NEWTON, Mass., Mar. 8.—A chauffeur and his wife, a cook and an "upstairs girl" today were master and mistresses of an estate in which until a week ago they were servants.

The will of their late employer, Mrs. Jessie A. Goddard, 80, left them the stately mansion to do with as they saw fit.

Heirs to the estate were William Wilson, for 25 years Mrs. Goddard's chauffeur; his wife, Annie; Miss Margaret Macauley, cook, and Miss Jane Douglass, maid.

Wilson was bequeathed the property in trust with the provision that any income from it, or the proceeds if it should be sold, be shared by the others.

SINGAPORE, Mar. 8.—A school desk before a throne for 11-year-old King Ananda of Siam, his regency council has decided.

A dispatch from Bangkok today indicated that the regents would permit the boy, who was proclaimed king yesterday, to remain in Switzerland to complete his education before taking up his kingly duties.

Smuggling Now Shows Increase

Liquor Smuggling Has Reached Alarming Proportion, Says Official

REPEAL FAILED TO HALT BOOZE EVIL

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Asserting that liquor smuggling has reached "alarming proportions" Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today urged the House Ways and Means committee to approve drastic anti-smuggling legislation.

Morgenthau estimated that more than 2,250,000 gallons of alcohol are being smuggled into this country at a cost in taxes and customs duties of $30,190,933 annually.

The treasury bill would permit searching of rum boats on the high seas, beyond that 12 mile limit, subject to foreign treaties and authorizes the president to extend the customs area and provide drastic punishment for owners of rum smuggling as well as members of the crews.

"Prior to prohibition this country was not troubled much with smuggling," said Morgenthau. "During the fourteen years of prohibition the business of smuggling liquor into the United States from all parts of the world developed to very serious and troublesome proportions.

"It was generally expected that with the repeal of prohibition liquor smuggling operations and fraud on our revenue would be materially reduced.

"For a time after repeal, such proved to be the case, but commencing with the spring of 1934, liquor smugglers again appeared along our coast, and their operations have now increased to alarming proportions."

NYE DEFENDS FR. COUGHLIN

Senator Nye Urges Foes Of "Radio Priest" To Debate Merits Of Banking Scheme

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Challenging the banking interests of the nation to seriously debate the need for a new banking system, Senator Gerald D. Nye (R) North Dakota today defended Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit radio priest, in the Senate.

Nye urged Coughlin's foes to stop denouncing him as a "dangerous demagogue" and enter upon a debate with him on the merits of his proposed banking reforms.

Without mentioning General Hugh S. Johnson by name, Nye made a brief reference to his attack on the Detroit radio priest. He said such critics of Coughlin as Johnson hoped to silence his demand for banking reforms.

Nye also defended his bill, proposing a new Bank of the United States, which would take control of all money and credit.

He said Father Coughlin had helped to draft this measure.

Nye criticized the first monetary system and charged the Federal Reserve system had collapsed.

HOUSING PERMITS IN STATE INCREASE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Although the number of new one family dwellings under construction increased, the value of building permits issued during January dropped off 12 per cent from the January figures for 1934, the Department of Labor and Industry announced today.

A total of 900 permits were issued in January, 1935, for construction to cost $956,272. Of this, 21.2 per cent, or $202,500, was for dwellings, as compared with only 4.8 per cent a year ago.

Matthew Arnold, the famous English essayist, poet and critic, was the son of the famous scholar, Dr. Thomas Arnold and referred to himself as "papa's continuator."

Mrs. Sara Anne Griffith

William Phillips of 3 East Reynolds street, on Thursday received a message from Swansea, South Wales, telling him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Sara Anne Griffith, aged 73 years.

Mrs. Griffith leaves four sons, one daughter, two sisters, all of South Wales, and one brother, Mr. Phillips, of New Castle.

Lewis Krucuk.

Lewis Krucuk, aged 47 years, who had resided at the Lawrence county home, died in the New Castle hospital at 12:10 p. m. Thursday.

He was a widower and had no relatives. Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p. m. today at the Kelley funeral home and interment was made in the county home plot.

Mrs. F. H. Louden.

Mrs. Eleanor Kelso Louden, aged 52 years, the wife of F. H. Louden of the Youngstown road, Union township, died at 8:30 o'clock this morning, after an illness of one month following a stroke.

Mrs. Louden was born in Missouri on January 7, 1883, the daughter of Edward Kincaid and Sarah Patton. For practically all her lifetime she resided in the New Castle locality and had a large number of friends to whom her death comes as a great sorrow.

She was a member of the Christian church of Edenburg, the Order of the Eastern Star and the Rebeccas.

She leaves her husband, F. H. Louden, to whom she had been married for a year and seven months; one son by a former marriage, Alva Kelso; one-stepdaughter, Mrs. Thelma Robb, and two step-sons, Charles and William Louden.

The time of the funeral will be announced later.

Funeral of Infants.

Funeral services for the one-day-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClure of 723 East Long avenue, were conducted on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

The infants, who died Wednesday night, are survived by their parents, one little brother, Bobby, and one sister, Donna May.

Roy E. J. Kennedy.

Roy E. J. Kennedy, aged about 36 years, a former New Castle resident who had resided at Coraopolis for some time, died at 7 o'clock this morning in a Pittsburgh hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Kennedy was born in Lawrence county, the son of Roy E. and Mary Amama Kennedy, both deceased. He was single, leaves one sister and one brother, Mrs. Mary E. Kinney and Eugene Kennedy, both of New Castle. He had been away from New Castle for about 10 years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the place to be announced in Saturday's paper, and interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery, this city.

BUTLER MAN IS GIVEN PATENT

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 8.—George E. Howard of Butler has just been awarded the patent rights on an invention of his own design, the United States Patent office reports.

Mr. Howard has been granted the patent on a novel method of an apparatus for forming hollow glassware. He has assigned commercial rights on the invention to the Hartford-Empire Company of Hartford, Conn. He has been allowed protection on six unique features of the invention.

The Butler inventor was forced to wait more than three years for recognition from the government after he filed application for the patent November 19, 1931.

Member Of Noted Club Found Dead

Howard S. Bott, 73, Found Dead In Philadelphia, Member Of "Last Man's Club"

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—The Omega, oldest of the "Last Man's Clubs" in this country, was reduced to four members today with the death of Howard S. Bott, 73, proprietor of a Center City pad shop.

Bott's body was found today by police who broke into his bedroom above his shop. Beside his bed lay a diary in which the aged man had briefly but vividly recorded his reactions to his illness. Physicians attributed his death to natural causes, and said he had been dead since Wednesday.

Death Came Slowly

On Monday, Bott wrote, "I'm not feeling well."

Tuesday, he recorded, "My hands are becoming paralyzed."

Wednesday, his last notation said: "My eyes are failing."

Police were summoned to Bott's establishment this morning by his wife and son, who came here from their home in Beverly, N. J., after Bott's sister had informed them her brother's establishment had not been opened this week.

The Omega club was organized 50 years ago by ten men. They swore that nothing would separate them and each year since the founding of the group the members have met. The last man among them will drink a toast to his departed companions and will inherit the historical parchment on which the club's covenant is written.

MARTHA WASHINGTON TEA PARTY AT LODGE

A Martha Washington tea party featured the meeting of the L. L. O. I. Thursday evening in Clendenin hall.

A large number of members and friends was present and after the regular lodge session, there was a program and cards were in play at 15 tables. Mrs. E. B. Ray planned the affair and she was assisted by several other members including Mrs. Eliza Houston, general chairman, Mrs. Chauncey Davis, table chairman, Mrs. Agnes Watson, Mrs. Christina Kinnon, Mrs. Leishman, lunch. Decorations were developed through the use of alternating pink and green candles on the tables, the effect being decidedly pretty.

The following program was carried out: Solo, "Night and Day", Andy Mazur; tap dance, Augustine Leone; solo, "Riptide", Herbert Stockman; reading, Lillian Dietterlee; toe dance, Gloria Picato; reading, Leta Mae McConnell; harmonica and guitar number, Ernest Black and Carmine Ritchie; acrobatic dance, Shirley Hammond; Hill Billy singers, Ritchie Brothers; original reading, Albert Kissinger; fan dance, Ilene Murphy.

Clearing the tables, the assembly played bingo until a late hour under the direction of Mrs. Grace Warwick, and was served tasty refreshments.

JEWISH JUNIOR COUNCIL SOCIAL

A large attendance marked the movie-dance held in Temple Israel Thursday evening, by members of the Jewish Junior Council, a yearly event.

A program of music and dancing featured the hours from 10 o'clock on, and the serving of refreshments, brought this successful occasion to a close. Miss Julia Levy was chairman of the committee in charge.

Special guests present, included Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shoenberger.

Cal-Pa Club

Mrs. Mary Beck, of North Mercer street, proved a charming hostess to nine members of the Cal-Pa Club on Wednesday. At noon, the guests gathered around a prettily decorated table, with spring flowers as a centerpiece, where a bountiful menu was served.

The afternoon was spent with quilting and Mrs. Harry Barnes won the prize in the usual drawing. Mrs. George Zintz, of Wallace Ave., will be hostess March 27.

FIELD CLUB EVENING PARTY WELL ATTENDED

A good attendance was noted at the New Castle Field Club Thursday evening, when members assembled to participate in another of their bi-weekly bridge parties, planned for their entertainment throughout the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Allen president as hosts, and the occasion proved most enjoyable.

At the close of the card contests, suitable prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. H. Gibson, Mrs. J. B. Waddington, and the men winning honors, included L. H. Pattersen and S. H. Rhoads.

The serving of an appetizing lunch, featured the mid-night hour.

In two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waddington will fill the role of hosts, at a party of the same nature beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

DESSERT-BRIDGE IN SPRING SETTING

Beautiful sprays of forced pussy-willows which had been brought indoors in January, in combination with delicate freesia and yellow jonquils, lent a delightful spring-like setting to the scene of the North Hill club assembly Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Luella Brownlee on Hillcrest avenue.

The affair was a dessert-bridge, the guests being seated about the large table in the dining room where they were served a dainty refection by the hostess and her sister, Mrs. W. L. Campbell. Bridge featured afterwards.

On March 21, the club will be entertained by Mrs. David G. Harris of Garfield avenue.

MEDICAL AUXILIARY AT THE CASTLETON

The March meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Lawrence County Medical Society was of a social nature in the Castleton on Thursday evening.

After the business was concluded, bridge and anagrams were in play with favors in the former contest falling to Mrs. E. H. Willmarth and Mrs. Morris Davis. There were 21 guests present, the evening's entertainment being under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Henderson, chairman of the entertainment committee with Mrs. J. Lumen Popp in charge last night. A dainty refection was served.

Sin-Mar-Bridge

Members of the Sin-Mar-Bridge club will be entertained on March 21 at the home of Marian Teets, Highland avenue.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB STUDIES GREAT WOMEN

Junior Woman's club, meeting Thursday evening in the home of Miss Ingeborg Hallgren on Meyer avenue, continued the study of other great women which has been their general topic of late.

After the business session with Miss Ruth Sample in the chair, Miss Shirley Hollbrook had charge of the program when several interesting papers were given. "Cornelia" was discussed by Miss Helena Burckart and "Madame Curie" in a paper prepared by Mrs. William McCombs which was read by Miss Helen Lapish.

As March 21 is the date of the next regular meeting of the Junior club, it will join with the Senior Woman's club in presenting the style show at the New Castle Dry Goods Store. This committee will represent the Juniors that evening; Mrs. Ivan Holsinger, chairman, Misses Stella McVay, Agnes Webster, Ina Tucker, Marjorie Wettich and Ruth Sample.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF WALDO STREET COUPLE

In celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. David Daniel, highly respected citizens of the South Side, a large number of their friends and neighbors called at their Waldo street home at various times on the anniversary and extended personal congratulations to the couple.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Daniel, the celebration was a quiet one. Their friends, however, showered them with cards, flowers and presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel were born in South Wales, and there, in the city of Swansea, the knot was tied. They came to America over 40 years ago and after living in Canal Dover, Ellwood, Indiana, and Connellsville, they settled in New Castle where they have now resided for 35 years. Until a few years ago Mr. Daniel was employed in the New Castle Works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company.

They have one son, David J. Daniel, of North Liberty street, and two granddaughters.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FEATURES MEETING

Mrs. T. A. McCurdy of Fairmont avenue pleasingly received members of the Gramoda Kensington in her home Thursday afternoon, for a beautifully appointed 1 o'clock dinner, in honor of Mrs. Ava Snyder, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. It proved a complete surprise, and during the afternoon the guest of honor was presented with a shower of dainty handkerchiefs, in remembrance of those assembled.

The hostess combined the birthday motif with the St. Patrick note, in her appointments, making the setting most attractive.

Miss Jean Snyder was a special guest.

After partaking of the sumptuous menu, the guests enjoyed an informal period of chat, sewing and radio music.

On Friday, March 22, the club members will meet in the home of Mrs. M. L. Porter, corner of Highland and Wallace avenues, for a covered-dish dinner party.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF LAWRENCE CO. CLUB

Thursday's meeting of the Lawrence County Garden club in the Moody avenue residence of Mrs. S. D. Pearson, was a most enthusiastic one, being held amid a springtime setting of forced shrubs in charge of Mrs. C. S. Royce. The shrubs were beautiful and brought forceably to the attention of the gardeners the fact that spring is well on its way and it won't be long now, until everyone will be armed with garden tools for early planting.

Following a tasty buffet lunch, at 1 o'clock, the president, Mrs. C. A. Ingals, conducted the business session at which routine matters of interest were discussed. Mrs. E. W. Greiner had charge of the program, leading a Garden Clinic with various problems discussed and remedial measures outlined. Mrs. Howley spoke of ivy treatment; Mrs. Allan Urmson on rose culture; Mrs. Pearson on the control of aphis on nasturtiums and other flowers; Mrs. Feutchwanger on the most satisfactory ever-blooming rose, "New Dawn"; Mrs. Royce on narcissi bulbs; while suggestions of Mrs. Mechem on the care of peonies and suggestions of Mrs. Thacker on climbing roses, were outlined by the leader in the absence of these two members.

A question box was of further interest, with several other members contributing. Mrs. Charles Greer had a splendid paper on "Planting an Herb Garden" in which many new facts about these rare specimens of garden culture were brought out.

Of particular interest were plans for a garden show which will be held under the auspices of the Lawrence County club, at the Cathedral, June 13. Mrs. S. D. Pearson will be general chairman, Mrs. W. C. Eckenroad, vice chairman and the following committees will assist: Place, Mrs. Russell Urmson, Mrs. Allan Urmson, Mrs. B. H. Kannenberg, Mrs. C. S. Royce; tables, Mrs. C. A. Ingals, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Mrs. Harry Wettich, Mrs. A. P. Treser, Mrs. C. S. Royce, Mrs. S. E. Crawford, Mrs. C. A. Burckart, Mrs. Russel Allen.

Educational, Mrs. W. J. Howley, Mrs. Chas. Greer, Mrs. E. F. G. Harper, Mrs. B. K. Thacker; classification, Mrs. E. W. Greiner, Mrs. Allan Urmson, Mrs. S. E. Crawford, Mrs. W. C. Mechem; section cards, Mrs. B. H. Kannenberg, Mrs. E. W. Greiner; judges, Mrs. W. C. Eckenroad; schedule, Mrs. S. D. Pearson; staging, every member of Lawrence County Garden club; printing, Mrs. Russell Allen, Mrs. C. A. Burckart; publicity, commercial growers and florists, Mrs. M. Feutchwanger.

The meeting was well attended and one visitor was present, Mrs. J. A. Edgar, of The News. On April 4, County day will be observed with the East Side Garden club hostess.

McKINNEY CLASS HAS DINNER FOR FAMILIES

Any one of over 200 people will testify to the perfection of Thursday evening's dinner and entertainment given in the First Presbyterian church by the McKinney Bible class.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock to the Bible class members, their wives and their families, and from the first dish clear through the apple pie was "the top".

The entertainment was launched with two solos by George MacDonald, followed by a program of songs by the "Hill Billies of Rochester," a special importation for the occasion. The billies were introduced by A. A. Webb.

It was a delightful evening, one of the best, and much of the credit goes to the chairman of the dining room, Mont Magill.

Party At Moyer Home.

Mrs. Herman Moyer entertained a gathering of relatives at an enjoyable March event, honoring her husband, Herman Moyer, at their home located near Gardner. The occasion was in celebration of his birthday anniversary.

A program of amusements featured cards forming the main diversion, and following, the hostess served a delicious oyster supper. She was assisted by Mrs. Harvey Moyer with the menu. The table was centered with a large birthday cake and other adornments were in keeping with the occasion.

Ki Nu Club.

A sauerkraut dinner Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Milo Calderwood on Winslow avenue was a distinct pleasure for the Ki Nu club. Covers were laid for 10 at a long table, attractive with St. Patrick's decorations and the hostess' daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Calderwood, assisted.

For bingo, which featured the later hours, Mrs. Lois Arrow and Mrs. Mary Kennedy won the awards. Plans were made for a dinner and theatre party downtown on the occasion of their next meeting April 11.

BOOKS AND PAPERS INTEREST CIRCLE '06

Late books were named in answer to roll call at the meeting of Reading circle '06 Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. G. D. Hildebrand on Court street.

After the business session, the program was taken up and a number of interesting papers were read. Mrs. E. C. Morrow spoke of "War Memories of Europe"; Mrs. J. C. Cavill of "Traditional Holidays." A humorous article entitled, "Pardon Me," was given by Mrs. J. H. Wilson. A general resume of the afternoon's highlights following, was of much interest.

The club will hold its next meeting in three weeks instead of the usual two, at the home of Mrs. W. R. McKnight on Adams street, April 4.

MOONLIGHT 500 CLUB HONORS BIRTHDAY

At the gathering of Moonlight 500 club members last evening in the home of Mrs. William Mitchell, Spruce street, Mrs. H. J. Reynolds was honored in a pleasing manner, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth. At the close of the card games, for which Mrs. J. R. Mears and Mrs. George Woodring were awarded prizes, the guest of honor was presented with a handsome gift by Mrs. H. J. Reynolds in behalf of the club.

Lunch was served at a table exquisitely decorated in St. Patrick's suggestions, every little detail being carried out to the Nth degree, in novel green and white tones. Even the menu was in keeping with the season, as well as the emerald dishes used. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Florence Mitchell, in serving.

Mrs. Harry Leathers of Sampson street will receive members on March 21 at her home.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY AT THE ELKS CLUB

Contract, auction, 500 and bingo contests offered a variety of delightful entertainment Thursday evening, to nearly sixty guests at the Elks' club party in the club house on North Mercer street.

Players were seated about 13 tables, while some just strolled around and had an informal time chatting. Mr. and Mrs. T. Earl Dukes were genial hosts, and after the games, refreshments were served in the dining room.

Winners of handsome prizes in bridge were: Mrs. Ann Baldwin, Mrs. Harry Ayersman, T. R. McComb, Earl Wallover: 500, Mrs. M. J. Scanlon, Mrs. L. E. Sweet, Samuel Ross, L. E. Sweet: bingo, Mrs. W. A. Haug, Ben Agnew, W. G. Daker, T. R. McComb, Mrs. V. V. Veach.

A similar party will take place at a later date which will be announced.

At First Baptist.

On Thursday afternoon the Women's Missionary society met in the First Baptist church and had the following program:

Mrs. Charles T. Metzler was the leader.

Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. George Stetson.

A play, Christian Americanization play, was directed by Mrs. David Nesbitt and presented by Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Frank Johnston, Mrs. Montgomery Rodgers, Miss Lila Strayer, Mrs. H. A. Sturdy, Miss Barbara Nesbitt and Mrs. W. C. McCalmont.

Mrs. Charles T. Metzler introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Josephine Sroczynska, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. International Institute, whose subject was "Immigration and Other Civic Problems".

Mrs. C. H. Heaton led the current events discussion.

Mrs. Jessie McCalmont, president of the society, was in charge of the business session, during which a report from the treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Elmore, was sumbitted. Mrs. Nesbitt gave the Christian Americanization report, Mrs. William Wilson gave the civics report. Mrs. N. L. Gardner gave the reading contest report and Mrs. Fred Howland the visiting report.

Prayer by Mrs. N. L. Gardner closed the meeting.

Philathea Society

Gathering in the Central Presbyterian church Thursday evening the Philathea Missionary Society spent a delightful period, with Mrs. E. R. Fry, Mrs. George Lyon and Mrs. T. C. Boston as the hostesses.

Mrs. C. B. Wingerd served as the leader and also conducted an impressive installation service. Miss Hannah Walker led the national topic and Mrs. J. L. Maxwell was in charge of the foreign topic. Miss Alice Sterling reviewed the last chapter of the mission study book.

The new president, Miss Blanche Bright, then took charge of the business session.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Fred Donaldson.

Ureys Conclude Trip

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Urey, of Laurel boulevard, returned Thursday from New York City, concluding a delightful cruise on the French line S. S. Lafayette. They visited the West Indies islands, cruising through the Caribbean Sea and stopping at South American ports.

The return trip was made by way of Panama City, and Havana and they had the pleasure of going through the Panama canal on a government ship. They crossed the Andes mountains through Venezuela to Caracas. Mr. and Mrs. Urey were away from the city for a period of three weeks.

Federation Board Meeting.

Plans for the county Federation meeting to be held March 19 at the Epworth M. E. church will comprise the major part of the business discussion for Fderation board members at their meeting called for Tuesday afternoon, March 12.

They will be received in the home of Mrs. David N. Keast, 302 East Wallace avenue, on the latter date.

Leave For Florida

Early Thursday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gerson, of 224 East Winter avenue, left by automobile for balmy Florida, where they will spend the next few weeks.

(Additional Society On Page Seven)

Upstreamers Class

A spaghetti dinner Wednesday evening proved more than ordinarily enjoyable for the members of the Upstreamers class of the Epworth M. E. church.

The dinner was served at the home of Miss Nancy Lightner, County Line street, at 7:30 o'clock. The dining room was attractively arranged for the occasion and the table was centered by a birthday cake in honor of Mrs. Charles Caven's birthday anniversary.

Serving was done by the hostess, assisted by her mother. Games and chat followed.

The class will have its regular monthly meeting on March 14 at the home of Miss Marjorie Clark, Mulberry street.

Quilting And Dinner.

A group of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Alveda Shoaf, West Washington street, on Thursday for a quilting party. A tureen dinner was served at noon.

Plans were made to go to the home of Mrs. Pilshaw for another quilting in the near future.

Surprise Shower

Amerita club members gathered Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Nicholas George, on Lutton street, to tender a shower to their hostess and her young daughter, Irene Rose. Many pretty gifts were received and afterwards the guests played 500. Prize winners were Mrs. Joseph Leta and Mrs. Anthony Villani.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, aides including Mrs. Sam Bassano and Mrs. Rose Claus.

Thursday, of next week, the club will have a theatre party.

Ritz Club

Mrs. James Barlett, of Robinson street, entertained the members of the Ritz club at her home Thursday evening. After the business session cards formed the main diversion, with honors going to Mrs. Frank Boron and Mrs. Albert Di Palmo.

At an appropriate hour refreshments were served, with ravioli as one of the delicious dishes.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. James Bongivengo, Glass street.

Evening Of Fun

An evening of much fun and hilarity was enjoyed Thursday when Mrs. James Hileman of Chestnut street entertained the T. N. N. club. Instead of cards, the customary pastime, the girls enjoyed various contests provided by the hostess, the prizes going to Mary Patterson and Helen Jenkins.

A delicious lunch was served at a long table, with spring flowers for a centerpiece, and candlelight lending additional beauty. Mrs. Zella Needler assisted.

On April 1 the club will be guests of Miss Helen Jenkins at her home on Grant street.

CLEAN UP! IT'S NEAR TIME!

THE snow banked hills are beginning to show brown and drab as the white mantle trickles away under the warming sun.

Here and there beneath the dead remnants of last year's flower garden can be seen green points as the early plants begin to show.

The stores are showing spring attire, the seed catalogues litter the living room floor and the calendar says it's nearly spring.

Time to begin to think of cleaning up the yard, front and back, time to begin pricing paints and varnishes, and settling the annual argument as to which paper would look best on the back bedroom.

Winter leaves a drab residue in its wake but the spring should be the time when the drabness is changed to color and life.

A city is judged by the appearance of its streets and buildings and a citizen is judged by the appearance of his yard and premises.

Why not put an extra lick or two in this spring in cleaning up. A few hours work with a rake and a shovel, a spot of paint here and there, a few flowers or vegetables planted and the yard becomes a thing of beauty.

Let's clean up this spring!

TO DISCOURAGE LAWSUITS

An ingenious plan is said to have been figured out by Senator Norris of Nebraska and Senator Rankin of Mississippi to check the flood of lawsuits against the TVA, NRA and other New Deal institutions. They have introduced a bill which would make anyone who challenged the government in such matters put up enough money to pay the cost of defense if the plaintiff lost his suit. That, they say, would prevent many suits brought with slight cause or for academic or partisan reasons.

There is a good deal of room for argument. Our judicial theory seems to be that the government and private citizens are equal in court. If so, wouldn't the government itself be subject to such a provision, and have to reimburse defendants in NRA prosecutions, for example, when it lost its cases?

It might also be necessary or desirable, if this policy were adopted, to apply to all cases, public and private, in all our courts. Large numbers of unnecessary, malicious or racketeering cases might thereby be forestalled. On the other hand, it might often prevent justice, because a poor man with a just grievance might not be able to post the guarantee required, and so could not sue.

THE PINK SLIP

No particular power of prophecy is required to foresee that the injustice of the "pink slip" provision of the income tax law will be felt especially in the towns and small cities, of which New Castle may very well be a typical example. In the larger cities, people are too occupied with their own affairs and care too little about the affairs of others to pry into them.

But in the smaller towns the standing of the chief citizens is somewhat a matter of common knowledge, and there lies in the pink slip the power to give an untrue picture of many a man's actual and potential resources which could not only damage reputations but could actually bring financial disaster to worthy persons.

Particularly is this true of professional and business men and merchants. To be forced to disclose to the public gaze the extent of temporary reverses or of inability to collect accounts due may well unjustly impair the individual's credit standing and injure his business. The pink slip is so devised as to publish the gross income, the authorizable deductions (in toto), and the tax payable.

It takes but a moment's thought to realize that these figures by no means give an accurate picture of the individual's financial status.

The argument that the country has the right to know the incomes of its rich citizens is no argument, for no such right exists. The country's true right is to compel that rich and poor alike pay their taxes. It is a purpose not abetted by the pink slips. The provisions for them can and should be repealed before March 15.

DOES HE PAY?

The statement of Secretary of Banking, Dr. Luther A. Harr that "the commonwealth for years has helped motorists and the motor industry with highway improvements and now they should as a patriotic duty pay their share" is so naive that one wonders if the doctor was correctly quoted.

Certainly he does not mean to imply that the commonwealth has given the motorist anything without the motorist paying for it. Surely he would not have anyone believe that the motorist has not paid his way. True, the state has a splendid system of highways but where did the money come from?

From the general revenues? Certainly not. From the time motoring became universal among the people the motorist has paid his way. Not only has he paid the current expenses of building and maintaining highways but he has carried the highway bond issue load.

The $100,000,000 bond issue authorized some years ago is being amortized entirely from motor revenues. The money to maintain the highways, to pay the thousands of men employed, to build new roads, comes entirely from the motorists pocket.

Does the motorist pay his way? Let's see what the average citizen pays in a year. For his license plates he pays $10 or more. For his learner's permit he pays $1.50. For his driver's license he pays two dollars for himself and two dollars for his wife. If he drives 9000 miles in a year which is not excessive, and averages 15 miles to the gallon he has paid into the state motor funds $18. He pays an additional $6 to Uncle Sam for his gasoline tax. No tax in all the state is collected as efficiently and as fully as the motor taxes.

The motorist has paid his way and expects to pay his way. All he asks is a fair deal, and no more. He is entitled to no less.

KNOCK ON WOOD!

You haven't had a cold for months and months...Knock on wood.

You've never had a bad automobile accident...Knock on wood.

Whatever you eat, always agrees with you...Knock on wood.

You're happily married. Your children are healthy. You've still got your job. Your roof doesn't leak and your eggs all hatched and your friends are true and you aren't worried about anything...So knock on wood.

You're not superstitious? You don't believe in that silly old practice, come down to us from paganism, or knocking on wood whenevr you mention your luck. But nevertheless you might as well knock on wood. Actually, physically, with your knuckles. Because you DO knock on wood whenever you speak of your good fortune—so far.

You do it in your mind. Subconsciously you make a little prayer of humility, of thanksgiving, to take the curse off your easy acceptance of your luck....Everybody with any feeling about life does that...Knocks on wood.

We were advised by the German philosopher, Nietzsche, to "Live dangerously!" No man ever gave more needless advice. We cannot live otherwise than dangerously.

Risk your life in war, in exploration, or in a laboratory and you live dangerously. But play safe with your life, crawl into a corner and take no chances, shrivel and shiver—and you are still living dangerously because you risk what you are pleased to call your soul.

To live at all is to live dangerously. To live richly is to make that danger grandly satisfying. To live meagerly is to make it a disgraceful retreat from life...So knock on wood, and pray for courage! That's all you need.

HARDWARE STORE FASCINATION

Whenever I go to a hardware store,
I wander the counters round
And gaze at knobs for the kitchen door
In a manner that's most profound
I look at this glistening pots and pans
And the gadgets for shelf and wall,
The hammers and planes, and electric fans
And I wish I could buy them all.

While mother is getting a packet of tacks
I stroll down the crowded aisles.
I linger to fondle a woodman's ax
And the chisels and drills and files.
And I fancy that deep in the heart of me
The boy that I was survives,
For, old though I am, still longingly
I look at the pocket knives.

There is something about a hardware store
Which strangely, I can't resist,
And I think it's the joys I have hungered for
Which somehow my life has missed.
Though under the chill of the years I'd say
That many a passion cools,
A man will keep to his dying day
A deep-rooted love of tools.

NEED FOR ADULATION FREQUENTLY GUIDES MORAL RECTITUDE

Be honest, isn't your vanity the strong force keeping you within honorable bounds?

You want the respect of your fellows.

You like to have homage paid you: your ego is encouraged when someone offers you a compliment.

It is satisfying to feel that you are entitled to the good reputation you enjoy.

Comparatively speaking, few merit the good reputation they have.

You have a high position, but if you are honest with yourself, you will acknowlege that many better men have not gotten so high.

You know that you often grow weary of conventions.

You would like to go somewhere among strangers, where you could throw off restraint and give your desires full sway.

You think you would enjoy such freedom and perhaps you would.

Soon you would become tired of it—you would be ashamed of yourself.

You would want to get back to those who respect you.

You would return to those who had faith in the good intentions which you could proudly support.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:59. Sun rises tomorrow 6:22.

There is always something to be thankful for. We notice that the tomatoes in the seed catalogues are as large and luscious-appearing as ever.

School pupils in an Allegheny county school went on a strike because the school board discharged two teachers. They carried big banners telling what they thought of the directors. We don't know what their parents were doing, unless they were lettering the banners.

When a girl starts calling a man by his first name, you can depend on it, she has an eye on his last one.

Policeman—Lady, don't you know this is a safety zone.

Woman Driver—Of course, that's why I drove in here.

It doesn't add very much to a man's peace of mind when a woman starts to give him a piece of hers.

Never shed any tears because you are skinny or sickly. Chances are you'll outlive a lot of husky guys who imagine they have a corner on good health. At Pittsfield, Mass., twenty years ago, a puny plumber was turned down for life insurance, at the same time that nineteen of his husky friends were passed. All of the nineteen are now dead and the sickly looking plumber is still active on his eightieth birthday.

The hour inevitably produces the man, and about three-quarters of an hour later, the woman.

There is nothing like the sight of an old flame to make a man's heart burn.

A fellow told us the other day that computing measures are not always correct. He says that one pint of some stuff sold these days will make one cavort. We'll say it will.

It must be disappointing to a young couple to find that instead of a love boat, they have embarked on the sea of life in a battleship.

When a man tells a woman to go buy a dress, you can depend on it that she probably knows more than he wants her to know about certain subjects in his life.

Customer—Are my clothes that you are cleaning and pressing ready?

Tailor—Not yet.

Customer—But you said you'd have them ready if you worked all night.

Tailor—Yes, but I didn't work all night.

Only a few more weeks, friends, and spring will be here. Buds are already beginning to appear on some of the small trees, but so far nobody has told us what the peach crop is going to be like. What's become of all the Peachologists?

Washington amateur mechanics originally were cocksure that, by stoking the engine with fuel galore, in the form of taxpayers funds, they could produce enough steam to force spectacular revival. It's been a flop and now the brain trust theorists are being pushed aside. What's needed is some hard headed business men who can inspire the country with some confidence.

"I sent you a kiss over the telephone," he said when he met her. "I hope you understood it."

"Oh, yes," she answered. "I understood, all right enough. But to me a kiss over the telephone is like a straw hat."

"A straw hat?" he echoed. "How?"

"Why," she coyly answered, "it isn't felt."

Assemblyman Blake B. Wall Street Is Irked
Morgan To Remain Here
Terrorism in Yugoslavia

Central Press
New York Bureau

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—The senator who upsets financial New York the most is Senator Elmer Thomas, of Oklahoma, the silverite.

Financial New York sees the silver program of Senator Thomas as pushing not only the United States, but the remainder of the world over the financial brink.

Senator Thomas is trying to have a bill passed making it mandatory that the United States treasury purchase 50 million ounces of silver a month until one billion ounces have been acquired.

"When the treasury is ordered upon a fixed mandatory program, it is not wise finance to count on an unknown factor. It takes little imagination to conceive the confusion in the silver markets of the world toward the end of any one month when it became apparent that the American treasury was short of its 50 million ounces. . . ."

Then, sardonically:

"Perhaps Senator Thomas will introduce a bill compelling all foreign holders of silver to sell their holdings to the United States government."

* * *

WHAT'S THIS?

Something new to reflect on the United States appears in a trade item in the noted Manchester, England, Guardian:

"It is surprising that at a time when conferences are being held in the United States to discuss the problem of the reduction of American cotton exports, when Brazil is pushing forward with efforts to make cotton rank closer in importance to coffee as one of its exports, and when the Lancashire Indian cotton committee are bringing about a large substitution of East Indian for American cotton, that Lancashire spinners should have to complain that they were being sold false-packed bales of American cotton."

This is a terribly long sentence, but the charge is clear.

* * *

MORGAN'S MOVE

J. P. Morgan will not move to England. That is the view of Leslie Gould, financial editor of the New York Evening Journal.

Gould believes that Morgan, in disposing of art, is taking advantage of a good market, in order to be able to have his estate in such condition that his control interest in the Morgan company's activities will not be affected by the huge income tax his son will have to pay.

Morgan's dominance in American finance, according to Gould, has been accomplished with comparatively few millions, well managed. His fortune is not in a class with Ford's or Mellon's.

Going to England would be no escapte for Morgan. Taxes on estates are even higher there, and the size of the Morgan fortune would be diminished by being translated into English pounds at this time.

TERRORISM

Add Yugoslavia to the growing list of countries in which there is fascisti terrorism.

Students have sent a memorial to the outside world protesting against cruelties inflicted on them. They tell of deaths by torture.

This is the country in which the boy king Peter "rules" under the regency of his uncle, Duke Paul. But the real rulers are a group of militaristic terrorists.

Spain, also, is in the grip of such terrorists, from reports seeping through. And Austria, Hungary, Italy and Germany have seen the disappearance of freedom.

In every one of the countries mentioned, leaders of laborites, agrarians and opposing political factions either are in prison or concentration camps (if not dead) or have escaped to exile.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

STRONG MAN

Tim McGrath ran "The Tip" one of San Francisco's well known bars in the old days, and among his friends was "Deacon" Jones, on oldtime Negro fighter.

On the morning of April 18, 1906, the "Deacon" walked into McGrath's bar and demanded a drink. The bartender refused to serve him.

"White man, ef you don't give me a drink quick, I'll pull you' bar down," said Jones, who had quite a reputation as a barroom fighter. The Deacon grabbed hold of the bar and started to tug. Just then the earthquake which destroyed "The Tip" and San Francisco, roared and rumbled. "The Tip" came down around the ears of the bartender and Deacon Jones.

Pulling himself from under bottles and debris, a scared Negro turned to a frightened bartender and said:

"Please tell Mr. McGrath I'm sorry I caused such a disturbance."

That Washington didn't get a unanimous vote for the presidency.

We have to reverse ourselves on our statement to the contrary, and we thank F. Frank Crall, head of the department of history, McKeesport, Pa., high school for setting us aright again.

Washington did get 69 of the 138 electoral votes cast in 1789, as stated here. However under the procedure from 1788-1800, each elector had two votes, which he was constitutionally obliged to cast for two different persons, with the man receiving the largest number being elected president, and the man with the second largest number, the vice president. Thus Washington WAS elected unanimously by the 69 electors, though 138 votes were cast. The first president was the last to be elected unanimously.

National Farm Outlook

Written For Central Press
By ARTHUR H. JENKINS
Editor The Farm Journal

The amendments to the agricultural Adjustment Act which the AAA is asking congress to grant are of a good deal of interest, although possibly not tremendously important to the nation as a whole.

They are mostly concerned with that branch of the AAA activities that deals with "marketing agreements" as distinct from the voluntary reduction processing tax benefit-payment campaigns affecting the great staple crops.

Marketing agreemnets apply to such farm products as fruits, vegetables, peas, beans and corn for canning, milk, tobacco and various specialties that for one reason or another do not lend themselves to other control.

What the AAA wants to do is to consolidate its position on these agreements through stricter licensing of the various dealers and "handlers" of these farm products, and particularly by forcing any given branch of "handlers" to come under a license, even if less than 50 per cent will agree to it voluntarily.

* * *

Open Hearings Desired

Other amendments make it necessary to have open hearings on these licenses and marketing agreements, which have not been in the law hitherto, and therefore presented a weakness from a constitutional stanopoint.

Fines for violation of license would be reduced somewhat.

The AAA would get the right to examine handlers' books to verify the facts and figures given in reports, but for no other purpose.

Limitations of production or allotments could not be imposed on farmers except with approval of two thirds of those in this branch of production.

Licenses could not be imposed on farmers at all, the lack of this provision being chiefly blamed for failure of the amendments last year.

Grove City-Slippery Rock Paving Work Completion Is Desired

MOST OF ROAD ALREADY PAVED

GROVE CITY, Mar. 8—Approval of state plans for completing the "short road" between Grove City and Slippery Rock, by commissioners of Butler County and the council of Slippery Rock Boro clear the decks for an early start on the improvement for which the local Commercial Club has been campaigning for several years.

Maps indicating an 80 foot right of way from the end of the present paving at the Mercer-Butler County line have been submitted by the State Department of Highways. Slippery Rock councilmen have allotted 40 feet on each side of the center of the old "macadam" road as a right-of-way for the proposed route, after viewing the maps. Butler county commissioners indicated by resolution that they would do their part. The road is to be of concrete, 20 feet wide, to match the Mercer County pavement.

Indications that the state would authorize an early start on construction are contained in requests from the state that blue-prints submitted to the Butler County bodies be returned as soon as approved. It is understood that the road is scheduled for immediate action.

E. B. Harshaw, of this city, chairman of the local good roads committee, has been heading an aggressive group that sought completion of this link. It is four miles in length, and is the direct route between Pittsburgh and Erie, by way of Butler and Slippery Rock to Grove City, where a choice of two routes to Erie may be taken, over the Perry Highway from Mercer, or through Sandy Lake, Cochranton and Meadville. On either route, the link between Crove City and Slippery Rock is the only unfinished portion. For two years the four miles have been paved with a narrow macadam surface.

the distributing trades will put up a bitter battle in congress against the proposed change. And indeed it may be doubted whether the AAA is well advised in clamping down a stricter license system when the movement of events seems to be away from government coercion and away from fines for violation of bureaucratic regulations.

Some other amendements, however, are less controversial, particularly those which would permit the AAA to use money from processing taxes to promote the wider sale of the commodity taxed, and would make it possible to pay "benefits" to the wheat or cotton grower in surplus wheat or cotton instead of cash.

* * *

A Debatable Clause

One other point will appeal to all who are interested in constitutional powers, and who question the basis for any kind of federal interference with private business.

The AAA considers all farm business interstate commerce. Nowhere in Washington, not even in the NRA, has there been such an anxious effort to establish and nail down authority over transactions which are not visibly "interstate" in character. In the new amendments therefore,we find the declaration that the AAA licensing power is to extend to the agricultural transactions "in the current of or in competition with or so as to burden, obstruct, or in any way affect, interstate of foreign commerce."

That is a gorgeous phrase, that will delight lawyers, although what the courts may do to it before they have finished with it is another matter entirely. A less sweeping phrase in the present Adjustment Act has several times been thrown out of the lower federal courts, notably in milk cases in Illinois.

Like the gold clause cases, however, we won't really know what is what until the supreme court has laid down the law.

POLISH MEN WILL MEET

Members of the Polish Central Committee will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in St. Michael's hall, 1307 Moravia street, Chairman Basil Mazurkiewicz, announced today.

Steubenville Girl To Get Hearing

(International News Service)

STEUBENVILLE, O. Mar. 8—Accused of the slaying of her father, 17 year old Ethelender Loy was to be given a hearing on a charge of second degree murder today.

The girl was said to have shot her father, Charles W. Loy as he attacked his wife with a knife. The family lived on a houseboat near the Steubenville wharf.

Farm Meetings Are Concluded

Poultry And Dairy Meetings Held In County This Week To Aid Farmers

Lawrence county poultry raisers and dairymen were interested in a series of meetings throughout the county, which were concluded this afternoon.

Earlier in the week, two meetings were held for poultry raisers, at the farms of Charles McClain, of North Beaver township, and in the Firemen's Hall, at New Wilmington, when the early care of chicks was discussed by H. H. Kauffman of Pennsylvania State College.

R. H. Olmstead dairy specialist of State College discussed Bang's disease in cattle, at a series of three meetings which opened Thursday. The first of these was held at Scott township high school at Harlansburg, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock.

This morning, a meeting was held at the home of E. P. Rader of Little Beaver township: and this afternoon at 2 o'clock concluded the series with a meeting in Pulaski township.

Thursday afternoon dairy feeding problems were discussed at a meeting on the farm of John Eppinger, of Plaingrove township.

LUMBERMAN TURNS TO OPERA SINGER

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—After 20 years, Max Franklin, lumber company employe, is facing the goal he longed for during his entire life, a career as an opera singer.

Granted an audition by the Metropolitan Opera Company, Franklin said that it was the first "break" he had had since coming to Pittsburgh 21 years ago. A foreman in the yards of the lumber concern, Franklin is well-known in Pittsburgh musical circles, but he had tried for several years without success to obtain an audition at the Metropolitan.

MOCK WEDDING SOUP MADE QUITE A HIT

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8.—Mr. Beet and Miss Carrot were united in vegetable soup in a mock wedding that was one of the entertainment events at a supper party given by a group of nurses at the Williamsport hospital in honor of a supervisor who will be married soon. Amid much hilarity the nurses voted it one of the "prettiest weddings" they had ever seen.

Little Progress In Lowellville Mystery Case

Belief In Village That Girl Whose Skeleton Was Found Was "Helen"

NAME MENTIONED IN SOME LETTERS

LOWELLVILLE, Mar. 8.—The first name of the girl whose decomposed body was found buried in a shallow grave in a hillside near Lowellville probably was "Helen", Ed Maloney, Lowellville marshal, believes.

The girl, who Coroner David H. Lauser believes was about 25 years old when she died, probably lived in Campbell, for the letters found in a suitcase several years ago, in a brick shed near where the body was found, bore this postmark, said Cecil Seronsy, who led a biology field trip which resulted in accidentally finding the suitcase.

"I understand the name 'Helen' was mentioned quite frequently in one of the letters found in a suitcase," Marshal Maloney said.

Late yesterday afternoon the cheap board suitcase, which had been misplayed, was found at the home of one of Seronsy's biology students.

Contents Divided Up.

Contents of the suitcase, it was revealed today, were divided among the finders, and it may be several weeks before they can be located.

Marshal Maloney has located two wash dresses which he is holding in his office at Lowellville.

There were no names or addresses on the suitcase, and the dresses did not bear identification marks.

Marshal Maloney has been told the suitcase which had a hole punched in its side, contained the two wash dresses, a fur fabric jacket, two or three sets of women's underwear, face powder, some perfume, a doctor's certificate, a small pencil sharpener, and a pair of men's pajamas.

"Packed In Hurry"

"The contents of the suitcase were cramed in, as if the packer were in a hurry," Seronsy said today. "I can't remember just what happened to the letters, but I think they were turned over to Lowellville authorities, who might have sent them to Campbell."

Marshal Maloney thinks the letters might have been burned or thrown way by the finders.

Flowers In Bloom Foresters Report

Sheltered Sections Of State Show Trees And Flowers Out Early

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Early spring flowers are already blooming in Penn's Woods, according to forester's in the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters. Although snow still covers many hills and cakes of ice crowd the narrows of streams, many trees are bursting into bloom.

In sheltered spots away from cold winds the furry blossoms of the pussy-willow are beginning to appear, and the buds of the red and silver maples are swelling for an early opening.

March usually brings forth the white flowers of the trembling and large-toothed aspens. The American elm and the slippery elm, the white poplar, shellbark hickory, and the pink flowers of the Judas tree will be among the early blossoms. Along the ground the arbutus, the hepatica and the spring beauty may soon be found in warm, sheltered locations.

Visitors to state forests and parks are welcomed by the Department of Forests and Waters. Many nature lovers are attracted each spring by the flowers of Pennsylvania's woods, particularly to the early blooming dogwoods at Valley Forge Park.

State foresters urge all visitors to be careful with fire in the woods so that the beauty and utility of the forests may be preserved.

MANY ACCIDENTS

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—State highway patrolmen investigate an average of 40 accidents daily, contributing reports which play an important part in expediting license suspensions where carelessness is disclosed. Last year the patrol investigated 14,267, an increase of more than 25 per cent from the 11,262 accidents which were the subject of inquiries in 1933.

On Court House Hill

Commissions as Notary Publics have been recorded at the register and recorder's office for D. C. Hancher, of Ellwood City and Martin Leonhardt, of this city.

By an agreement made by the county commissioners of Mahoning county, Ohio, the road supervisors of Mahoning Twp., Lawrence county, and the local county commissioners, one and one-half miles more of the state line road are to be improved at the northern end of the present improvement. The work is an RWD projects. The county commissioners are furnishing tools.

Thursday was the last day for filing executions on properties which are to be sold by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard at the April term of court. The list is somewhat smaller than the list for the previous month when there were twenty-seven executions.

With the rejection by the grand jury of the county commissioners to erect a bridge over Cheesman's run during the coming summer the commissioners do not have major projects on. One of the principal reasons for the proposed Breakneck bridge, aside from the condition of the bridge, was that it would furnish an RWD project and result in a saving to the county. The bridge will have to be replaced sometime soon.

County Commissioners were called to the Covert's bridge across the Mahoning river yesterday, when it was reported that a heavy truck had broken planks on the bridge. Happily the truck did not go through and nobody was injured. The commissioners have ordered the bridge repaired.

It is seldom that a grand jury makes such a record was that made by the grand jury this week, when indictments were returned on all of the eighteen bills presented. Usually there are several reported "Not true bills." In some of those acted upon some of the counts of the indictments were ignored, but there will be something on which to go to trial in each case. The list of cases presented by District Attorney Mont L. Ailey, was considerably less than usual. This was owing to the fact that a great many prisoners have pleaded guilty since the December term of court.

Charles E. Ketterer, receiver of the Citizens Bank of Ellwood City, has filed two suits at the prothonotary's office against the Ellwood City hospital. The suits are based on notes given the bank. One note, given on October 5th, 1931 was for $5,000. On this note there is a balance due of $4,030.96, with interest from October 5, 1931. The other note was for $9,400. It was given on December 30, 1932. On this note there is a balance due of $7,544.69, with interest from January 30, 1933.

An appeal from the decision of Justice of the Peace J. R. Broadbeck has been filed at the prothonotary's office in the case of Sol Wolk and Sons, of Pittsburgh against the Diamond Men's Shop, of this city. The suit was based on an alleged balance due the Pittsburgh firm. Judgment for $114.50 was awarded by the justice, and the defendant disputes the bill.

Judges R. L. Hildebrand and Jas. A Chambers held juvenile court yesterday at which delinquent children were given hearings in private. Only the parents of the children are admitted at the hearings. The children are placed in the custody of Parole Office Jack M. Dunlap, to whom they must make regular reports.

County commissioners have received very few responses from former property owners, whose properties were purchased in former years by the commissioners. The former owners are now being given a chance to redeem their properties by paying the taxes, and if this is not done it is proposed to sell the properties. Union township has been the only one taken up so far, but it is understood that the next one will be Shenango.

The report specifically cited 85 samples as violations of the state seed law. A majority of the violations, however, were of a minor nature. A table was included giving the names and addresses of all seed wholesalers and retailers showing the quality of seed originating from each.

State and federal authorities anticipate that a large quantity of seed low in germination will be offered this year becaues of the shortage and high price of timothy, clover and other field seeds.

BURNING BRUSH IS HAZARD TO WOODS

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8 —State Game Commission officials today issued their annual spring appeal asking care in burning of brush. Fires that escape those engaged in the practice each year cause heavy damage to game birds and animals. In addition human lives sometimes are lost.

Officials suggested that brush be burned only when adjacent weeds or brush are wet and when the air is calm. Surrounding the site of the fire with a wide swath from which inflammable material has been removed also was recommended.

One of America's first industrial triumphs was the almost complete monopoly of the world's cotton markets.

THIS MOTOR CLUB IN FAVOR OF GAS

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Mar. 8—In site of conditions attached to their resolution approving the levying of an addition two cents tax on gasoline, the Jefferson County Motor club remains one of the few county groups upholding the tax-measure.

The gasoline tax plan was approved with the provision that any funds raised must be specifically allocated to the reduction of school and land taxes.

Further discussion of the matter is expected to be held at the annual meeting of the Jefferson county club here on April 9. The speaker on that occasion is to be S. E. Gable, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation.

JUDGE SAYS WOMAN'S PLACE IS IN HOME

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Mar. 8—The woman's place is in the home, according to Judge D. W. Henderson.

That was the effect of the jurist's ruling in enjoining Mrs. Mae Kelley, Fairchance, from going out at night any more and requiring her husband, Troy Bruce Kelley, to give her $50 a month instead of $40 a month for the support of their five children.

Kelley complained to the court that his wife would leave the children alone at night. The court instructed both that it was their first duty to look after their family.

EVENING EVENT FOR L. A. B. CLUB MEMBERS

The home of Mrs. William H. Marker, Winter avenue, was the scene of a delightful party, when she had as guests, associates of the L. A. B. club, and three visitors, Mrs. G. W. Rigby, Mrs. William Nelson of this city, and Mrs. Mary Sinclair of Youngstown, Ohio.

Cards formed the diversion, trophies going to Mrs. M. R. Sweet and Mrs. Lucy Covert. At conclusion of play Mr. William Marker, favored those assembled with several pleasing piano selections. Mrs. J. W. Sweet and Mrs. Ira Taylor each rendered a vocal solo as another part of the program.

In serving lunch, the appointments and all details being cleverly carried out suggestive of St. Patrick's day, was served by the hostess, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Lucy Covert were her aides.

In two weeks Mrs. Maude Jones of Maryland avenue will entertain at their regular meeting.

Ten Ivory Club

Members of the Ten Ivory club were entertained in the home of Phyllis Aicone, Clearview avenue, Thursday evening. After a short business period, the hostess was presented with the usual club gift. Cards and informal pastimes ensued. Later the hostess served a tasty lunch, assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. Nativio. Miss Florence Deli shared as a special guest of the evening.

A report of the frolic held by members on Tuesday evening in King Humbert hall was given.

Their next meeting will be held at the residence of Theresa Fazzone, Lutton street, on the eve of March 21.

Jolly Twelve Club

Mrs. Frank Myers, of Allen street, received the Jolly Twelve club at her home Thursday evening.

A social hour was enjoyed, cards were featured, and honors were won by Mrs. Charles Rimey and Mrs. Albert Perkins.

In serving a tasty lunch the hostess had the assistance of the Misses Ruth Myers (her daughter), and Louise Faupel.

EASY ACES CLUB DINNER THURSDAY

Miss Helen Geary of Neshannock avenue entertained members of the Easy Aces club at a local tea room Thursday evening, at a chicken dinner party. Beautiful appointments in keeping with the season, decorated the table, and at 7 o'clock the menu was served.

The pastime of the leisure hours following, was found in playing "Pokeno" with Mrs. Clara Balch winning the prize.

Their next meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. J. W. Staudinger on Wilmington avenue.

Chicken Dinner

The Junior Guild of St. Andrews church held a chicken dinner in the dining room of the church this week which was well attended. At two long tables places were laid for 40 guests.

The centerpieces were bouquets of fresh flowers, with tall tapers on either side. A color scheme of orchid and yellow prevailed in appointments, favors being tiny yellow baskts of candy. Members of St. Andrews bingo committee were visitors, together with Rev. Samuel Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hetrick.

After dinner, an enjoyable entertainment was presented, which included several selections by the Pumpkin Town Symphony String Band, accompanied by the Ritter Twins.

The committee promoting the affair consisted of Ethel Evans, Dorothy Jones, Violet Hetrick, Gretta Nesbitt, Rose Sturdevant, Frances Davis, Frances Barbara, Lillian Falls.

Will Honor Three

At a meeting of the Willing Workers of the Emmanuel Baptist church Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Griff Phillips, Lyndal street, plans were made for a class dinner on March 21 to honor the three oldest members of the class, Mrs. Thomas Evans, Mrs. William Phillips and Mrs. Sara Davis.

The dinner will be a 6 o'clock affair and will be at the church.

At last night's meeting Mrs. Katherine Merriman was the associate hostess. A report stating that a nice sum of money was realized from the last social and quilt display given by the class, was read, and it was voted to turn over the money to the church.

A prize was awarded during the evening to Mrs. William Phillips.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Ayers, Waldo street, with Mrs. David Mort associate hostess, on April 4.

Queen Sewing Circle.

An enjoyable all day meeting in the home of Mrs. James Richards, Chestnut street, interested members of the Queen Sewing Circle Thursday, with Mrs. Charlotte Richards, Mrs. William Herman and Mrs. Holsinger attending as special guests. Mrs. William Crowe was one of the five members who shared the event, and this marked her first meeting following a long illness. She was given a cordial welcome.

After the serving of dinner at 12 o'clock, quilting held their attention, and informal pastimes filled in the leisure moments also.

In two weeks Mrs. Hettie Rhoads of Beckford street will extend hospitality to club members.

Last evening the Re-Deal club enjoyed the cordial hospitality extended in the home of Miss Constance Priestly, Wilmington avenue, who entertained informally at cards.

Prizes for honor scores were presented to Mrs. June Crill and Miss Diane Foulke at conclusion of play, and also lovely tokens were given to the Misses Kathryn Wagner and Kathryn Dixon, special guest of the club.

At the appointed hour, a tempting St. Patrick's lunch was served by the hostess, at tables which also expressed the approaching season. Miss Wagner assisted the hostess.

The next meeting, March 21, will take place at the residence of Mrs. June Crill, Adams street.

Past Worthy Mistresses Club

Past Worthy Mistresses club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Belle Hopwood on East North street. There were nine guests present and at the usual game of 500, Mrs. Helen Ray and Mrs. Blanche Lewis won the favors.

Arrangements were made for a bingo party in Clendenin hall, on Thursday evening, March 14. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Julia Miller, Mrs. Myre Parks, Mrs. Belle Hopwood.

Refreshments were served with the assistance of Herbert Stockman. Mrs. Blanche Lewis will entertain the group on April 4, at her home on Butz street.

Sicilian Girls Club.

Miss Jennie Venturella of the Wilmington road proved a pleasing hostess last evening to members of the Sicilian Girls club in her home. A short business period opened the program, and instead of the usual card contest ,the girls enjoyed an interesting discussion on the "Life of Leonardo DaVinci," a noted artist. Miss Mary Ciao led this feature.

In serving a dainty menu of refreshments, the hostess was aided by her sister Nancy. St. Patricks appointments prevailed.

In two weeks Mrs. Dykes Monsey of Huron avenue will entertain.

Top Notch Club

Members of the Top Notch Club were pleasantly entertained in the home of Miss Madeline Caruso, of East Lutton street, Wednesday evening.

The hours were whiled away playing cards, listening to music and discussing numerous topics of interest. Club token was won by Miss Madge Pezone. Delicious refreshments were served during the course of the evening.

Mrs. Joseph Fortune, East Lutton street, will receive the club in two weeks.

Birthday Honored

Frank W. Wood received a pleasant surprise on his birthday Wednesday evening while playing cards at the home of a friend. A large group of friends dropped in for an informal celebration of the occasion.

Music was furnished by the Davis trio assisted by Charles Knox with the piano accordian. A buffet lunch was later served by Mrs. Helen Waddington and aides, Miss Dorothy Dennis, Mrs. Myron Bollard, Mrs. Charles Hennon, Mrs. John Burns.

The guest of honor received many handsome gifts.

Ladies' Auxiliary

A new organization of the Second U. P. church, the Ladies' Auxiliary, had an excellent meeting Thursday evening. Reports from the different sections were presented during the business period, and a "White Elephant" party followed, causing quite a great deal of merriment.

A lunch was served by the heads of sections. Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Roy Warnock, Mrs. C. W. Martin and Mrs. Clarence McCormick.

Reunited League

Bingo featured the meeting of the Reunited Ladies league members Thursday evening, with Mrs. Lena Nolte of Hazen street, hostess. Prizes for the contest were carried off by Mrs. Elsie Phillips, Mrs. Anna Richards and Mrs. Mary Wyman.

A delicious collation served at a late hour, concluded activities. The hostess had as her aide, Mrs. Frank Campbell. Plans for their next event will be decided later.

J. U. G. Club

Playing cards Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Milton McHattie, on Croton avenue, was a pleasing diversion for members of the J. U. G. club. Mrs. Dorothy Schetrom and Roy Bales captured the trophies and in serving, a tasty repast, Miss Sara Shehy aided.

The next meeting will be in a fortnight at the home of Mary Ellen Blaine, on Dewey avenue.

Swastika Party

Members of the Swastika Class of the First Congregational church met at the home of Margaret Thomas, Park avenue, last evening, for the purpose of celebrating their second anniversary. Miss Margaret Davis presided over the business period, when election of the following officers occurred: president.

Saturday

Shenango chapter, O. E. S., card party at home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brown, Lincoln avenue.

G. T. E., Mrs. Clyde Lloyd, East Washington street; dinner for husbands.

Kupple Kard Klub, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Zeigler, Adams street.

G. T. E. Members Guests

Prizes for cards, went to Mrs. Jack Jones, Mrs. Charles Alexander and Mrs. Clarence Welsh, at the meeting held Thursday evening of G. T. E. club members, in the home of Mrs Charles Alexander on Dewey avenue, who entertained in an enjoyable manner.

Following play, an informal social time was featured, during which time the hostess assisted by her mother, served a delicious repast.

Announcement was made regarding the men's party, previously scheduled for this Saturday evening. The occasion has been postponed until Saturday, March 16th and will take place in the home of Mrs. Clyde Lloyd on East Washington street. Their next regular session however, will be in two weeks, Mrs. Earl White of Croton avenue, hostess.

Mrs. Matheis Entertains

At the home of Mrs. Etta Matheis, Park avenue, on Thursday afternoon, the Women's Missionary society of the Central Presbyterian church had a stewardship program, with the president, Mrs. J. T. Byers, leading the devotionals.

Mrs. Anna Finney and Mrs. J. Etta Matheis sang two songs. Mrs. C. B. Wingerd gave a reading, "Out of an Old Coffee Can." Mrs. Grant Fisher, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. Oscar Rhodes and Mrs. J. P. Houlette, gave a stewardship pageant, "For the Master's Use."

During the business meeting Mrs. Wingerd installed the officers who will serve for the coming year. With the exception of the president all are the same officers as last year. Mrs. R. J. Williams is the new president, taking the office of Mrs. J. T. Byers, who found it not possible to serve for another year.

Mrs. Oscar Rhodes, the treasurer, gave a fine report, stating that the apportionment was met in full and all obligations were taken care of. For the social period dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Matheis and Mrs. Anna Finney.

Shenango Choir Members

Members of Shenango Chapter, No. 333, Order of the Eastern Star, choir, will hold their tureen dinner Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Clara Remley, 940 Marshall avenue, instead of with Mrs. Sara Rhodes as previously planned.

Physicians Aid Letherman's Case

Say Girl Could Have Been Killed In Fall Over Embankment

MURDER TRIAL NEARS CONCLUSION

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8. — The story of William Letherman, 25, Charleroi athlete on trial for murder in connection with the death of his fiance, Miss Viola Dennis, was bolstered by two physicians who testified for the defense in criminal court here today.

Fighting a second degree murder charge, Letherman told jurors his sweetheart died from injuries suffered in a fall over a five-foot embankment near Fehls church last August. The commonwealth claims he killed her during a "love quarrel" in the lonely church yard.

Dr. Martin E. Griffith of the Monongahela hospital and Dr. A. S. Sickman, chief of staff of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, estified today, however, Viola could have met death in the fall described by the youthful defendant.

Weather Prophets Mostly In Hiding

Where Are Those Forecasters Who Predicted Exceptionally Cold Winter

WINTER WARMER THAN U. S. NORMAL

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The weather bureau is having a quiet chuckle today at some people who predicted the winter of 1934-35 would be unusually cold.

It turned out to be a very warm winter in almost all the United States. The weather bureau, incidentally, issued no forecast of what the winter would be like.

Between 85 and 90 per cent of the country had a winter warmer than normal. The small portion in the Northeast that was colder than normal was not so cold as it was the previous winter.

Some unofficial phophets based forecasts of a cold winter on movements of air masses. But the masses actually brought warm weather. Cold Polar air moved southward by way of Hudson Bay over eastern Canada, and centered over the northeastern United States. Turning clockwise, this mass helped to maintain prevailing winds from a southerly direction over the rest of the country, sweeping up warm tropical air from the Gulf of Mexico, the weather bureau asserts.

"Since the winter of 1917-18," says the bureau, "there has been a remarkable trend to warm winters in the United States. Fifteen of these 17 winters have been warmer than normal, when the country as a whole is considered, and about half of the 15 show plus departures of temperatures for practically all sections of the country. . . .

"Precipitation for the winter, 1934-35, ran, in general, below normal, except in a few areas."

Opportunity Knocks; Students Are Away

Find Note Where Door Ought To Be Demanding Four Dollars For Its Return

(International News Service)

LEWISBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—"Opportunity" knocked on the door of two Bucknell University students and, finding no one in, removed the door!

Jack Bailey, of Elkland, and William Peebles, of Trenton, N. J., both freshmen, returning home the other night, found a note signed "Opportunity" tacked on the yawning entrance to their sanctuary, demanding $4 ransom to save the door from the firewood pile.

The note, written on brown wrapping paper, read:

"Dear Mr. Bailey and Mr. Peebles: Finding no one at home tonight when I called, I removed your door. No harm will come to it while it is in my possession if you place four dollars in one-dollar bills in the waste paper can on the fourth floor of East College, Sunday night at midnight, after which the door will be returned safely to you. Otherwise I shall burn the door or sell it for firewood, and I will never knock again," signed "Opportunity."

Bailey and Peebles, however, refused to take the warning seriously, believing it was but a prank by sophomores.

Pet Crow Now A Hitch-Hiker

(International News Service)

CANTON, O.,—"Blackie" has his own ideas about hitch-hiking.

"Blackie" the pet crow of George Axx, of Canton, has a passion for stealing rides. Now, after the first few times, Axx has become accustomed to it and thinks nothing of his extra passenger.

But the peculiar part about it is that "Blackie" dosen't choose a comfortable seat in the Axx family car. Instead, he occupies a place on the brake rods underneath the machine.

Why he selected such a place nobody knows, because "Blackie" can't see a thing from his mobile perch. And not only that, but the mud and water from the road splashes on him and the oil from the car drips on him. But it's O. K. with "Blackie." Axx, reasons that perhaps the crow, in his youth, was a rider of the "rods" and thus prefers the peculiar position.

Robinhood Now Man In Iron Mask

Medieval Cage Revived To Keep Bandit From Escaping

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI.—An iron cage will house China's 'Robin Hood,' Swallow Li, for the remainder of his life.

Known through North China as 'Swallow' because of his ability to break through prison walls, Li was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

A few days after he was put in prison the famous bandit, who has become a figure of romance because he claimed to have robbed the rich to give the poor, was missing.

Close search of the cell failed to reveal the means by which he escaped. Two weeks later, however, he was rearrested. Several years more were added to his original sentence and he was given solitary confinement in a remote corner of the prison.

Once again his cell was found empty. An intense search by a disgruntled police force ultimately discovered Li and he was again brought to trial. The judge added 10 years to his sentence this time and he was placed in a cell even better guarded than before. Escape seemed impossible, but to the astonishment and bewilderment of the authorties the outlaw was again at liberty within a few days of his sentence.

He was arrested for the fourth time and the judge decided to extend his sentence to penal servitude for life.

The prison governor, determining that Li should never escape again, installed an iron cage in which Li was placed and a strong guard was mounted without.

Friends are confident that the invincible bandit will find means to start on his travels again as soon as he is tired of the Government's hospitality.

MOTORISTS RESPOND

HARRISBURG. Mar. 8.—Motor vehicle owners who plan to get the maximum value out of their registration are renewing their licenses at the rate of from 2000 to 3000 a day. The bureau of motor vehicles reports the current aggregate of registration about 50,000 ahead of the total for the corresponding date of last year.

This Student Was Real Fast Thinker

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—Fast-thinking in the extreme was effectively demonstrated by a Gettysburg college student to pull himself out of a "prize boner" recently.

It all happened while Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president, was addressing a college gathering. His remarks apparently failed to impress a young sophomore seated near the front of the hall who turned to a woman nearby and asked if she knew the "old windbag" who was speaking.

"Do you know who I am?" she demanded.

"No," the youth replied.

"I'm the 'windbag's' wife," she answered.

The student, taken aback, quickly regained his composure and queried:

"Do you know who I am?"

"No."

"Thank Heaven," he stammered.

Third Class City Study Is Planned

Costs Of All Branches Of Municipal Service Will Be Compared

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Plans for a survey of the activities of third class cities in Pennsylvania are being made by the bureau of municipalitie in the Department of Internal Affairs, according to Secretary Philip F. Dewey. Tabulations will be made on the costs of all branches of municipal service and figures on taxes and assessments also will be compiled. Per capita costs on police and fire protection park, playgrounds, street and sewer maintenance and other items will be worked out for purposes of comparison.

Secretary Dewey pointed out that under the law creating the bureau, it is empowered to make such surveys and in so doing the bureau becomes a clearing house for municipal information. When the facts are compiled and tabulated detail sheets will be forwarded to the various cities so that they in turn may know operating costs of respective departments in all cities in the class.

SENATE WORK RELIEF BILL BATTLE OPENS

President Faces Stiff Opposition

Both Republicans and Democrats Challenge Huge Relief Measure

AMENDMENTS TO BILL ARE LIKELY

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—President Roosevelt faced the first real challenge to his fiscal policies today as the senate armed for a new battle over his $4,880,000,000 work relief bill.

This challenge came from both Republicans and Democrats. The Republican threat came in the form of an amendment, prohibiting expenditure of $4,000,000,000 of the fund until the government imposes new taxes to amortize the huge indebtedness. The Democratic attack came in the form of amendments to slash the huge appropriation to $1,880,000,000 and limit its use to the two-year-old experiment of direct relief.

Would Sell Bonds

The Republican demand was sponsored by Senator Townsend (R) of Delaware. His proposal would treat the $4,000,000,000 work fund as a new liberty loan to be raised through sale of a long term bond issue, which in turn would be amortized by a sinking fund to be financed by new taxes. It would be a substitute for the president's present fiscal policy of merely borrowing the money from banks for short periods at low interest rates.

Republicans and some conservative Democrats charged the president was piling up so huge a deficit that any future effort to balance the budget would be hopeless since the nation would be unable to absorb the tremendous taxes required.

Some Democrats were ready to denounce the president's work relief program as "wasteful," "extravagant" and "dangerous to the government's credit."

Where Life Is Not Dull.
A Noble Life Ends.
If You Were President.
Much Vice, Many Murders.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

LIFE IN the Senate is not dull; seats in the sight-seeing galleries could be sold at a good price, if that were not beneath senatorial dignity.

IN ONE session an alleged guard of Senator Huey Long, sitting in the gallery, is examined by the sergeant-at-arms, "frisked" in search of deadly weapons.

Senator Long, protesting against the "frisking," his eyes rolling in an unusually fine frenzy, asks, "What do you want to do; do you want to say I must be murdered here?"

SENATOR ROBINSON, Senate leader of Senator Long's party and a believer in senatorial dignity, suggests to Senator Long that he go outside and fight it out with Gen. Johnson, personally, physically and violently. Gen. Johnson would be willing, fighting is his specialty. Senator Long said, "I'm not much of a fighter unless I have to."

SENATOR LONG names two Senators whom he will not permit to return to the Senate. They are not from his state, but he thinks the constituents of Senator Robinson and Senator Bailey would be guided by his advice.

JUSTICE OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, dead within two days of his ninety-fourth birthday, one of the greatest judges that have sat upon the United States' supreme bench, will be buried in Arlington Cemetery, where doubtless, his wife, who died before him, will lie beside him.

His military burial will remind fellow countrymen that before he became a great Supreme Court justice, Oliver Wendell Holmes was a good soldier, severely wounded.

You might look far in history before finding a life more completely satisfactory or more completely useful than that of the late Supreme Court justice.

MRS. VICTOR BERGER, widow of the late Socialist Congressman from Milwaukee, will like to be remanded of the fact that "the dissenting justice," Mr. Holmes, intervened in her husband's behalf when Postmaster General Burleson had barred Victor Berger's Milwaukee Leader from the mails because of its pacifist attitude in the war. Justice Holmes disposed of the matter, thus:

"The United States may give up the postoffice when it sees fit, but while it carries it on, the use of the mails is almost as much a part of free speech as the right to use our tongues, and it would take very strong language to convince me that Congress ever intended to give such a practically despotic power to one man."

IN HIS last public utterance, Justice Holmes, on his ninetieth birthday, nearly four years ago, declined to speak of himself, saying:

"In this symposium my part is only to sit in silence. To express one's feelings, as the end draws near, is too intimate a task."

He had still to live four years, lacking only three days. Those four years of courageous life, like the long years that had preceded them, were more eloquent than any address that could have been made.

THESE ARE the days of youth. When you hear of agitation in Spain, Cuba, Mexico, even in conservative England, you find youth at the helm and new ideas at the prow, some of the new ideas startling, such as:

"No, I would NOT fight for king and country."

THIS REPUBLIC is to have a weekly newspaper for young Americans to be called "Young America," intended for Americans sixteen to eighteen years of age, and under.

Its publisher, Stuart Scheftel, who believes that youth deserves a more important place in the scheme of things, asks his young readers to answer first of all the question: "What would I do if I were President of the U. S. A.?" More or less competent judges will select the best answer, and probably select a better answer than they could write.

What would you do if you were President of the United States? Whatever you might do, you could safely rely on a considerable number of self-approving patriots to tell you that you were doing the wrong thing.

TO NEW YORK as a crime, shooting, murdering, gambling, vice and all-around racketeering center, Chicago takes off her hat politely, says, "After you."

Today it may be said truly:

"If you hear anything in New York it's somebody being shot."

A "vice grand jury" was called and promptly those interested began shooting others that might become dangerous witnesses.

Three were killed on one day, one a taxicab driver. Police though he was accidentally shot by gunmen seeking to kill "Blonde Mazie," who sat in the back of the cab.

Police change their minds today, say the taxi driver was wanted, and that "Blonde Mazie" was there to "put the finger" on the man to be killed.

NEXT DAY came two more killings. One dead man owned a string of taxicabs, said to be built conveniently for criminals, small windows offering protection to the occupants, with free play for machine guns. Another taxi driver was killed and thrown into the gutter. There is a "taxi-racket" in town.

Yesterday in Union Square, three young bandits were arrested after they had stolen eleven hundred dollars. "All," the police tell you "have robbery records." You wonder how the young gentlemen happened to be free in Union Square with those robbery records.

Was it parole board foolishness, or judicial coddling of criminals, or "good work" by criminal lawyers?

NEAR SANTANDER, Spain, a mob entered the tomb of the Marquis of Valdecilla, dragged the remains of the well-known philanthropist and friend of the Spanish monarch from the sarcophagus, mutilated the corpse, scattered fragments around the cemetery.

Such is the feeblest, most ineffective sort of revenge. In France, after the monarchy was restored, the same thing was done with the remains of Voltaire that had been buried in the Pantheon with great honors. His ashes were thrown on a garbage pile. But that was not effective, since his ideas could not be thrown there.

RAMSAY MacDONALD told the House of Commons that Germany's actions were causing a war scare and wanted his representative to discuss the matter with Chancellor Hitler.

Chancellor Hitler replied:

"I have a cold."

England replies to that with an appropriation of sixty million pounds, about three hundred million dollars, to build more fighting ships. You may hear some heavy guns, and buzzing air machines.

COUNTY OWNS MUCH UNSEATED LAND

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8 — Nearly 100,000 acres of unseated land, taken over for delinquent taxes in the past 20 years, are owned by Lycoming county, according to an estimate made by County Engineer Mark C. Krause.

The commissioners are hoping to get the land back into tax-producing channels soon. They also are considering leasing the mineral rights which they hold under considerable areas of mountain land in the upper part of the county.

An aerial survey for mineral deposits is to be made in Australia.

IN THE MIDDLE

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—Motorists driving on the wrong side of the road were responsible for 5374 accidents last year, the department of revenue's division of safety reports. Among these accidents were 104 which resulted in fatalities and 2707 which caused non-fatal injuries.

Canal Booster Asks Bridges Be Raised At Counties Cost

BEAVER, Pa., Mar. 8.—Beaver county boosters of the Ohio river and Lake Erie canal via the Beaver and Mahoning rivers have asked the Beaver county commissioners to finance the raising of the 16 bridges along the Beaver river.

The cost was estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. The committee, headed by Mayor Dennis Mutschelle of Beaver Falls and Colonel James P. Leaf of Rochester, expressed the belief the canal would be financed from the $4,800,000,000 works relief bill now pending in congress.

The commissioners expect to give an answer within a few days.

SPEED TAKES TOLL OF ONE LIFE DAILY

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—Speed on the highways claim at least one life a day in Pennsylvania, the Department of Revenue's Division of Safety reports.

Last year 382 fatal accidents were caused by motorists who were driving too fast for the existing road and weather conditions. In January, this year, twenty-eight fatal accidents were attributed to this cause.

Sons Of Legion To Meet Tonight

Large Group Of Veterans Sons And Parents Expected At Meeting

Arrangements have been completed for the meeting of the Sons of the American Legion at the Legion Home this evening at 7:30, when the organization will be completed.

The charter has been opened and all who register at this time will be placed on the charter of the local squadron.

Pilot L. G. Theakstone, manager of the New Castle airport, will speak to the sons and will judge their airplanes.

The meeting will be closed with a luncheon, and indications point to a large attendance.

THIS SIGN WAS SURE MISLEADING

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8—A woman member of the congregation of St. John's Reformed church saw a sign, "Closed Doors," on the bulletin board as she was about to enter the church for Sunday service, turned and returned home.

Inquiring later as to why the church was closed, she learned that "Closed Doors" was the subject of the sermon.

In the period since the oldest known rocks were laid down, taken as some 1,600 million years ago, the earth's rotation is supposed to have increased from 20 to 24 hours.

Civic Orchestra Plays Tonight

Free Public Concert In Benjamin Franklin Auditorium At 8:15

SOME SURPRISES ARE PROMISED

Something new in the way of orchestral music is promised for tonight when the New Castle Civic Orchestra presents its second public concert in the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school. In addition two "musical surprises" are promised.

Since the first public concert in the Senior High School auditorium the orchestra has been busy smoothing out a few minor bumps, improving the musical arrangements and striving for a smoother performance. They seem to have it and tonight's concert should be something well worth hearing.

Afternoon Concert

This afternoon the orchestra plays two concerts for the students of the school. Tonight students will not be admitted unless they are accompanied by their parents. This in order to avoid the confusion that usually results when yougsters are admitted to adult affairs.

The concert starts at eight fifteen with Director Harry C. Hammond and Conductor J. V. Sypher in charge. In addition to the drawing power of the orchestra, many people want to see the interior of the Franklin auditorium since it was redecorated by RWD artists.

Like the previous concert there will be no collections and no admissions, the concert being entirely free. Sponsored as an Emergency Education Relief project, the orchestra has started people thinking along lines of a permanent civic orchestra in New Castle. It is the hope of those interested in it that eventually New Castle will have a civic orchestra that will be available for public affairs in the future.

VETERAN RELIEVED OF CONSTIPATION* BY NATURAL FOOD

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Corrects His Condition

Here is an interesting, unsolicited letter: "I have used Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for about 4 years, and find it a wonderful relief for constipation.* While in Government Service in the P. I., I contracted constipation* in 1898-99.

"I consider your ALL-BRAN in terms of millions, instead of the cost of a box of pills, for it surely has saved me. I eat ALL-BRAN every morning."—F. L. Wylie, Visalia, Calif.

Research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies gentle "bulk" to aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also rich in vitamin B, as well as iron, an element of the blood.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a delicious laxative food . . . far better than patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. In severe cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dying Statement Of Woman Given

Deathbed Statement Accuses Lebanon Man Of Slaying Act

TRIAL IN PROGRESS IN EASTERN COURT

(International News Service)

LEBANON, Pa., Mar. 8—Emma Miller's deathbed statement sprang to life today to accuse Byron A. Laudermilch, elderly lingerie manufacturer, of slaying her.

Before she died in the Good Samaritan hospital of a bullet that severed her spinal cord, the 26 year old factory worker named Laudermilch as her assailant, Dr. Adam L. Hauer told a jury of 12 men in Lebanon county court where Laudermilch is on trial for his life.

Told her death was merely a matter of hours, she was asked by Chief County Detective George Tucker who shot her and left her in a roadside ditch at the deserted National Guard reservation at Colebrook, Dr. Hauer related.

"Byron shot me," she answered. Dr. Hauer told the jury. Questioned by District Attorney James L. Atkins, the physician explained "Byron" was Byron Laudermilch, the wealthy manufacturer in whose factory the girl had once been employed and with whom, it was testified she had been friendly for several years.

Fiermontes On Way To France

Former Boxer And Wealthy Wife Leave Italy After Much Difficulty

(International News Service)

ROME, Mar. 8.—Ex-boxer Enzo Firemonte and his bride, Mrs. Madeline Astor Fiermonte, sped towards France today to leave a fortnight of Italian woe behind them.

The Fiermontes were finally allowed to leave when Enzo's passport was returned by Italian authorities, who at first had planned to keep Fiermonte here because they considered him, as an Italian good-will ambassador, decidedly a third-rater. Fiermonte came to Italy to see his Italian ex-wife and son.

Buffalo Boy Was Urged By Mother To Kill Father

Richard Kloes, 11, Tells Prosecutor Real Facts In Slaying Of Mother

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 8—Richard Kloes, 11 year old schoolboy, confessed his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kloes, "told me to kill father because he was mean," District Attorney Newcomb revealed today just before beginning presentation of the John Kloes murder case to the grand jury.

Newcomb announced that a first degree murder indictment would be asked against Mrs. Kloes, who is in a critical condition in city hospital, following a blood transfusion.

May Escape Charge

The boy, however, may escape a murder charge due to his extreme youth.

Newcomb also revealed that Mrs. Kloes, through a series of notes had urged little Richard to kill his father on several previous occasions.

Commission Finds Mitchell Is Sane

Will Be Placed On Trial For The Murder Of His Wife Next Week

James Mitchell, who is charged with the murder of his wife, Evelyn Mitchell, is sane, according to the report of a commission after examining Mitchell in the county jail Thursday evening. The commission was composed of Drs. Henderson and Kaplan, and Attorney Alvah M. Shumaker.

After Mitchell was placed in jail Sheriff Pritchard noticed that he was acting queerly. This was called to the attention of District Attorney Mont L. Ailey, who wanted to be sure that Mitchell was sane before placing him on trial.

A commission was appointed to determine the matter. After a thorough examination of Mitchell, the commission found that he had been suffering from delirium tremens, which might have accounted for his actions, but as to his mentality the commission was satisfied that he is sane.

Mitchell will therefore be placed on trial for the murder of his wife.

Medical Society Hears Dr. Whalen

'Infectious Diseases' Is Topic Of His Paper; Spring Work Planned

The four infectious diseases of measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever and diphtheria were discussed last night by Dr. Charles H. Whalen in a paper he delivered before the Lawrence County Medical society at The Castleton. It was the society's regular March meeting, and nearly 40 attended.

The members in their business meeting, voted to cooperate with city and county school authorities and the state health department in a campaign, to be conducted later in the spring, to immunize pupils against diptheria.

The immunization, according to the tentative plan, will come about May 1, already designated as Public Health Day.

Reports that three sessions of the post-graduate school for physicians have been held at the Jameson Memorial hospital and that three more are to be conducted at the New Castle hospital were made to the organization.

GETS REQUISITION FOR GEO. SAMMERS

County Detective A. Sharp Leslie was at Columbus, O., yesterday where he secured a requisition to return George Sammers, alias George Davis, to Lawrence county where he will stand trial for bigamy. Sammers was arrested at Youngstown, O., and is being held by the Youngstown authorities until an officer is sent for him. He refused to return to Pennsylvania with a requisition.

HEARING POSTPONED

Because of the illness of J C. Colgan, his hearing on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor has been postponed. He was to have been given a preliminary hearing today at two o'clock before Alderman James C. Brice. The charge arises out of an accident on North Jefferson street in which Mrs. Harry Malley was injured.

Personal Mention

Tony Orzino, of 237 South Cedar street, has been admitted to the New Castle hospital.

Mrs. Terry Wilson, of Wampum, has been admitted to the New Castle hospital.

Miss A. Spencer, of Highland Place, has concluded a short visit in Youngstown.

Miss Margaret Wilhelm, of Neshannock avenue, is spending the day visiting in Pittsburgh.

Mrs L. Kulkin of West Long avenue, who has been ill for the past week, has fully recovered.

Long Hurls New Attack On Farley

Charges Postmaster General With Soliciting Campaign Contributions

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—In a new attack on Postmaster General Jas. A. Farley, Senator Huey P. Long (D) of Louisiana, this afternoon charged that Farley had solicited campaign contributions from federal employes in violation of law.

Long told the senate he had in his possession letters soliciting the contributions. He declined to turn the letters over to the senate post office committee, which is considering his resolution to investigate Farley, "because these employes would be instantly dismissed."

Quashed Indictment

Long also renewed his charge that Farley quashed the indictment of Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's roving ambassador, and his brother Paul D. Davis on bank fraud charges, in connection with the operation of the American National Bank, at Nashville, Tenn. He produced what he said was a photostatic copy of a letter sent the United States attorney at Nashville, by F. A. Guiles, National bank examiner, calling attention to irregularities in the bank's operations.

ANNUAL WALK ACROSS BRIDGE

The first woman to walk across Manhattan bridge in New York City was Mrs. Josephine Woolston, now aged 75, of Union City, N. Y. She crosses the span afoot once each year and has been doing this for the last 25 years.

Trapping Found Big Farmer Aid

This annual winter "crop" brings a profit of about $60,000,000, as much profit as the ordinary $300,000,000 farm crop, and is vitally important to the farmer as it brings him the wherewithal to stave off the harsh winter months in which he has virtually no other source of income.

In some sections the annual income accruing to the farmer-trapper is as much as $100. The average for the country as a whole is only $30.

The "crop" consists mainly of muskrats, minks, raccoons and beavers.

Mellon Battle Reaches Crisis

Government Seeks To Test Credibility Of Mellon Witness

DEFENSE COUNSEL ARGUING ISSUES

By WILLIAM J. KELLY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—The three million dollar Mellon income tax battle reached a crucial stage today when the government sought to test the credibility of a witness for Andrew W. Mellon by turning the spotlight on banks affiliated with the multi-millionaire financial dynasty.

Chief Government Counsel Robert H. Jackson charges Mellon, the Union Trust company and its subsidiaries—the Union Savings bank and City Deposit Bank & Trust company—were engaged in "a common plan to evade income taxes." To prove this, he sought information from Carl A. Korb, vice-president of the Trust company, concerning stock deals involving the banks.

Because the activities of these banks and their directors "have no bearing on the Mellon tax case," Chief Mellon Counsel Frank J. Hogan resists this line of testimony. Counsel are prepared to argue the issue before the U. S. board of tax appeals.

Hogan insists the government has no right to question witnesses about things not associated directly with the Mellon case. Disagreeing, Jackson contends the banks served as clearing houses for Mellon's "wash sales" in 1931. Because of these alleged "wash sales" the government wants $3,089,261 in additional taxes and penalties on the former treasury secretary's income for that year. Mellon seeks a $139,045 refund.

In connection with the "wash sales" Jackson offered "proof" of three transactions between the Union Trust and its subsidiaries whereby they took deductions of $4,320,000 on their income tax returns. He charged Korb was a party to the arrangements whereby Union Trust and its subsidiaries engaged in "a tax evasion plan".

BEWARE CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS

Crude, harsh substances attack color . . . Flat suds won't budge dirt . . . Hard rubbing weakens fabric . . . Clothes go to rag bag

ARE YOU TEMPTED by big bargain boxes of soap-chips? Lady . . . be careful! Find out the truth, before you take chances with clothes and linens worth hundreds of dollars!

Too little soap . . . too much rubbing

The trouble is—all that looks like soap is not soap. When you buy a big box of soap for too few pennies, look out for strong bleaching alkalies that steal the brightness away from colors. Look out for lumps which won't rinse easily—leave spots.

And in your tub, look out for stingy, flat suds that won't loosen dirt. You have to rub and RUB! You have to rinse—rinse and RINSE. Still the gray scum sticks!

Threads weaken . . . colors run

But that's only half the damage. Hard rubbing weakens threads—causes thin spots that tear easily. Colors are apt to run and fade.

No wonder frocks and blouses soon go to pieces. No wonder linens turn gray . . . wear thin.

Chipso suds save hard rubbing

But with Chipso, it's soap—just pure, rich soap that washes the dirt away. And that's a happier story! For Chipso's wealth of suds surround every fleck of dirt . . . lift it away without the strain of hard rubbing. Clothes are bound to wear longer!

Colors keep smiling

And Chipso is gentle. No harsh substances to weaken materials and fade colors. Nothing strong. Just fine, rich soap . . . and soapier suds. That's why Chipso in your tub means snowy white linens . . . pretty bright colors . . . and a long life to every fabric!

Chipso goes farther, too

You get a big box of Chipso for a low price. And it's even bigger than it looks, because Chipso is so much SOAPIER. It gives wonderful suds that stand up. You don't have to keep adding soap to keep them working. That's why your package of Chipso outlasts larger quantities of cheap thin-suds soaps.

Red hands . . strong smell . . say, "Harsh soap"

SEVEN DRESSES FADED ON ONE WASHDAY!

"I could have cried with Mary . . . the day she had to wear that faded frock to her school party," writes one young mother. "You see, I thought I'd save money by buying cheap soap-chips. Instead, I ruined all the dresses Mary had in the wash one week . . . and besides, I discovered that my linens were developing worn 'fringes.' From now on, it's safe Chipso for this household."

"We're Money Ahead With Chipso," Women Decide, "And It Makes Our Washdays Far Easier"

"Our Chipso-washed clothes wear 2 to 4 Years"

"Chipso is safe. It leaves colors bright as new," says Mrs. L. E. Frank, "yet the suds are so lively that they take dirt right out. I never rub. Rubbing wears out clothes. Our clothes last from two to four years."

"Soak only 15 minutes—get snowy white clothes"

Five clean blouses a day . . . and a daily wash for her baby . . . don't daunt Mrs. Wellington Hunter. "Chipso is quick," she smiles. "Its rich suds soak dirt loose in 15 minutes. And another thing," she adds, "it takes so little Chipso for a big wash. One box every two weeks does all our washing."

CHIPSO IS SAFE . . It Makes Clothes Wear Longer

See Sharp Boost For HOLC Fund

House Nearing Final Action On Measure To Provide New Funds

NEW LOANS MAY BE PROVIDED FOR

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—A sharp boost in the $1,500,000,000 HOLC fund requested by the administration appeared likely as the house neared final action on the measure today.

Confronted by demands from constituents, members proposed increases in the administration figure ranging from $250,000,000 to an even billion. The demand for more money was based upon sentiment to open up the home owners emergency loan agency to new applicants.

As explained by HOLC officials, the $1,500,000,000 fund would permit the making of 500,000 loans. Only applicants now on hand, however, would be eligible for loans.

The house banking committee, Rep. Hancock (D) of North Carolina said had agreed to raise the administration figure by $250,000,000 and open up applications for new loans for a 60-day period.

A proposal by Rep. Brunned (D) of New York to give the HOLC $2,500,000,000, and thus make possible loans to 800,000 or more distressed home owners, was said to be gaining strength rapidly.

Despite bitter critism of management of the HOLC, the fight for a congressional investigation was fading as the result of a concession made by the banking committee.

Ask Abandonment Of Fleet Maneuvers

Methodists See Maneuvers In Light Of Threat To Japan

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—A demand that the United States abandon its annual battle-fleet maneuvers was on record here today in the 148th annual session of the Philadelphia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The demand was embodied in an amended report of the social service commission of the conference. The commission submitted a report recommending that the fleet maneuvers be removed from the Pacific ocean. But, the report was amended from the floor to call for abolishment of the annual naval pageant, whether it be in the Pacific or the Atlantic.

More than 400 lay and clerical delegates to the meeting adopted the report on the ground that the naval maneuvers might be construed as a warlike threat to Japan. Copies of the resolution adopting the report were ordered sent to President Roosevelt and Pennsylvania's senators.

The report also advocated modification of immigration restrictions on Orientals as a gesture of international friendliness.

Lent Services To Commence Tonight

"Station Of The Cross" Services In St. Vitus Church

"Station of the Cross" services, held annually during Lent, will commence this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita announced today.

These series of services will be conducted every Friday and Sunday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. Albert Farina, assistant pastor will deliver sermons in English, on Friday evenings and the Rev. Fr. DeMita will preach in Italian on Sunday nights.

Edenburg News

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet on Wednesday at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Clara Beight of the north side.

Bobbie Biddle is slowly improving from an attack of intestinal flu.

Mrs. Marie Biddle visited Mrs. Howard Biddle at her home on Laurel Blvd., New Castle, Thursday. Mrs. Biddle has been confined to her home with a cold.

Mrs. Sara McIntoch spent Thursday at New Castle with Mrs. John Davis.

BREAD LINE BRINGS JAIL IN RED RUSSIA

MOSCOW—A new type of crime—"offences against bread"—has appeared in Soviet Russia; and ruthless measures are being taken against culprits.

Since the abolition of bread cards, the authorities are trying to see that bread is available on an unlimited scale.

The manager of a small bakery in Moscow was sentenced to eight months imprisonment for permitting a line to form in front of his shop. The charge was that he failed to open up early enough in the morning.

The United States Weather Bureau began its work under the control of the army. It was started to help the Union Army operations during the Civil War.

Ruth Connor Given Award

Raymond Street Girl Is Presented With Highest Honor Of Girl Scouting

LARGE CROWD MEETS IN EPWORTH CHURCH

One hundred seventy-five Girl Scouts, leaders and mothers witnessed the presentation of New Castle's third Golden Eaglet badge to Miss Ruth Connor, of Raymond St. Thursday night, in the Epworth M. E. Church.

It was one of the big occasions in New Castle Girl Scouting circles for the badge represents the highest honor that can be bestowed on a Girl Scout and can be won only after diligent work and meeting numerous requirements of character.

Among those present were Mrs. W. H. Hanger, Girl Scout Commissioner, who is also captain of Minnehaha troop, No. 6 of which Ruth and the other Golden Eaglet wearers are members, Miss Eleanor LeFevre, local Girl Scout director, Donna Jean Beall and Beatrice Connor, sister of Ruth, Golden Eaglet scouts.

Minnehaha troop marched the length of the large assembly room in opening the ceremony, preceded by the color guard, and singing "O Beautiful Banner."

Miss LeFevre presided at the salute to the flag and led the group in singing "America."

The troop then preceeded on to the stage and separated into three groups—tenderfoot, second class and first class. Their captain Mrs. Hanger, went to the stage and addressed the honored scout, Ruth Connor.

"You have followed the Girl Scout trail for seven years" Mrs. Hanger said, "Now come again with me to reminisce over some of the experiences met on that trail."

Jean Allen, wearing a "sandwich" board representing the Girl Scout laws, joined the two, saying that she (The Laws) wanted to go through life with Ruth.

The three went along the "trail" to the tenderfoot group, then to the second class and first class groups, stopping every time to review what was learned of first aid, nature lore and so forth, in each class.

There were remembrances of the summer camps, the trip to Cook's Forest, the trip to Akron, where the scouts had a ride in a blimp, and many other delightful occasions. The trail led to Donna Jean Beall and Beatrice Connor, first and second Golden Eaglet scouts who told Ruth what the award had meant to them, and finally wound up in the presence of Mrs. Thomas Clark, chairman of the badges and awards committee who made formal presentation of the badge.

Mrs. Clark made an impressive presentation address, saying that there are three choices in life, the right, the wrong and no choice at all" and that Ruth Connor had "always chosen the right way."

Miss LeFevre led in singing. A receiving line was formed and the large crowd of guests gave congratulations to the honored scout. Attention was directed also to an exhibit of "world knowledge" handcraft work, including exhibits from Holland, China, Russia and Switzerland arrayed on a large table.

The meeting was concluded informally with a party in which ice cream cake sandwiches were served.

Ruth Connor received a congratulatory telegram yesterday from Miss Elizabeth Reis, who is visiting in Summerville, North Carolina, a member of the Girl Scout Council.

ATTEND FUNERAL

F. O. Miles, F. T. Glenn and Mrs. Belle Pollock, of Plaingrove attended the funeral of their cousin, William Christy Miles, last Monday, at East Liverpool, Ohio. Rev. James Lawther of the First Presbyterian church, this city, officiated.

Mr. Miles died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Louis Sheppard. The funeral services were conducted at the Miller funeral home, East Liverpool.

Conference Is Being Planned By Executives

Sunday School Executive Committee Plans Children's Division Affair

The regular monthly executive committee meeting of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association was held in the parlor of the Y. W. C. A. with the president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., presiding and the following members present: D. M. Marshall, vice president: Mrs. M. E. Vaughn, secretary: Miss Anna Perry, administrative department superintendent: Mrs. H. F. Magill, missions superintendent: Mrs. A. B. Street, children's division superintendent and Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, D. S. Williams and John W. Owens, additional members of the committee.

Mrs. Street stated that plans were complete for the Children's Division Conference to be held at the First Presbyterian church, New Castle, Monday, March 18, with an afternoon session, a Christian Fellowship Conference Dinner for those making reservation, and an evening session. Miss Ione Sikes, the children's division superintendent of the state association, together with a pianist and song leader for children, will be present, Mrs. Street stated, and a quota for the dinner has been assigned to every Sabbath school superintendent. The afternoon and evening sessions are open to everyone interested in children's division work, especially Sunday school teachers of this department.

The meeting was dismissed after plans were discussed for the place of meeting and the speakers for the annual county convention which is to be held in New Castle Thursday, June 13.

Hiccoughs Stop In Strange Way For Contractor

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8. — Hiccoughs which have victimized Harry A. Honse, 62, retired Homestead Park contractor, for the past nine days stopped today.

The victim's wife said Honse arose from sleep this morning to find the strange malady had left as spontaneously as it set in after a spasm of coughing and heartburn.

Truck Driver Goes On Trial

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Mar. 8.—William Haines, a trucker, of Columbia, was on trial in the Schuylkill county court today charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of two children who were run down by his truck on the highway between Suedburg and Pine Grove last December 31.

The victims, Gladys Neidlinger, a cripple, and her brother, Paul, were killed while returning home from school. A jury was selected yesterday to hear the case.

To Call Women On Federal Jury

Western Pennsylvania Women To Be Summoned In May For First Time

COURT ORDERS NAMES IN NEW JURY WHEEL

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—When jurors are selected for the May term of federal court the list will contain the names of women for the first time in western Pennsylvania's history and probably the first time in the nation's history.

Inclusion of women's names in the jury wheel for the spring term was ordered yesterday by Federal Judge Robert M. Gibson, presiding judge of the United States district court here, at the request of Mrs. John M. Phillips, president of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women.

The names of the women will be selected from the 18 western Pennsylvania counties.

Advices from Washington were that the Department of Justice was willing for women to serve on federal court juries in all states where service is authorized for state and local courts.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m., March 7, three arrests on charges as follows: Violation of parking law two, and suspicion one.

Announcement that a small zoo will be placed at Gaston park this summer will be pleasing news to the thousands of children who frequent that recreation center. Plans for the zoo have been under way for some time and according to Owen Fox he already has a collection of small animals, an owl and he proposes to secure additional birds.

Youths who break glass in fire alarm boxes and pull alarms should cease the practice immediately as it only can lead to trouble. Everytime a piece of fire apparatus answers an alarm there is probability of an accident and if a false alarm were turned in and someone injured or killed the guilty party if apprehended would be punished severely.

For a time businessmen took extraordinary pains to know that the doors of their business places were locked before they left for home at night but recently patrolmen have been finding doors open. In such cases the police sergeants telephone the businessman and he must return to the place and lock the door. However, it may happen that a burglar may find the door open before the police do which means no good for the businessman.

As yet Joseph D. Alexander, director of parks, has not met with the park commission but as soon as the session is held plans for the summer will be outlined...It is not known exactly when Safety Director Davies will make recommendations for promotions in the fire bureau... City detectives recovered three stolen bicycles yesterday but owing to the tender age of the youths who took them they were not placed in custody...Police authorities of Lawrence county and state police have never co-operated more harmoniously than at present. They are operating as a unit in the protection of the citizens.

ALFALFA MEETINGS

The production of alfalfa and the Improvement of Permanent Pastures will be the topic of discussion at two meetings to be held in the county next week.

The first of these meetings will be held at the home of C. M. Hartzel, Monday evening, March 11, at 8:00 p. m., in Shenango township.

The second meeting will be held Wednesday, March 13, at 2:00 p. m. at the home of J. F. Young in Wayne township.

All persons interested in this topic are invited to attend either of these meetings.

FEED EWES RIGHT TO GET GOOD LAMB CROP

A spring lamb crop, which some say will be the most valuable in several years, will soon be born.

A recent survey showed that 25 of every 100 lambs die, many of them at birth. One of the chief causes of this loss is insufficient feed. Some of this feed should be of a laxative nature and part of it should be of the milk producing kinds so that the ewes will be ready to produce strong lambs which will start the business of growing right at birth.

Many mothers of lambs do not have sufficient milk flow which is a definite handicap to their offspring.

In some cases the class of roughage sheepmen are forced to feed this winter is of very poor quality. Legume hay is scarce on some Lawrence county farms. This makes it highly essential that some oil meal or bran be fed to the ewes. Ewes which are not receiving legume hay should have access to a mineral mixture of equal parts of ground limestone, bone meal and salt.

Exercise, salt and plenty of water are three very cheap essentials in preparing for a good lamb crop.

CORRECT PRUNING WILL IMPROVE GRAPE VIGOR

Pruning of grapes in the commercial vineyards should be given more attention this year than in the past.

Prices received for grapes in 1932 and 1933 greatly influenced cultural practices during those years, and doubtless the short crop and prices received last year are likely to bring changes in the growing program this year. During the past few years smaller applications of fertilizer have been made and there has been a tendency to wood the vines with a larger number of buds than the vigor would permit them to carry with safety.

Many of the vineyards, as a result of this effort to cut costs, are in a low state of vigor. This condition is readily seen in the wood, which is short and weak.

If an effort is being made to economize, the best practice is to prune the vines harder. Instead of four 10-bud canes or even three 10-bud canes, the use of two canes per vine would be more advisable and only three canes should be used where the vines are exceptionally vigorous with the umbrella system. In the Chautauqua or Kniffen systems the number of canes can be reduced without materially cutting down the crop and with decided benefit from the standpoint of general production.

For the benefit of those who have grapes on arbors or trellises the one year old wood is the fruiting wood and all efforts should be made to retain this wood but remove as much older wood as possible. The old method of pruning where two buds are retained should be discarded and pruning to retain 8 to 10 buds be used.

TREAT SEED OR SOIL TO SAVE SEEDLINGS

Owing to increasing severity of canker disease of tomatoes, seed treatment with corrosive sublimate is proving to be an important preventative step.

Tomato seed should be soaked for five minutes in a 1-3000 solution of errosive sublimate and then washed for at least 15 minutes in running water.

This treatment is a partial control of damping-off but if treated seeds are planted in steam sterilized soil or the corrosive sublime 1-2000 soil drench is applied at planting time the control of damping-off will prove as effective as if bluestone, red copper oxide, or formaldehyde dust were used.

Tomato seed treated with corrosive sublime should not be planted in soil treated with formaldehyde or formaldehyde dust because of danger of injury to the plants.

PLAN GARDEN TO GROW PLENTY OF VEGETABLES

Gardens can be planned to produce an adequate amount of vegetables, not only for the summer but also to can and store for winter needs. This is the planning time, Miss Eleanor Drury, home economics Extension representative, reminds.

There are certain staple vegetables, as they might be called, such as lettuce, radishes, potatoes, cabbage and turnips which are grown in practically every garden. In addition to these desirable vegetables there are others just as worthy in nutritional values which also add variety to the meals. Among these are the green vegetables which can be eaten raw and cooked in the daily diet. The food requirements of the family can be more adequately met by raising leafy greens for use from the garden and for canning.

Beet tops, spinach, kale, swiss chard, broccoli, brussels sprouts, and chinese cabbage are easily grown and may be served in many attractive appetizing dishes both raw and cooked. Tomatoes also should be raised in large enough quantities to furnish a generous supply to use fresh and to can for winter consumption, Miss Drury says.

Everyone in the family can eat tomatoes. Even the month-old baby may have one-half teaspoon of strained juice daily, diluted at first but gradually increased in strength and amount to three tablespoons at one year of age. Tomatoes can be served at any meal and in a variety of ways. They contain iron, phosphorus and vitamins, A, B, C, and G, thus making them one of our most desirable vegetables.

Town Refuses Cut Of Roosevelt Dole

(International News Service)

DENVER.—Rugged "individualism" still survives in at least one community, it is shown in the report the Colorado state planning board submitted on the results of a survey of projects through the state that could provide the greatest amount of employment to the largest number of persons.

Officials of Ophir, a mining camp town located in southwestern Colorado, replied to a questionaire that they had no project to propose. They insisted that they wanted none of the $4,800,000,000 the federal government is expected to provide for such projects.

Prize Hunting Story Of Season

(International News Service)

DENVER.—Edmund Burke and R. E. Mackey, Denver sportsmen, went rabbit hunting.

They saw a rabbit running into a culvert. Burke went to one end of the cudvelt, Mackey to the opposite end.

Burke heard a noise and fired into the culvert.

Mackey was brought to a Denver hospital with two shot wounds in his face.

YOUTH IN CUSTODY

Victor Hudson, 16, 307 Pearson street, was arrested at 12:15 a. m. today on a charge of suspicion, it having been alleged that he had been inside the Rohrer restaurant, East Washington street, which has been entered several times recently.

Jack Court, an attache of the place, who was passing, claims he chased the boy to a nearby gasoline station. The lad denied he was in the restaurant.

We live in memory and by memory, and our spiritual life is at bottom simply the effort of our memory to persist, to transform itself into hope, the effort of our past to transform itself into our future.

President Roosevelt Heads List Of Dignitaries At Funeral Of Holmes Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Oliver Wendell Holmes is to be escorted today by the president of his country to a tree-protected knoll in Arlington to sleep with another president and the nation's warriors.

Simple funeral services were held at All Souls Church at noon.

Admired By All

The many persons who knew or didn't know Oliver Wendell Holmes personally but who admired him and sent him cheery congratulatory messages on this, his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary, changed them to condolences to his nephew, Edward Holmes, his closest relative. His intimates here who usually called at the plain, red brick house in I street to wish him well on his anniversary, went to his funeral services instead.

Death stole upon the former associate justice of the supreme court Wednesday during his sleep.

Three Men Face Serious Charges

Prominent Attorney And Two Others In Philadelphia Held On Bond Charges

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—Accused of participating in a purported conspiracy of flooding Philadelphia with stolen securities, a socially prominent attorney and two other men faced arraignment today.

The three suspects are Arthur G. Dickson, well-known attorney of Chestnut Hill, Samuel T. Blieden, professional bondsman, and Harry A. Stone, real estate dealer.

The three men were held in $10,000 bail each at a magistrate's hearing following their arrest.

Confession Made

The arrests were made on the basis of information supplied by Assistant District Attorney Earl J. Gratz who said that George De Horth, of New York, who is serving a three-year term in the county prison at Holmesburg, made a confession implicating Dickson, Blieden and Stone.

Importing stolen bonds into the state from New York, obtaining money under false pretenses and conspiracy are the charges confronting the three men.

Throws Self Under Truck

Mercer Is Scene Of Unusual Suicide On Thursday Afternoon

(International News Service)

MERCER, Pa., Mar. 8—Funeral arrangements were being completed today for O. C. Tennant, 55, of Fairmont, W. Va., who committed suicide by throwing himself under the wheels of an on-coming truck near here yesterday.

Tennant and a companion, both paroled patients of the Mercer sanitarium, were taking a walk when the former's unexpected and sudden action ended his life. He died in an ambulance enroute to a hospital.

The driver of the truck, Stanley Buczynski, Erie, was unable to avoid striking Tennant and the body was carried for 10 feet before the truck heavily loaded, could be stopped.

Parachute Jumper Dies From Want Of Supply Of Oxygen

(International News Service)

COPENHAGEN, Mar. 8—One too many stunts today had resulted fatally for John Tranum, Hollywood dare-devil parachute jumper.

Tranum died of want of oxygen in a 28,000 feet ascent preparatory to an attempt to raise his own 17,000 feet delayed drop record. Still climbing, his pilot noticed Tranum adjust his oxygen mask then feebly signal for a descent. The pilot plunged rapidly to thicker atmosphere, but Tranum became unconscious and an hour's effort to revive him failed.

TO PAY TEACHERS THROUGHOUT YEAR

(International News Service)

MONONGAHELA, Pa., Mar. 8.—Summer months no longer will be payless months for Monongahela's public school teachers. Under a newly inaugurated system, teachers' salaries will be "staggered" over the entire year instead of being paid in full during the nine months of school terms.

Detain Two In Death Of Man

Question Two In Death Of Bellefonte, Pa., Barber In Auto In 1934

(International News Service)

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Two men were detained by state police today pending an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of Harold Guy Coll, a local barber, nearly a year ago.

The men were Willard Eckel, 32, Lock Haven, and David Carver, 34, Bellefonte, state police said. No charges have been brought.

Coll, clad only in his underclothing, was found fatally injured in his car here May 19, 1934. Police said he had been beaten, he died four days later without making any statement. Police said they were told Carver, his wife and Mrs. Coll were with the victim the night before he was found.

Lenten Devotions To Start Tonight At St. Mary's Church

Tonight at 7:45 o'clock, annual station of the Cross services, conducted during Lent, will begin in the St. Mary's church, corner of Beaver and North streets.

The Rev. Fr. P. J. McKenna, pastor of the church, stated that these services, to be held every Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock, will consist of sermon, Station of the Cross, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Rev. Fr. W. M. S. Galvin will deliver the sermon tonight. Lenten devotions for school children will be conducted every Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Archbishop Will Be Sent Into Exile, Report From Mexico

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 8.—Archbishop Pascual Diaz, titular head of the Catholic church in Mexico, will be sent into exile, members of the Catholic Episcopate announced they had learned today.

The Archbishop, who yesterday failed to return to his home after a visit to a near-by town, will be removed from the country "to quiet the nationwide Catholic agitation now assuming formidable proportions," it has been reported.

The drastic step was decided upon by President Cardenas and his cabinet as followers of the Archbishop were speculating upon his disappearance, first noted when the prelate's secretary was informed by telephone that Mgr. Diaz had been "arrested."

Catholic investigators declared that the Archbishop was seized along the Cuatitlan road by government agents, and brought to Cuatitlan without opportunity to communicate with anyone.

WILL SING AT ALIQUIPPA FETE

Death Reveals Amazing Story

Eighty-One Year Old Colorado Widow Found Frozen To Death

STUCK TO PROMISE MADE TO HUSBAND

(International News Service)

DENVER, Mar. 8—"Baby Doe" Tabor, 81-year-old widow of the late United States Senator H. A. W. Tabor, Colorado silver king, will be buried beside the man she married when he had $11,000,000 and remained with through poverty and privation, according to plans laid here today.

Mrs. Tabor, whose frozen body was found in her shack beside the Matchless mine on Fryer hill above the city of Leadville, will be brought to Denver. Tabor's remains will be removed from the abandoned Calvary cemetery, where they nave lain neglected for many years, and placed beside those of "Baby Doe" in a cemetery.

Mrs. Tabor apparently froze to death when, weak and ill, she was unable to reach the woodbox in her shack to get fuel for the stove.

For many years Mrs. Tabor lived in the shack beside the mine shaft, in accordance with a promise made to her late husband to "guard the Matchless". The fact that ownership of the property had passed from her hands was never accepted by her.

Physicians said she had been dead about two weeks. She was last seen on Feb. 21.

Tabor and "Baby Doe" were married in Washington, D. C., with President Chester A. Arthur, cabinet members and senators present.

The Tabor fortune, estimated at $11,000,000 at the time of his marriage to "Baby Doe", was acquired in a series of amazing silver strikes in the Leadville field. Collapse of the silver market in 1893 plunged Tabor into comparative poverty.

Frustrate Jail Delivery Plot

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Mar. 8. — Warden Frank Sain questioned 30 prisoners of the Cook county jail today following frustration of a wholesale escape plot led by Chester Novak, 27, a condemned murdered.

In Novak's clothing guards found a key, made from a spoon, which fitted two iron doors which bar the route to the main exit. Five saw blades were discovered in the "bullpen" near the cell block.

Alleged Murderer Shot By Accident

Detroit Police Arrest Nephew Of Slain Man, Seek Another

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mar. 8.—Dominic Abbo, 50, wanted for questioning in a murder committed in Brownsville, Pa., in 1922, died here early today after he had been accidentally shot by his nephew, John Chew, 22, yesterday. Abbo attempted to escape from the three policemen who came to his home to question him yesterday.

A warrant charging Chew with manslaughter will be issued today. Before he died, Abbo said he knew nothing of the murder. Police are hunting for Chew's father, said to be a suspect in the murder.

Peter Preaches To Gentiles

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Acts 10:34b, 35—"God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him."

(The international uniform lesson on the above topic for March 10 is Acts 10:1-11 ; 15:6-11, especially 10:34-48, the Golden Text being 10:34b, 35, "God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

Although Jesus manifested utmost breadth of sympathy for all races and classes of people, and told his disciples of "other sheep not of this fold whom he must bring" to hear his voice that there might be "one fold and one Shepherd"; although he at his ascension commissioned his disciples to evangelize all nations, more than 10 years passed before the early church really opened the door of fellowship and spiritual privilege to other nationalities than the Jews. And when the new idea of broader fellowship was born it was attended by birth pangs of the severest sort. Race prejudice dies hard in every age.

Peter's Sympathies Enlarged

God was preparing Cornelius, a gentile centurion at Caesarea, to receive the gospel. But he knew he would have a harder task to get Peter to carry that gospel to a gentile than to get the gentile to receive it. So God sent a vision to Peter like a great sheet let down from heaven containing "all manner of four-footed beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven". And when a voice commanded Peter to kill and eat of that motley collection of creatures he demurred, saying, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean." Then came a voice saying, "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common." In other words, "Don't be more strict or more conservative than God himself!"

In immediate connection with this strange thrice repeated vision came the three gentile messengers from Cornelius seeking Peter and entreating him to accompany them to Caesarea to preach the gospel to a gentile group. The vision was not wasted on Peter. He had sense enough to put three and three together, "So he called them in and lodged them." That was a good beginning in a broadening fellowship and enlarging sympathy of Jew for gentile.

God No Respecter of Persons

Still further ventures in this larger fellowship were taken two days later when Peter entered the home of Cornelius saying not as an apology but as an emancipation proclamation: "Ye ourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation: and yet unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean."

His sermon to his gentile congregation is a marvelous epitome of the gospel he later gave John Mark, a beautiful resume of the life and mission of Christ the universal Saviour: "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness is acceptable to him. . . . Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil. . . . . Whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest . . . to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead . . . that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins."

The Gentile Pentecost

This gospel was received with faith and the result was a repetition of Pentecost as the Holy Spirit came with power, with the gift of tongues and probably also with tongues of fire, "even as on us at the beginning", Peter says, "with no distinction between us and them". When the church later at Jerusalem approved Peter's reception of gentiles into full free fellowship it merely showed it had caught step with God in his onward march toward the brotherhood of man in Christ.

World Day Of Prayer Service At Park Church

New Castle's observance of "World Day of Prayer" opened this morning at the First Christian church, with all women's missionary societies of the city taking part.

The morning session was devoted mainly to a consecration service. A luncheon was served in the church at noon, and at 1:15 p. m. the service was continued. The meeting is inter-denominational.

Manufacturers Affiliated With A. M. A. Do Not Want To Confer With Labor Chief

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mar. 8—Stating that the automobile manufacturer's association "has no occasion to carry on collective bargaining," Alfred Reeves, vice president, today refused William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, a conference with manufacturers affiliated with the A. M. A.

Green, in a letter February 27, asked for the conference for the "purpose of negotiating an agreement applicable to workers regarding wages, hours and conditions of employment in the automobile manufacturing industry."

Arrange Conferences

"This association is not itself an employer of automobile workers and has no occasion to carry on collective bargaining," Reeves letter said. "It does not arrange such conferences as you suggest. The manufacturers—members of the association—bargain collectively with their respective employes through representatives of their employ's own choosing."

In his reply to Green, Reeves charged the A. F. of L. is "creating a strife in the industry" by withdrawing from the president's automobile settlement and asking its 176 unions to take a strike vote.

SEWAGE CONVERTED INTO ELECTRICITY

(International News Service)

BERLIN—Electric power and fertilisers from sewage.

The City of Hanover has just completed a plant which can convert sewage to these uses.

After the poisonous substances have been removed, the sewage is allowed to decompose in tanks until it can be converted into fertiliser. The gas which escapes during this process is used in internal combustion engines for generating electric power.

Statistics just compiled show that Pennsylvanians purchased 4,488,289 gallons of hard liquor from state stores during the first year of repeal.

SPRING DRESSES NOTED FOR BEAUTIFUL DETAILS

Beautiful details mark the new spring dresses, and the two models pictured bear out the statement. Left is a silk crepe with stitched collar which can be worn up or down. Rhinestone bow knots accent the three black bows and the fluted vest beneath. The black silk crepe afternoon frock, right, has a stitched bib collar and cuffs trimmed with a renaissance roll of white faille silk.

Mellon Hearing Resumes Monday

Tax Case Is Adjourned During Day Out Of Respect For Holmes

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—The U. S. board of tax appeals adjourned hearings in the three million dollars Mellon income tax battle today out of respect to former associate justice Oliver Wendell Holmes after taking the first major legal question of the case under advisement.

When hearings are resumed Monday, the board will rule whether the government may test the credibility of a witness and the Union Trust Company by considering stock transactions between that bank and its subsidiaries.

Chief government counsel Robert H. Jackson seeks this authority to obtain data essential to prove the government's demand for $3,089,261 in taxes and penalties on Andrew W. Mellon's 1931 income. Frank J. Hogan, attorney for the financier who want a $139,045 refund, opposes the move.

Jackson told the board he wants information on Union Trust transactions to "show the bias" of Carl A. Korb, vice-president of that firm. He charges Korb and other bank officials were implicated in "transactions identical to those in the mellon case."

"Kiki" Roberts Asked To Leave

Allentown Officials Ask Sweetheart Of Late Jack "Legs" Diamond To Leave

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Mar. 8—Marion "Kiki" Roberts, one-time musical comedy actress and sweetheart of the slain Jack "Legs" Diamond, left Allentown today after police authorities informed her that her presence was undesirable.

Authorities said there had been no complaint against Miss Roberts' behavior since her arrival here early this week and revealed their action was taken "because we do not wish to attract persons who have gained such notoriety."

The former show girl, barred from the movies, has been earning a living giving dance exhibitions in small towns and in road houses.

BOSTON—The police of the Mattapan station were told that "car-riding is a thrilling sport," by Gordon Gaull, 11 of Roxbury who spent a whole day riding throughout the entire Boston Elevated Railway system with money that had been given him for the movies.

Two And A Half Million Youths Are Without Jobs

Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Finds Big Increase In Employables

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—More than 2,500,000 boys and girls have arrived at working age since 1929, only to find no employment and to know nothing but living as public wards, on relief.

This condition was revealed today by Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins.

"The net annual increase of employables since 1929 has been approximately 500,000 a year," Hopkins said. "These boys and girls arriving at a working age know nothing but relief."

Throughout the country the average number of employables in each family is 1.6. President Roosevelt has estimated the work relief program provided in the $4,880,000,000 work relief bill pending in Congress will provide employment for 3,500,000.

Heads of families, under the administration program, are to be given preference in jobs. This means the 2,500,000 young persons who have become of working age in the last five years will have to depend on a revival of industry and private employment for jobs.

INDUSTRY DECLINES

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8.—Once a leading industry here, the manufacture of cigars is almost a forgotten industry in this city. In contrast to the 1,625,000 produced annually several decades ago, only 78,000 cigars were made in 1934.

Pomona Program Fills Entire Day

Pleasant Hill Grange Host To Governing Body Of County's Granges

CALL NEXT SESSION FOR EARLY IN JUNE

Lawrence county's Pomona grange members assembled this week at Pleasant Hill grange, Portersville-Ellwood City road, to consider grange problems and to enjoy entertainment furnished by Pomona's subordinate granges. Eleven granges were represented.

Master W. Sharp Fullerton presided over the forenoon and afternoon sessions.

Routine matters came up for attention following the opening exercises and among the visitors who heard business talked were Pomona Master Haner and Mrs. Haner and their daughter of Mercer county, and several members of the Pomona organization of Beaver county.

Featuring the forenoon assembly was a tableau entitled "Three Things for Which the Grange Stands — Religion, Patriotism and Knowledge".

Morning Program Entertains

The morning also brought a variety of other entertainment by the talented Grange folk.

At noon the ladies of Pleasant Hill served a delicious dinner.

Interesting reports of subordinate Granges in Lawrence county and of activity in the juvenile Granges were submitted to the assembly during the afternoon hours, following which East New Castle Grange presented a program which featured musical and reading numbers.

During the roll call the lecturer conducted an apple-guessing contest.

Host Grange Wins Contest.

The attendance contest on percentages of membership at the January, February and March meetings was won by Pleasant Hill grange. Wilmington took second honors, Plaingrove third and Big Beaver and Willard tied for fourth.

Wilmington grange presented a program for the audience late in the afternoon. It featured instrumental numbers.

"The Mothers' Assistance Fund" was the topic of a talk which Mrs. Eugene Sampson, member of the Mothers' Assistance Fund board of the county, delivered.

A play, "He Liked Them Modern," was the climax to the day's literary programs.

Resolutions which will be sent to local representatives in the state's legislative halls were offered at the close.

The Hill Traveling gavel and program will be brought to Lawrence county, it was announced, by Washington county on June 5. The following day the Lawrence Pomona group will take it to Clarion county.

Two conferences have been arranged for all masters and lecturers of granges in Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties for the spring. The first will take place at London grange and the second at Harmony grange, both neighboring county halls. State Master J. Audley Boak, will preside at the masters' conference and State Lecturer Mrs. Ira Gross will lead the lecturers' discussion.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

Damage Suits Total $150,000

Gas And Electric Company Defendants In Big Suit, Due To Fatal Explosion

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Mar. 8—Two damage suits totaling $150,000 today were filed against the Luzerne County Gas and Electric Company as a result of an explosion that wrecked the Paukstis building in Edwardsville last week, killing six persons and injuring eight others seriously.

Mrs. Rose Moran sued for $50,000 for the death of a son and Mrs. Anna Bienish $100,000 for the death of her husband.

SWITZERLAND HAS HIGHEST SUICIDE RATE IN EUROPE

MUNICH, Bavaria—Out of every million inhabitants in Switzerland between 210 and 260 become suicides yearly, it is shown by a Munich Medical society analysis of suicide statistics collected since 1900.

The rate in Switzerland is more than double the average for all Europe which reaches only 97 per million.

France, Germany and Denmark have the next highest rate after Switzerland. Ireland has one of the lowest rates in Europe.

The extremely high rate for Switzerland is attributed by statisticians to the large number of foreign invalids who go there in the vain hope of regaining their health.

Probes Secrets Of Atomic Rays

British Inventor Conducts Weird Experiments In Lonely Mountain Retreat

(International News Service)

LONDON, Mar. 8.—In an attempt to conquer death—in the air, under the sea and in the human body—a British inventor is probing the secrets of electricity and mysterious atomic rays in a lonely mountain retreat in South Wales.

His objects—as nearly so fantastic as to rival the imaginings of Jules Verne and H. G. Wells—are:

To perfect a device for detecting the presence of submarines 30 miles away;

To discover a ray to kill disease germs;

To set up a new aerial defense for London, or any other city, by rockets and steel-wire gossamer aprons which will hang in the sky;

To devise rocket airplanes to travel at the incredible speed of six miles a second, with which man might be able to reach the moon.

This genius who is quietly attempting to harness the air in the service of humanity is Harry Grindell-Matthews, formerly known as "Death Ray Matthews", from whom the British government a few years ago bought a motor boat controlled by light, with guns that were fired by searchlight beam.

Opposed To Japan Giving Financial Help To Chinese

Claim Japanese Would Take Advantage Of Opportunity To Get Control

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The United States today stood definitely opposed to any move by Japan to obtain control over China by extending it separate financial aid.

In reply to the recent British inquiry as to whether the United States would be prepared to join in an international move to aid China financially, the state department said this government favors cooperative rather than individual action to help China, if such help is deemed desirable.

Seek Influence

Under Secretary of State William Phillips notified the British ambassador this government would give sympathetic consideration to the possibility of rendering aid to China "by cooporative action."

The British move was prompted both by appeals from the Chinese government and by reports that Japan was planning to extend separate financial assistance in return for special privileges which would give Tokyo a dominating influence over China.

Measles Epidemic Sweeps Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—With four deaths already reported, Pittsburgh today was in the throes of the most severe measles epidemic it has experienced in several years.

Since the first of the year, 2,408 cases of measles have been reported. Of the number, 1,458 developed in February, while during the first five days of March 460 cases were recorded. The epidemic should reach its peak toward the end of the current month, according to Dr. P. E. Marks, superintendent of the city bureau of infectious diseases.

Increase In Oil Stocks Is Noted

Texas And California Oil Fields Show Big Jump In Production

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Stocks of domestic and foreign crude petroleum at the close of the week ending March 2 totaled 323,575,000 barrels, a net increase of 2,208,000 barrels, over the previous week, the bureau of mines reported to oil administrator Harold L. Ickes today.

The chief increases were in the East Texas "hot oil" fields, 762,000 barrels up, and California, 786,000 barrels up.

Imports were 119,000 barrels daily average, approximately three times the average imports for the previous week, while production was 2,545,000 daily average, a decline of 45,000 from the previous week.

Deny Report That Alyce Jane McHenry Needs Transfusion

Hospital Authorities In Massachusetts Report Girl Now Progressing Well

(International News Service)

FALL RIVER, Mass., Mar. 8.—Authorities at Truesdale hospital today denied reports that preparations were being made to give a blood transmusion to 10-year-old Alyce Jane McHenry, of Omaha, Neb., recovering from an operation which righted her "upside down" stomach.

"There is no immediate blood transfusion contemplated," declared one member of the hospital staff. "If Alyce Jane continues to show the same steady improvement she has shown the past three days since her operation, and can continue taking the beef broth, orange juice and cereal diet, a blood transfusion will not be necessary."

The first bulletin issued today on Alyce's condition read:

"Temperature 100, pulse 100, respiration 20. Fairly restful night. Progress continues."

House Committee Reports Favorably On Lundeen Bill

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Disregarding the administration social security program, the Democratic controlled house labor committee today voted to report favorably the Lundeen unemployment insurance bill estimated to cost 11 billion dollars a year.

The bill will be put forward in opposition to the administration's economic security bill which is slated for a favorable report by the ways and means committee next week.

The Lundeen, or so-called "workers security bill" would grant every unemployed person average local wages but not less than $10 a week plus $3 for each dependent.

Truck and Bus In Collision

Thirteen On Bus Bruised And Bumped As Result Of Crash Near Pottsville

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Thirteen passengers aboard a bus enroute to Mauch Chunk escaped with bumps and bruises today when the vehicle was struck head-on by a truck whose driver, Emil J. Barth, Hazleton, was seriously injured.

John Gallagher, Lansford, the bus driver, said the truck suddenly went out of control on the ice-covered, treacherous Bell Volliery curve west of Tamaqua. Both bus and truck were badly damaged. Barth was in the hospital in a serious condition.

Annual Meeting Of Primitive Church Held Last Evening

New Officers Are Elected; Rev. Sutton Is Asked To Serve For Another Year

At the annual meeting of the Primitive Methodist church Thursday night the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year:

Society steward—Miss Mae Sands.

Church clerk—Mrs. Henry Gibson.

Delegate to annual conference—Miss Sadie Lewis.

Alternate—Miss Marian MacKenzie.

The congregation, as is the yearly custom, voted upon a pastor. It was agreed to extend a call to the present pastor, Rev. Harold J. Sutton, to serve for another year. The congregation will await Rev. Sutton's reply.

Offer Morgenthau Bribe Of $1500 To Get Valuable Number

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Federal agents were put on the trail today of a New York "numbers" operator who was brash enough to write a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau offering him a bribe of $1,500 to make today's number "55329".

The numbers game is operated by taking the last five dollar digits in the daily treasury balance. Today's number was really 43918.

Beyond saying the letter was mailed in New York state and that they had a clew to the sender, treasury officials would not comment.

Air Complaints Of Dual Employment In Relief Set-up

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Although more than 1,000 complaints were originally received, only 123 families in the entire state relief administration setup had more than one member on the payroll, state relief director Robert L. Johnson announced today.

There are 11,000 persons on the state and county relief board payrolls. Of the 123 families affected by Johnson's ruling against nepotism, dual employment has been eliminated in 72 families by dismissal of that number of persons. Three others are employed on work which will be discontinued shortly, seven cases of dual employment were families maintaining separate households and 28 others will be replaced shortly.

No action has been taken on five cases and the last eight were exempted because the total salaries of the two or more persons from one home was less than $35, used for the sole support of from five to 12 persons.

Keep this in mind for next summer. Scoop out equal portions of watermelon and cantaloupe with melon scoop, and pour sherry wine over them. Let stand in cold place for an hour, and serve as fruit cocktail.

Youthful Slayer Will Tell Story To Grand Jury

Buffalo Prosecutor Says It It Is Up To Grand Jury To Decide On Story Of Boy

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 8—Announcing he believed it was up to the Erie County grand jury to decide whether Richard Kloes, 11, was legally guilty of his self-confessed murder of his father, District Attorney Walter C. Newcomb today will let the boy tell his own story to that body.

Newcomb pointed out that when he calls the boy to testify, he will be forced to grant him immunity from prosecution, Richard not being legally old enough to sign a waiver of immunity and an indictment charging first degree murder will be asked against an unnamed person.

FHA Officials Visit Office Here

Field Representatives Are Guests Of County Director Feuchtwanger

J. J. Gallagher of Erie, and Joseph C. Flanagan of Pittsburgh, field representatives of the Federal Housing Administration, are visiting the local FHA office here today, conferring with Marcus Feuchtwanger, county director.

Because of the fact that the local FHA office was among the first organized in the nation, and their setup has been so efficient, the local office is looked upon as a model by the administration.

The Plante cell is the simplest form of storage battery and in an improved form is still much used where weight and space are of little importance.

Famous Doctor Taken By Death

Death Claims Dr. William Duane, 62, One-Time Associate Of Madame Curie

(International News Service)

DEVON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Dr. William Duane, 62, internationally noted scientist, direct descendant of Benjamin Franklin and one-time associate of Madame Curie, the late great discoverer of radium, was dead at his home here today. He succumbed to a long illness yesterday.

Despite the fact that he was under a physician's care for the past two years, Dr. Duane persisted in his research studies of cancer, X-ray and a variety of other scientific subjects.

Dr. Duane served in the Curie radium laboratories at the University of Paris from 1907 to 1912. He was a native Philadelphian, tracing his ancestry directly to Franklin.

Students In Row Over Oath Bill

Representatives Of 17 Colleges In Bitter Row At Albany, N. Y.

(International News Service)

ALBANY, Mar. 8.—Chance for passage of the Nunan student's oath bill, approved by the senate and still locked in assembly committee, were enhanced today by the bitter row which broke out 150 students from 17 colleges who came here to oppose the measure.

Radical and conservative elements among the students failed to agree. As a result, the conference broke up with six colleges withdrawing and the rest taking a vote of confidence in themselves.

The climax of the stormy session came when an unidentified male student strode up to a newspaper woman, who was "covering" the conference, seized her notes and raced from the room. Although the conference reconvened hurriedly and voted a public apology to the writer, the notes were not returned.

A resolution was adopted, with some of the colleges not voting, attacking newspapers supporting the bill, as well as the D. A. R., the American Legion and the Elks.

You'll Find City Mission Welcomes Outworn Articles

Spring House-Cleaning Nears And Mission Seeks Odds-And-Ends

Spring brings house-cleaning time and house-cleaning time always turns furniture odd-and-ends for donation to the City Rescue Mission.

Superintendent B. J. Watkins and his staff today were completing arrangements to receive the furniture gifts that always appear at this season of the year.

"Cleaning time is almost here again," the superintendent commented, "and the ladies will find many old pieces of furniture which they will be glad to dispose of. Many articles of clothing, now of no use to their families, always are uncovered. The Mission as always, will be glad to receive them as gifts for presentation to needy families. Housekeepers may call 430 and the mission truck will collect any kind of a donation.

Mr. Watkins spoke the mission's thanks for those who have been contributing articles to it month in and month out. "Many a worthy person has been helped," he said.

Eckert Votes With Opposition To Retirement Pay

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 8—Representative Charles L. Eckert, of Beaver, this week joined with a Republican-Democratic coalition which successfully opposed a bill backed by the Administration to permit United States Supreme Court judges to retire with full pay guaranteed.

Under existing laws supreme court justices may not retire. If they wish to leave the bench they must resign and Congress may then give them such retirement money as it so elects. The bill offered in the House this week by Roosevelt followers would have permitted such justices to retire with retirement pay equivalent to their active pay.

Opposition to the measure developed and it was finally defeated by a 210 to 144 ballot with party lines broken. Representative Eckert was one of those voting against it.

ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS

SUBDUES MARCH WEATHER

Anything can happen in March

says the Chief Climatologist, United States Weather Bureau

Weather Bureau records show that the old saying, "If March comes in like a lion it goes out like a lamb," has more truth to it than most weather proverbs, as this month has long been known as one of very changeable weather.

Anything is likely to happen. A single day may bring nearly all kinds of weather in quick succession. Rapid temperature changes are normally of frequent occurrence and extremely cold weather sometimes occurs.

In the eastern states, zero weather has occurred in March as far south as Georgia, and 30° to 35° below zero in some northeastern districts. Rainfall in March usually is heavy in the southeastern states. In the northeastern states rain or snow occurs usually on about twelve days of the month. Snowfall is sometimes heavy.

March is normally cloudy in the northeast with an average of only about five hours a day of sunshine in the Middle Appalachian mountain districts. Thunderstorms become increasingly frequent during this month.

A statement by Joseph B. Kincer, Chief Climatologist, United States Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C.

FREEZING cold before breakfast. Blazing hot at noon. Perhaps a thunderstorm before night. That's March . . . toughest month of the year for the gasoline in your car. That gasoline must be volatile enough to give quick starting at zero . . . yet the volatility must not stall your car from "vapor lock" when the thermometer mounts to 70° or 80° above.

ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS more than meets these difficult specifications. It is a quick-starting motor fuel of low vapor pressure . . . more expensive to make, yes . . . but therefore much more satisfactory to use.

Contrary to customary practice, ATLANTIC does not make merely a winter and a summer gasoline. It is constantly changing WHITE FLASH PLUS to meet changing weather conditions. That's why it is ideal for March. And it sells at the price of regular gasoline. Fill your tank today . . . and turn the wild March lion into a harmless little lamb!

No business can long endure without true service to its customers. We believe that ATLANTIC'S steady growth over 70 years reflects the extra quality which we constantly strive to put in our products. * * * We think of ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS as something more than "just gasoline." It must definitely be the best . . . so as to meet the emergencies of life, as well as to give dependable and inexpensive service in every-day use.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

ERIE SINGERS COMING

Members of New Castle's Parent-Teachers Ass'n. and their friends are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the well-known Academy A Cappella choir of Erie on the evening of March 14.

The choir consists of sixty-eight voices, thirty male and thirty-eight ladies under the direction of Prof. O. L. Grender, who was for five years a member of the famous St. Olaf choir.

The group will stop here for the night while enroute to Pittsburgh where it will appear before a convention of music supervisors from eastern Canada and the New England and middle Atlantic states. The honor of singing before such an important musical group is one greatly coveted by scholastic choirs and this year the invitation came to the visiting artists from our neighbor to the north.

The concert will appeal, not only to the many students in the local schools who appreciate fine music but to many also from nearby towns and to music lovers in general. The quality of the music employed and the manner in which it is sung has brought many fine tributes from nearly every state in the union and from at least two foreign countries. Only a few days ago the choir was invited to sing in Canada and will probably tour four or five cities in Ontario early in April.

The concert will be held in the auditorium of senior high school and proceeds will be turned oved by the P. T. A. to local school authorities to be used in underwriting expenses for the April 12 and 13 conclave here of nearly 2,000 Northwestern students for the annual Northwestern Pennsylvania Inter-Schclastic Forensic and Music contest. The contest will be one of the largest of its kind to take place here.

LIBRARY SQUAD ORGANIZED

Due to the large number of students using the library recently Miss Westlake has found it necessary to organize a squad to help in checking ing the attendance and in taking care of the library. These students are: Robert Miner, Carl Custer, Laura Lewis, Ernest Royal, Mary Toney, James Carey, Leo Gensante, Eugenia Matt, Rodney Williams, Everett Barker, Betty McIlvenny, Rose Nader, John Rozak, Mary Cestrone, Russell Gustafson, Marian Butler, Robert Dilley, Jeanne Hartland, Louise Corio, Pat Cubbison, Betty Rick, Sarah Andakian, Edward Manning, Helen Markley, Geo. Andrews, James Dart, Jack Dukes.

REPRESENTATIVES BALLOT

With President Lawrence Bennett in the chair the student representatives met Tuesday for the first time this semester. Pauline Booher was eleced secretary, Marianne Francis, assistant secretary, and Patricia Montgomery vice president. A new seating plan for the students at Taggart Field was presented. This proposal will be voted upon after it has been explained to the student body, thereby having the vote reflect the opinion of the students.

NEW STUDENT COUNCIL

GOLF ASSEMBLY HELD

Through the efforts of P. H. Bridenbaugh, athletic coach, an assembly was held Tuesday morning for all those interested in golf. "Dike" Monsey, local professional and manager of New Castle Golf Course will act as the instructor for the group. He will be assisted by Richard Monsey, another very capable player. After the group has been instructed in the technique of the game, the most capable players will be chosen for a team to play other high school teams this coming spring. Mr. Monsey explained how he would instruct the pupils, what would be expected of them and he also stated that these training classes would be held every Monday and Thursday, third period. Mr. Bridenbaugh gave a list of the teams that have asked for games with New Castle. He also stated that there was a possibiliy of the girls organizing a team.

DANCE ON MARCH 15

The Senior A's are giving a party and dance for the whole school, on March 15, from 7:30 to 11:30. This promises to be a fine dance, and everyone is urged to attend. The committees for the various functions have been appointed. They are:—Refreshments—Chairman Bob Johnson, Richard Warner, Thomas Holliday, Betty Kay Matthews: Guests, John Thompson, chairman, Jean Cassellman: orchestra, James Fox; tickets, Jim Bradford, chairman, Nancy Duff, Tom Schnebly, Bob Bougher, Viola Dufford, Jean Hoose, Kathleen Shuttlew,o r t h Pauline Booher: decorations, James Donnelly, chairman Charles Book, Dave Guido and Bernard Chill.

GRADE MARKS GO OUT

Senior high students received their regular report marks during classes on Thursday. Within a few days they will be presented to students for parental inspection.

FUND BALANCE

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—The state retirement fund balance is now $15,102,398 of which $1,322,137 is in cash.

COMING To End RUPTURE Troubles

Representatives of Wm. S. Rice, Adams, N. Y., originator of the Rice Method for the self treatment of rupture at home, will be at the Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa., Wednesday, March 13, to give a personal and free trial of his method to all sufferers who want to end rupture trouble and truss wearing.

No matter how bad the rupture, how long you have had it, or how hard to hold; no matter how many kinds of trusses you have worn, let nothing prevent you from getting this FREE TRIAL. Whether you are tall and thin, short and stout, have a large abdomen, whether you think you are past help or have a rupture as large as your fists, this marvelous Method will so control and keep it up inside as to surprise you. It will so restore the parts where the rupture comes through that soon you will be as free to work at any occupation as though you had never been ruptured.

For the lady callers a woman expert, thoroughly trained, will assist in the demonstrations in private apartments. The trial will be absolutely complete and thorough without a penny of cost.

You owe it to your own personal comfort and safety not to miss the great free demonstration. It is a real opportunity to learn how you may be done with chafing trusses and the danger, suffering and trouble your rupture has caused.

The hours are 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m. and evenings 7 to 9. Remember the dates and place, Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa.

STAMP NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

BY JOHNRAE EARL, SEC. NEW CASTLE STAMP CLUB.

On March 15, at the Philatelic Agency in Washington, the following stamps will be out. The "initial" printing order has just been turned over to the bureau of printing by the postmaster general. Here it is itemized:

10,000 sheets of each of the National Park Stamps, ten in all.

10,000 sheets Mother's Day flat plate printing.

10,000 sheets Wisconsin Tercentenary.

10,000 sheets Little America perforated sheets.

10,000 sheets 16c airmail-special delivery.

7,000 sheets Newburgh Peace Commemorative.

5,000 sheets of each of the souvenir panes.

These amounts will never even cover the demands of collectors on the first day therefore it is called the "initial printing". Postmaster Farley intends that therefore shall be a sufficient number of stamps available for all collectors. Most of these sheets of stamps will be uncut, unperforated, and ungummed. Because they are not going to be sold at any postoffice the Postoffice Department is making an exception and allowing them to be used as postage

Will Accomodate Postmark Collectors

The Postoffice Department has issued orders to all postmasters to co-operate with any reasonable request for postmarks from queer named towns and cities. This is providing return postage is enclosed and the postmark can either be secured on a slip of white paper or upon an envelope that is prepared for sending through the mail. This accommodation however, is limited to philatelists only, and trying to secure postmarks for other than philatelic purposes will be useless. This announcement appeared in the February 25 issue of the Postal Bulletin.

Official notice went out to all postmasters on February 19, that hereafter the country heretofore known as "Persia" will now be called "Iran" the official name in the language of that country.

Arbor Day Stamp Illustration

This is a two cent stamp and was authorized in commemoration of the sixtieth anniversary of the establishment of Arbor Day, on April 22, 1932 in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of J. Sterling Morton, through whose efforts a day was first officially set aside for the planting of trees in the State of Nebraska in 1872.

The picture on the stamp seems at first glance to conflict with the country's law prohibiting any living person to be shown on a United States stamp. The picture is of a boy or a girl planting a tree, the girl holding the tree while the earth is filled in by the boy. The children are Ruth and Alvin W Hall, Jr. Their father is Alvin W. Hall, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at that time. This does not conflict with the ruling however, because they were merely used as models to portray the spirit of Arbor Day.

Regulars To Be Remade

Roy M. North, deputy third assistant postmaster general, states that the present series of regular stamps has run about twelve years and is going to be remade. The subjects are still speculative and final decision has not been made. There is a possibility that some of the higher values will again contain pictures of buildings rather than a complete set of all the presidents.

Sales And Income Tax Sentiment Seen At Capital

Increasing Favor For General Measures To Supplant Earle's Plan

INCOME TAX MOVE PRESENTS PROBLEM

(By NORMAN GAGE)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Present trends toward a general sales tax and a combined flat-and-graduated personal income tax may cause the Earle Administration to dust off a few bills which were drafted a month ago.

Such measures were among the first drawn when Dr. Clyde L. King was called in by the Democrats to supervise the preparation of a $200,000,000 revenue-raising program. There is good reason to believe that the ace of Pennsylvania's budget experts still prefers them to some of the hybrid, alternative bills which are giving so many legislators headaches.

Out Of The Wastebasket

Discarded bills which are likely to serve as a basis for ultimate compromises provide:

A flat one per cent general sales tax;

A flat two per cent income tax; and

A graduated income tax with rates of two per cent on incomes of less than $10,000 a year; four per cent on incomes from $10,000 to $50,000, and six per cent on incomes of more than $50,000.

When the present tax program was agreed upon, the flat-rate taxes were rejected on Governor Earle's theory that they are "sock the poor" levies. The graduated income tax was sidetracked for three reasons: (1) A Supreme Court test to establish its constitutionality is necessary; (2) The test, if successful, would take some of the zest out of the movement to revise the constitution, and (3) The use of the revenue for general operating expenses of the state government would divert the money from schools and real estate relief.

Sales Tax vs Sales Tax

In the House as well as in the Senate, legislators can be found who cannot reconcile the Governor's opposition to a general sales tax with his demand for the 22-point program. They contend the Administration plan includes nearly $100,000,000 in sales taxes on gasoline, cigarettes, electricity, cement, etc.

Important from the legislators' viewpoint is the fact that opposition to the general tax is dwindling while that directed against the $203,000,000 program is increasing. Legislators do not thrive on opposition, particularly organized opposition. They do not share the Governor's assurance of four years at Harrisburg. To them, a general sales tax with the "pass-on" feature, specifying that the consumer must pay the tax, looks like a means of lessening the pressure from organized groups.

Income Tax Problem

The problem presented by the personal income tax is somewhat different. The constitutionality of the graduated tax must be established quickly and Governor Earle's objection regarding the use of the money must be considered.

Current odds are heavily in favor of the graduated tax surviving a Supreme Court test. In private, even prominent Democrats concede this. Two years ago, House Democrats were supporting the Pinchot proposal for a graduated tax for school purposes, contending it would withstand the court test. Among those who took this view were the then Representatives Wilson G. Sarig (now speaker of the House) and Chester H. Rhoades (now judge of the Superior Court.)

Since that time, appellate courts in other states with similar Constitutional provisions have sustained the validity of a graduated personal income tax. Belated Republican converts recognize this fact and also stress the recent tendencies toward liberal interpretations by state and federal courts. Today they can see as a step in this direction the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's decision sustaining the 1931 Talbot (unemployment relief) act. They are ready to help expedite a test case and decision on the graduated tax.

Urge School Plan Delay

To meet Governor Earle's objection regarding the use of income tax proceeds, advocates of the compromise plan are emphasizing the emergency nature of the Commonwealth's plight. They advise delaying the refund-to-schools plan until consolidations of small districts have been effected and other refinements have been made in the present school system.

In this situation, the eventual nature of the tax compromise will depend upon how the Democratic majority in the House behaves when confronted by final votes on key bills of the 22-point program. Once that question is settled, Governor Earle will know where he stands when it comes to bargaining with the Senate.

Crowd-Pleasing Tactics

Outstanding feature of the legislative week was the bi-partisan grandstanding by which $4,200,000 has been made available for old age assistance, pensions for the blind, and hospital aid. For weeks Democrats and Republicans had known exactly what had to be done. The Administration simply played to the gallery in the sensational, last-minute rush for action. Republicans followed the same course by sponsoring the emergency resolution which eliminated the need for a five-day session. The net result was a lot of fuss and the transfer of a few million dollars from one pocket to another.

Asks Business To Support Roosevelt

Would Have Business Men Aid Economic Security Program In Nation

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8—An appeal to business to support President Roosevelt's economic security program was made here by Senator Wagner (D) New York its author.

"Congress does not want to put the economic security program into effect without the cooperation of business men. Your advice has been sought, your interests have been consulted....and business must and will do its part," he told the merchants association.

Wagner asserted improved business conditions warrant enactment of the program.

New Wilmington Ends Season In League Tonight

Victory Over Shenango High Will Give New Wilmington Championship

"BOB" EAGLESON TO END CAREER

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Tonight is the big night as far as New Wilmington high is concerned. Two memorable occasions will be reached. It will mark the passing of "Bob" Eagleson as a member of the Blue and Gold basketball team, and it will mean the county league championship if New Wilmington high can defeat Shenango high.

Eagleson is rated as one of the very finest basketball players to ever play on a New Wilmington high team, and his shoes will be hard to fill next year. He is one of the leading scorers of the league and has played both forward and guard. In addition to his athletic prowess Eagleson has three times been elected as president of his class, and has starred in many theatrical productions. He is also a noted baseball pitcher. He is only five feet four inches, but is a "human dynamo."

Title At Stake

With Shenango high and New Wilmington high tied up for the title, any thing can happen tonight. Coach Ed. Raney has given the Shenango high team a final workout and pronounces them fit for a gruelling battle tonight. Coach Eagleson has given the New Wilmington high quintet their final instructions, and feels confident that the race for the county championship will be over late tonight.

The Community House floor at New Wilmington will be filled to capacity strength tonight. This is the biggest game of the year for the New Wilmington team and a title hinges on the outcome.

College Coeds Plan Exhibition Of Swimming

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Members of the Mermaid club, a branch of the Women's Athletic association at Westminster college, have completed plans for a swimming exhibition to be held in the college pool on Wednesday, March 13. A water pageant entitled, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," will be presented.

Lucille Nevin, Monongahela, is the W. A. A. swimming chairman in charge of the Mermaid club. Those on the committee in charge of the water pageant include: Elizabeth Cone, Crafton; Alice McCrory, Cambridge, O., and Dorothy Veazey, Cleveland Heights, O. Miss Nandeen Love, director of physical education for women, is in general charge of the event.

HUMBERT JUNIORS WIN

Turn left if you wish but this Spring your hat CAN BE RIGHT.

We'll bet you've often worn a hat in which you weren't perfectly pleased . . . you bought it because it was the best in the lot.

And this Spring we want you to have a hat that is RIGHT . . . and this Spring, finding that very hat is far easier than it has been for years.

This year the hats have a balance never before achieved . . . they're like the cars . . . they all look good and if ever you had an opportunity to be 100% "hatisfied" . . . here it is.

Be particular . . . we want you to . . . the hats can stand it and you won't get on our nerves by taking lots of time.

But mainly . . . there's something in these hats that you've been looking for . . . perhaps for years.

Miss Orcutt meets Miss Rogers and Miss Bauer faces Miss Miley in the semi-finals this afternoon.

A big, rangy female pointer, Homewood Flirtatious, was crowned national champion of bird dogs yesterday after a brilliant performance at Grand Junction, Texas. The victory carried with it a $1,500 cash award and a leg on the Robert W. Bingham cup. She is owned by H. M. Curry, Jr., Pittsburgh, and was handled by Frank Bevan of the Homewood kennels, Waynesboro, Ga., where she was trained. She found her first covey in 100 yards. She stylishly pointed one of them and on the next chase came up with another covey find. She was running so well her bracemaye, Suiu, was almost forgotten. Soon after, however, Sulu made her first find on a single bird and the "Flirt" supported her beautifully. She made her fourth find a few hundred yards away, another single and climaxed her performance a short while later by stylishly backing Sulu on that dog's second single. Sulu was out of sight of the mounted gallery at the time and the "Flirt's" positive back proved she was on the job. Sulu is owned by A. G. C. Sage of New York, and was handled by Clyde Morton.

To Limit Tourney At State College

Inter-Collegiate Boxing Contest To Be Staged During Present Month

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Although requests to enter boxers in the eastern intercollegiate boxing tournament here March 15 have been received from such widely separated colleges as Kansas State, Duke and Toronto, efforts will be made to limit the tourney field, according to an announcement by Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of ahletics.

An attempt will be made this year to limit entries in each weight class so that each fighter will not be required to participate in more than three matches. In the past, the entry list has been limited to regular members of the association plus a few additional invited colleges.

In addition to the five regular members of the association: Western Maryland, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Penn State, Syracuse and Army, the past members, Navy and Pennsylvania, have been asked to participate. Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard and Cornell, whose teams regularly meet association members, also have been mailed entry blanks.

Beaver Falls And Rankin To Battle Tonight

W. P. I. A. L. Championship At Stake Tonight In Game At Pitt Stadium

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—Rankin high, crown winner of Section 7, and Beaver Falls, champion of Section 3, will fight it out for the championship here tonight at Pitt Stadium court for the W. P. I. A. L. title.

This is the first time the Beaver Falls team reached the finals. Rankin, too, has never won a title, but it is odds on favorite tonight.

Before the game the boy athletes will eat—but not too much—at the annual basketball banquet of the W. P. I. A. L. Ira Thomas, once major league baseball star, will be principal speaker.

Washington High Defeats Seniors

Win Class League Game 43 To 11, Defeat Youngstown Junior High 23 To 19

George Washington junior high school basketball team topped the Senior B's in a class league game at Washington high floor Thursday afternoon 43 to 11, with McCormick the outstanding star of the encounter with 17 of the points, while Duffy, Julian and Brest also played fine basketball.

Wednesday afternoon the Washingtons went to Youngstown and upset the Wilson junior high team 23 to 19, with Paul, Updegraf, Brest and McCormick starring. At the half the Washingtons were behind 10 to 3. The end of the third period it was 11-11.

Bennett Again Paces Titans In Scoring With Over 300 Points

Westminster Star Has Scored 792 Points In Three Seasons

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Wes Bennett, star center or forward on the Westminster college basketball team, is again the team's leading scorer this year with a total of 301 points scored in the 21 contests in which he participated. Bennett tallied 110 field goals and 81 fouls.

Despite the fact that he has been ill for the last three weeks and saw action in only parts of three of the last four games, Bennett was able to average 14.33 points per game. He was the leading collegiate scorer in the country last year with 359 points tallied in 25 contests. In his freshman year he scored 132 points in 15 games. His total, then, for 61 games played in three seasons is 792 points, or an average of about 13 points per game over this period.

Ray Sweeney, diminutive guard or forward, is second to Bennett with 187 points scored in 21 contests. Sweeney tallied 71 field goals and 45 fouls. He averaged 9 points per game. John Wilhelm, guard or forward, was third with a total of 110 points scored in 22 contests. Wilhelm scored 42 field goals and 26 fouls.

The individual records:

	G.	Fg.	F.	Tp.
Bennett	21	110	81	301
Sweeney	21	71	45	187
Wilhelm	22	42	26	110
Leyshock	14	44	17	105
Hunneke	21	32	16	80
Backus	21	27	13	67
Willits	20	26	8	60
Krivosh	18	14	8	36
Arrowsmith	9	4	6	14
Demo	8	4	4	12
MacCormack	2	2	3	7
Franklin	1	1	0	2
Rudich,	3	0	1	1
Totals		377	223	982

Bennett's total of 301 points again makes the Akron, O., junior the high point man in the Pittsburgh and western Pennsylvania section. Sweeney's total of 187 easily places him among the first four high scorers of the district.

Bennett's largest scores in single games were: 21 against St. Johns in Madison Square Garden, New York; 22 against Glenville at New Wilmington and 26 against Glenville at Glenville; 22 agianst Waynesburg; 23 against Bethany; 20 against Rider. He made good 81 fouls out of 118 attempts.

Sweeney and Wilhelm are the two Titans to be lost by graduation. Both men have been valuable players during the past three seasons, and both will be missed. The improvement shown by Krivosh, Backus, Demo, Willits and Arrowsmith, and the return to college of Ken Grubb, out with an appendicitis operation, will bolster the squad next season.

Speed Records Again Broken

Sir Malcolm Campbell Drives Fastest Mile In Auto History

UNDECIDED ON FURTHER ATTEMPT

(International News Service)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Mar. 8.—Sir Malcolm Campbell, English speed merchant who cracked world's land speed record yesterday was undecided today whether he will ship his bluebird super racer back to England or await a more favorable beach and try for a higher speed.

"I am satisfied the bluebird has much more speed than I have attained," he said. "The whole question hinges on whether the beach will improve or get worse with passing time. I am advised it should be better at high tide during full moon about 18th but I am undecided what to do."

Sir Malcolm Campbell And His Racing Car

Sir Malcolm had the closest call of his racing career he disclosed following his record run.

"As I was entering the measured mile on the north run the car hit a bump and for another mile I was all over the beach and barely missed running into the dunes," said Sir Malcolm. "My tires were ripped to pieces and it is miraculous that they held together.

"I suffered an injured wrist shortly after starting while changing gears. It really however, is just an old sprain. Other than being shaken up I suffered no ill effects from the run."

They are: one mile, miles per hour 276.816 the time 13.005; kilo, 281.374 miles per hour; time 8:10; five mile, mph 235.141 the time 1:111.60; five kilo, miles per hour 268.474. All miles are average.

PIRATES ARE IDLE

(International News Service)

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Mar. 8.—Rain—yes, real California rain, forced the Pittsburgh Pirates again today to choose between practicing on a soggy outdoor field or using the huge indoor stadium here to get in trim. Pie Traynor settled the matter yesterday by using the indoor stadium. The Pirates play the Acme team, crack local outfit, in an exhibition match Sunday.

Franklin High Defeats Butler

Oscar Mancine, Star Franklin Forward, Breaks Wrist During Game

Ben Franklin junior high school basketball team handed the Butler, Pa., junior high quintet a 27 to 23 setback last evening at the Franklin high floor. Oscar Mancine, star Franklin forward, had the misfortune to break his wrist in the game.

Franklin led at the half 20 to 9, with the Butlerites coming back strong in the third and fourth periods to make it interesting for the Wallacemen. High scorers in the game were Koszela, Nocera, Ross, Paczek and DeFoggi.

Seven Seniors To End Floor Career At New Wilmington

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Robert Eagleson, Russell Minner, two four year lettermen; Edward Borowiz, "Wild Bill" Hart, Lloyd McKean, Frank McClure and Joseph McClure, have donned for the last time the Blue and Gold colors of New Wilmington high school. June will see the graduation of these colorful athletes, some of whom will probably go on to various colleges.

Three New Wilmington girls played their last school game on Friday night against Shenango high. They are Jane Sharp, Betty White and Dorothy Robins.

Ask Lawther To Aid Selection Of All-Star Teams

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—John D. Lawther, Westminster college basketball mentor, has been asked to serve on a number of boards and committees to select all-star basketball teams for syndicates, press associations and radio. The latest request came from the Christy Walsh syndicate which is promoting an all-American basketball team as selected by leading coaches in the country. Another request came recently from the N. W. Ayer advertising firm. Press associations and newspaper sports editors have also requested Lawther to select all-star teams.

Eight Titans To Receive Letters

Awards To Be Made At Meeting Of Athletic Council

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Eight members of the Westminster college basketball squad which closes another great season Monday night with a record of 19 victories in 22 starts, will be recommended for varsity letters at the meeting of the Athletic council here Saturday.

The eight players who competed in sufficient games to qualify for awards are: Captain John Wilhelm, Kittanning; Ray Sweeney, Youngstown, O.; Wesley Bennett, Akron, O.; Peter Leyshock, Farrell; Henry Hunneke, Baldwin, L. I.; Paul Backus, Youngstown, O.; Jack Willits, Ford City, and John Krivosh, Sharon. Student Manager Robert Scarbrough, McDonald, O., will also be recommended for an award.

Pulaskis Upset Humberts, 34-26

Oaklanders Win Second Game Of Season From South Siders, 34-26

J. SLOSERNICK AND BORON STAR

Inspired by the recent fine showing made against the Polish Falcons, the K. Pulaski basketball team, of Oakland, went to the Humbert hall last night and took a 34 to 26 victory over the strong Humberts of the South Side. It was the second defeat this year administered by the Pulaskis to the Italian boys. One of the biggest crowds of the year witnessed the game.

"Red" Boron and Johnny Slosernick led the scoring for the evening with brilliant exhibitions of accurate shooting and clever floor work. "Cash" Mateja also played a fine game and had six points, while "Mikey" Slosernick had three points and played a great defensive game.

Convincing Victory

Zingaro, former Franklin high star, was the big noise for the Humberts with 11 of the points. At the half the Pulaski team led by a score of 16 to 12. Coach Walter Sniezek used but two subs in the game, "Tillie" Slizeski and himself. Zaremba was missing from the Pulaski lineup.

The Pulaskis won in a most convincing manner and served warning on other New Castle basketball teams to watch out in the near future. The Pulaskis played a most impressive game.

Noon, Pitt—Center.
Cribbs, Pitt—Guard.
Milanovich, Geneva—Guard.

Secnd Team

Ginsberg, Geneva—Forward.
Hughes, Pitt—Forward.
Hutzley, Geneva—Center.
Doepken, Bethany—Guard.
E. Bouldin, Waynesburg—Guard.

May Have Eight Clubs In Loop

Four Decide To Return — Three Others Said To Be Prospects

CITY LEAGUE TO HOLD MEETING

Indications point to an eight club circuit this season, according to announcement today by William G. Andrews, vice president of the loop who had charge of the first meeting of managers which was held at the Sport Goods Store last night.

West Pittsburgh, Bessemer, Mahoning and Hillsville decided to again cast their lot with the circuit that has been operating since 1923.

The A. S. & T. P. tin mills, I. A. A. and Ellwood City may come into the fold and if they all do, efforts will be made to secure an eighth team.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday when officers will be named for next season.

Next Thursday managers of all City League clubs are to report at the Sport Goods Store, where the Lawrence League officials will aid them in organizing for 1935.

LISTEN TO THIS

According to Ford Frick, president of the National league, the umpires are going to bear down on the pitchers in the matter of balks this season...Albie Booth, great little Yale football star of a few years back, has resigned his job as assistant coach at N. Y. U. in order that he may devote more of his time to his duties in a Hartford, Conn., creamery...186 athletes from 15 colleges and universities, the largest number of schools entered in the history of the meet, will compete in the ninth annual Central Intercollegiate indoor track and field meet this weekend at Notre Dame...St. Louis which turns out so poorly for major league baseball, produced 17,000 customers for a Jim Londos-Strangler Lewis wrestling match.

No matter how successful the Marquette university track men may be in the next two seasons, the school already is assured representation in the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin. Bob Peterson, Marquette freshman, has been named to the United States ice-skating team as a result of his work in the distance races. The Milwaukee school figured quite prominently in the 1932 Olympics with Ralph Metcalf burning up the cinders...Connie Mack, who was on his way back from Japan with the all-star team he chaperoned, missed his second meeting of the 35 held by the American league. On the other occasion a honeymoon interfered back in 1910...Abe Attel received 55 per cent of the gate for whipping Aurelia Herrera in 1901. The latter got only 5 per cent.

Walter Neusel, German heavyweight, was a distance runner in Westphalia before he took up fighting...Henry Johnson, Boston Red-sox hurler, has not made an error since 1930. In 1931 he took part in 40 games, accepting 28 chances. In '32 he was out most of the season but managed to break into six games, accepting six chances. In 1933 and 1934 he was in 56 games, handling 49 chances, thus giving him a toal of 102 games without a misplay...Basketball, growing more and more popular in the middle west, is definitely on a paying basis at Marquette university...New York's veteran of the fighting game, Sammy Shack, has boxed in British Columbia, Panama, the Philippines, Japan, China, Australia, New Zealand and England.

Charlie Paddock once the world's fastest human, ran 50 yards in five seconds flat. But Everett McGowan, speed skater, reeled off the same distance in four seconds in 1923. Paddock tore through 60 yards in six seconds flat, and Fred Robson equaled this time to set a world's record on the blades in 1916. It takes the tracksters between 9 and 10 seconds to do a 100 yards, but the skaters can cover the same distance about three second faster. In other words, why is it that title-holding speed skaters could always run away from sprinters at every distance except 60 yards?...Manager Frankie Frisch says there will be no special training rules for the Cardinals. All he demands is that the players be in bed by midnight and at the practice field on the appointed hour.

The high silk hat is approximately 150 years old. It was first made in Florence but came to America from London and Paris.

Prichett Named To State Banking Department Post

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Wilson Prichett, Haverford, today was named secretary of the Pennsylvania Securities commission at $3600 a year by Dr. Luther A. Harr, secretary of banking.

The position includes supervision of the work of employes of the commission and handling of commission correspondence. Levi G. Lichliter is chairman of the commission. Prichett succeeds Samuel M. Pursell who resigned.

Dr. Harr also announced that Irland McKnight (CP K) Beckman, Erie, had been promoted to first deputy secretary of banking at $7,000 a year. He has been a deputy since 1925. Robert W. Doty, Mifflintown, first deputy since 1931, will be continued as a deputy at $6,000 a year.

Castletons Will Play St. Marys

Two games are on tap at the "Y" floor Saturday night. The first game starting at 7:30 o'clock will find the Castletons meeting the St. Marys league, leading team of the Shenango township church league.

This will be the first appearance of the St. Marys team at the "Y" floor, and they hope to make a creditable showing against the hotel boys.

In the second game a House-Indus league contest will have the "Y" Devil Dogs and the National Pants team playing.

Council Rescinds Previous Action

Claim Power Of Burgess Was Usurped; Committee To Meet With Turner

Burgess Turner Declares That He Will Run Police Department Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8.—Burgess Judd C. Turner at the regular meeting of the Ellwood City Borough Council in the City building last night informed that body that "I want to run the police department and I am going to do so as I see fit."

This arose out of an action taken by council at the last monthly meeting when a schedule regulating the hours to be worked by the police department was passed by the city solons. Last night Councilman Paxton R. Fike moved that council rescind this action as the burgess had not been consulted in the matter whatsoever, and that council therefore was usurping the powers delegated to the burgess by law.

Councilman Henderson, chairman of the police committee, stated that the committee had attempted to inform the burgess of their plans, but due to an error, a letter had never reached him. Burgess Turner declared that no such action should have been considered without a conference with him first. Running the police department was one of his specific duties.

The plan passed by council was a schedule in which each member of the police department was given one day off a week. Burgess Turner stated that council earlier in the year had asked for more police and then raised their wages. This was within their powers. "At the present time," he went on, "the police department has two men off a day and sometimes three, and thus giving the city less protection than it ever had." The manner in which the situation is worked now would show that the city has too many policemen and is keeping some off with pay. With the present plan the schools cannot be policed properly at dismissal. He also stated that the Gamewell system was installed here to speed up the efficiency of the police force and to eliminate one policeman. The latter has not been done and now there are two policemen off daily.

Council voiced the opinion that the members of the police department should have one day off a week, but also agreed that the burgess should have been consulted before any action was taken. A motion was passed to reconsider the matter. The police committee was delegated to meet with the burgess and work out a definite program.

The Gleen Club rendered three numbers after the dinner. A public concert was given at the church auditorium at 8:15.

Storm Sewer Work Will Be Stopped

Committee Points Out To Council All Of RWD Allocation Has Not Been Used

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8.—Unless quick action is taken, the RWD storm sewer project in Ellwood City will be stopped, according to an announcement at the monthly meeting of the Ellwood City borough council in the City building last night.

The reason given was that all the funds have been used up and the RWD work all over the county has been ordered to be stopped. A commitee of council pointed out that the allocation for this work has not all been used. It is sufficient to complete the project.

A committee was delegated to investigate the matter.

Truck Damaged By Hit-Run Driver

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Lawrence Morini, of Wampum avenue, reported to local police last night that his truck was considerably damaged by a hit and run driver.

The truck was parked in front of his store about 7:30 last night when a young man had come rushing into the store and told him that a car had side-swiped his truck and failed to stop. The car was a large blue sedan.

Zelienople Man Dies In Hospital At Ellwood City

(Special To The News)

ZELIENOPLE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Following an illness of but a week, J. Louis Passavant, 33, died in the Ellwood City hospital Thursday night, March 7. His death comes as a shock to the people of Zelienople, as his illness was sudden and of brief duration.

Mr. Pasasvant was the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Passavant, one of the pioneer families of Zelienople. When the city was first founded they came here and have been a part of the business and civic life for many years.

For a time Mr. Passavant was engaged in business in Springfield, O., but for the past year or more has been back in Zelienople. He was a member of the English Lutheran church. He was unmarried and made his home with his parents on South Main street.

The body has been brought to the Passavant home, but the funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Mr. Passavant is survived by his father and mother and one brother, Charles S. Passavant.

Ten members and one guest, Mrs. Clarence Cowan, participated.

The third chapter of the mission book, Seed Corn, was presented by Mrs. Laura Weller as leader. Usual routine matters were transacted at the business meeting.

A social period was concluded by the serving of a tempting luncheon by the hostess. Adjournment was then taken to meet again on Thursday evening, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Harry Fury of Wurtemburg, with Mrs. George Gibbons as leader.

Farley Inquiry Request Refused

Senate Committee Rejects Demands Of Long For Investigation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—After deciding to oppose any inquiry into the official conduct of Postmaster General Farley, the Senate post office committee met today to draft a report, justifying its refusal to investigate the charges of Senator Huey P. Long (D) of Louisiana.

The report probably will be supported by statements from Attorney General Cummings, Secretary of the Interior Ickes and Jesse H. Jones, RFC chairman, declaring Farley innocent of Long's charges which involved their respective departments.

The overwhelming majority of the committee however, are convinced Long's charges have proven groundless. The committee apparently relied on Farley's sweeping denial of Long's charge that he secured a private profit from the New York firms, which sold materials to contractors on government jobs. Ickes said Farley had never used any influence on PWA building contracts.

CHEWTON NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Allen and daughter, Janis Marlene, motored to Lowellville, O., Monday and visited Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stewart. Mr. Allen was formerly pastor of the Lowellville Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shurlock and Mrs. Annie Guy visited with Merle Guy at the Ellwood City hospital, Tuesday evening.

Miss Mary Aiken, Eileen Guy, and Marian and Alice Campbell were visitors in Ellwood City Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. R. Coulter, who is confined to her home by illness is slowly improving.

GERSONS TAKE FORFEIT

Gersons basketball team won a forfeit game from the National Pants last night at the Humbert floor in a city league battle, when the latter team failed to show up.

SQUARE CIRCLE

Members of the Square Circle will hold their regular meeting in the International Institute room, Y. W. C. A., this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The public should normally expect the practicing physicians with their professional understanding and personal contact with sick people, to know more about the best forms of sickness service than other socialogists, economists and other theorists.

Stock Market Demand Steady

Utility Shares Much In Demand In Early Hours Of Market Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—A steady demand for the utility shares principally Consolidated Gas, Public service of N. J. and American Telephone, featured forenoon dealings on the stock market today.

American Telephone was a particular strong spot jumping more than a point to the best levels in months. Consolidated Gas ran up about half point and Public Service about a point.

Other sections of the list, while somewhat firmer, continued to be mixed.

Railroad shares received a better grade of support which served to lift Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific and other recent weak spots fractionally. New York Central, however, continued under slight pressure and held fractionally under yesterday's closing levels.

Industrials were only moderately active. United States Steel held around its previous close, but Bethlehem was fractionally higher.

Farm implement shares recovered further under the leadership of J. I. Case. Montgomery Ward, International Harvester were firm.

Chemicals, liquors, oils and specialties marked time. Motor shares including Chrysler held their own in light trading.

Petroleum Board Orders Oil Company To Recognize Union

Company Union Is Ordered Dissolved In Oklahoma Oil Field By Policy Board

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The Petroleum Labor Policy Board today ordered a company union of the Keener Oil and Gas Co., of Bartlesville, Okla., dissolved, and directed the company to recognize the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America as representing the employes in collective bargaining.

The company was directed to refrain from dealing with employes through the "company dominated union which it has established," to discontinue interference with self-organizing activities of its employes, to cooperate with the board in elections for collective bargaining, and to negotiate with the representatives of the union "in good faith."

The order was based on a hearing held January 17 at Bartlesville. This was the second company union ordered dissolved by the Petroleum Labor Policy Board. A similar union of the Texas Co., at West Tulsa, Okla., was ordered dissolved six weeks ago.

Ordinance No. 79

An ordinance providing for the levying and collection of taxes for general borough purposes in the Borough of Enon Valley, Pennsylvania, for the year 1935.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and the Town Council of the Borough of Enon Valley, in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same; that there hereby is levied and directed to be collected on all property, offices, professions, and persons within said Borough made taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth, for county rates and levies, a tax for general borough purposes for the year 1935, of eight (8) mills on the dollar on said valuation, to be levied on the assessment made by the elected assessor and duly adjusted and equalized by the proper authorities of said County of Lawrence.

Section 2. The Commissions of the Tax Collector hereby are fixed at 3 per cent on all taxes paid to him on which an abatement is made under the provisions of Section 1308 of the General Borough Act of 1927, as amended by the Act approved May 18, 1933, and at 5 per cent on all taxes by him collected after the period for said abatement has expired.

Section 3. The Borough Secretary hereby is directed to prepare a Tax Book showing the above rate of tax and also showing the amount of the valuation and the amount of tax for each taxable, and he is further directed to prepare a duplicate thereof, to which the Burgess shall add his warrant for the collection of the same and the Burgess shall deliver said duplicate together with said warrant to the Tax Collector for collection.

Section 4. The Tax hereinbefore levied is a tax of eighty cents (80c) on each hundred ($100) dollars of assessed valuation of taxable property.

Ordained and Enacted in Council this 5th day of March A. D. 1935.

C. L. Marshall, president of council.

Examined and approved this 6th day of March A. D. 1935.

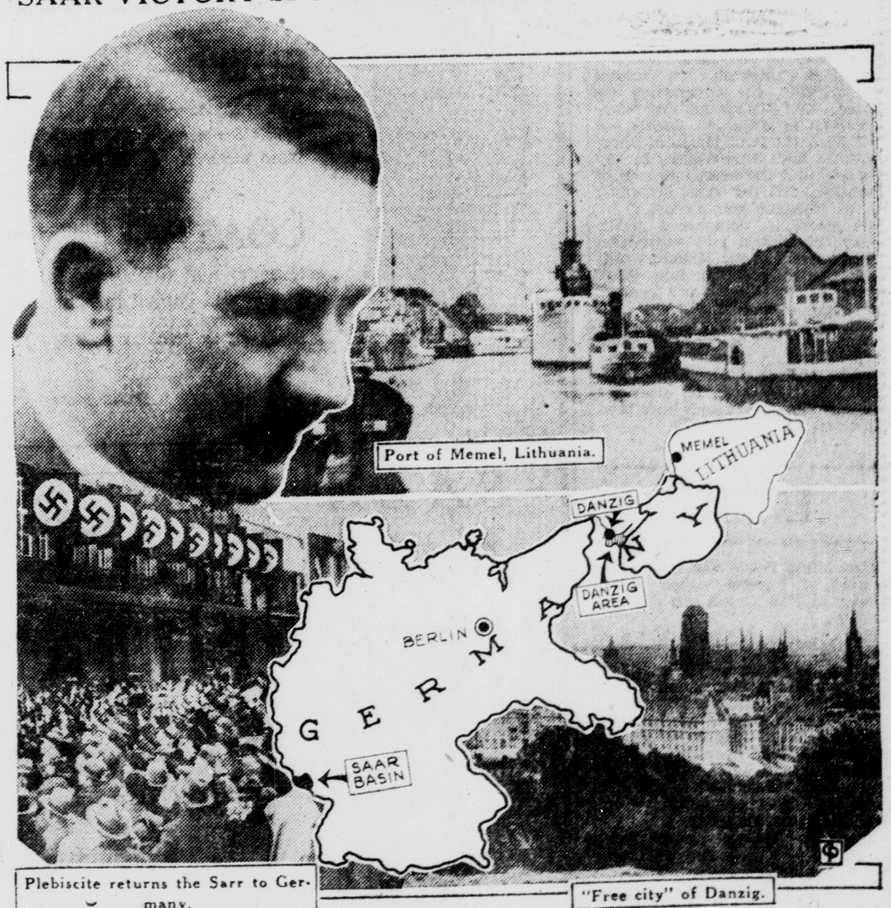
Here's Another Etta Kett Doll! Paste On Cardboard And Cut Out

Famed Comic Strip Heroine Presents More of Her Wardrobe—Three Removable Costumes

Was the editor of The News surprised! He hoped you young readers would like the Etta Kett cutout doll printed recently, but, goodness! he certainly didn't expect to receive so many enthusiastic letters from so many of you asking that another Etta Kett doll with costumes be printed. So, he's very happy to print another Etta Kett doll for you today with four new costumes, three of which are removable. Just look at all those pretty things to wear—that clever bathing suit, those darling pajamas, the little suit of shorts and shirt and that perfectly beautiful gown with handsome sash. The editor hopes you like this Etta Kett cut-out as well as the other doll.

SAAR VICTORY SPURS HITLER TO REICH EXPANSION



Plebiscite returns the Sarr to Germany.

"Free city" of Danzig.

Amid the triumphant rejoicing over the Saar's return to Germany in the recent plebiscite, Realmleader Adolf Hitler and his Nazi aids are reported seeking new colonial laurels. The city of Memel, detached from the Reich after the World war, and taken over by Lithuania, may be next to feel Nazi expansion by means of the newest Hitler "weapon", the plebiscite ballot box. Thousands of Memel Germans are appealing to the League of Nations to authorize an election so they can declare their desire for reunion. The "free port" of Danzig, also severed from the Reich, may, too, be co-ordinated by "plebiscite" if Nazi plans for "pushing to the east" are carried out.

Property Damage From Floods Is Heavy In State

Many Lives Also Been Lost During Past 150 Years

JOHNSTOWN FLOOD TOOK HEAVIEST TOLL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Floods have taken a toll of millions in property damage in Pennsylvania in the past 150 years, according to the State Planning board.

About 30 major floods have been recorded in the Delaware river during that period, 35 in the Susquehanna and about 50 in the Ohio, the commission reported, while numerous small local floods were also experienced.

The June 1, 1889 flood, more popularly called the "Johnstown flood," was the greatest on record in Pennsylvania. The storm, concentrated over the watersheds of the Juniata and the west branch of the Susquehanna, took a toll of 2142 lives at Johnstown and destroyed a large sectio nof the city.

"The Pittsburgh flood commission estimated flood toll to the city of Pittsburgh alone, from 1898 to 1908, at $12,000,000, of which $6,500,000 was causced by three floods in 1907 and 1908," the commission reported.

"The total financial loss along the Allegheny river resulting from the 1913 flood amounted to $720,000. The Shenango and Beaver valley damage from this same flood was $2,100,000.

"Along the Lehigh river, the 1902 flood loss reached $760,000. In August, 1915, in the city of Erie, 34 people were drowned and damage amounting to $2,000,000 resulted from a flood in Mill Creek. In July, 1931, Norristown suffered a loss of $1,000,000 as the result of floods in two small creeks traversing the borough. York lost $260,000 in 1884 and $4,360,000 in 1933 from floods in Codorus creek."

Many flood control projects have been undertaken as CWA, PWA and LWD projects in Pennsylvania. Eight flood control basins to be constructed at a cost of more than $40,000,000 have been recommended by the tri-state authority for Western Pennsylvania as part of the president's new works relief program.

"Floods can be controlled by retarding or storage basins, diversion channels, stream channel improvements and by construction of levees and embankments," according to the Planning Commission.

"The logical and proper method of control is to limit the quantity of water reaching the channel to the discharge capacity of the channel by means of retarding or storage basins. Protection generally may best be secured, not by any one single method, but by a combination of several methods applicable to each other in a limited way."

Flood control by this method has been effectively accomplished by completion of the state reservoir project at Pymatuning, in Western Pennsylvania, the commission reported. Had the Pymatuning reservoir been in operation during the 1913 flood, the flood height at Sharon would have been reduced by 23.3 per cent and the maximum rate of discharge, 32.5 per cent, according to the planning commission.

"A carefully determined public policy for control and supervision of the streams of the commonwealth was adopted and put into effect when the 1933 legislature enacted the dam and encroachment act which made it unlawful for anyone to construct any 'water obstruction' without a state permit," the commission reported. "Stream channels with adequate areas to discharge maximum expected floods have been conserved and protected."

Those present were: Mary Shoaff, Helen Sankey, Mary Sankey, Mildred Brown, Laura Brown, Floretta Pollock, Gertrude McKissick, Margaret Peebles, Ida Peebles, Agnes Peebles, Isabelle Adams, Irene Wallace and Mary Seth, a visitor.

SOCIETY MEETS

The Women's Missionary society the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Nora Heckathorne on Thursday, for an all-day quilting. During the afternoon a short program was rendered with Mrs. Clyde McCommons. There were quite a few in attendance.

Talk, "Treatment of Negroes," Mrs. Edith Gardner; report on year's work, Mrs. Ella Montgomery; treasurer's report, Mrs. Mary Winder.

PLAINGROVE PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peebles and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offutt were in attendance at the Fruit Growers banquet at the Shenango U. P. church on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvi Stevenson were Sunday guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Crubbs of Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barrons of North Liberty, and Miss Tillie Maxwell of Bellefontaine, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong and family.

Mrs. Jennie Offutt and daughter Belle of New Castle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offutt Wednesday.

Mrs. Mildred Geiger, who has been in the hospital in Pittsburgh, seems to be slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, parents of Mrs. Fulton, have returned to their home in Dunkirk, New York, having spent three weeks in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Minor and children of New Castle, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Minor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Humphrey of Mercer, spent the week-end with the latter's parents.

Miss Margaret Mino, of Princeton, spent the week-end with her brother, T. S. Minor and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCleary and daughter, of New Castle, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Miles and Mrs. L. A. Pollock and Fred Glenn motored to East Liverpool Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Miles.

BACON BATS

"Bacon bats" can be enjoyed by the whole family during the winter months on mild days. With plenty of bacon and eggs to be cooked over the camp fire, buttered rolls, a hot beverage and substantial dessert, a very satisfying meal results. The dessert can be apple pie, fruit pudding, gingerbread or any other food favorite which can be easily eaten.

ALARM OVER BALKANS

Havana Strike To Force Cuban President Out Spreads Rapidly

Havana Facing Grave Situation As Strike Spreads

Only Two Government Departments Are Functioning Today

MOVE IS AIMED AT PRESIDENT

Seek To Force Carlos Mendieta Out Of Office In Republic

By RICHARD ARMSTRONG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HAVANA, Mar. 8.—Only two government departments were functioning, the city's health was imperilled, and transportation was paralyzed today as the strike aimed to force President Carlos Mendieta out of office rapidly spread.

Troops were called out to help skeleton crews man the aqueducts when a walkout threatened the city water supply. Doctors, nurses and internes in six public hospitals struck, leaving only skeleton staffs to handle emergency cases in a time of crisis.

Strike Spreads.

Employes of the departments of education, labor, justice, communications, agriculture and commerce struck yesterday, and today the strikers were joined by personnel of the state and sanitation departments. Only the departments of the interior and defense were still operating.

Naval forces manned the telegraph system after striking post office workers damaged the lines. City hall employes staged a noisy demonstration when they walked out, and later police found two unexploded bombs in the doorway.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Pa Newc just learned today that three North Hill boys, Sam Henry, Chuck Maloney and Bob Wilkinson, all of the Garfield avenue district, took their first swim of the season on Tuesday evening in Neshannock creek. The same group was in swimming about the same time last year, when there was still ice in the stream and report that the water was a little warmer this year.

* * *

New pedestal lights at the Washington and Jefferson street entrances to the new federal building on the public square, were burning last night for the first time. They add much to the night appearance of the new structure.

* * *

Maple Sugar season is arriving in our midst. "Sugar" camps in the district are being opened, as the sap starts running for the spring. While the number of sugar camps in this immediate district is smaller than years ago, there are still some of these interesting sites still in existence, and activity is getting under way for the season.

* * *

Students who travel in school buses every day have, in some instances, made a peck of fun out of it. Pa Newc heard one crowd of young students, in a bus, singing so lustily that pedestrians stopped in their tracks a block away, to watch the approach of the chorus.

* * *

Another old residential structure of the city is being razed to make way for a business establishment. This is the old brick house at the corner of South Jefferson and Lawrence streets. The site will be occupied in the near future by a gasoline filling station.

Vandals Attempt Theft Of Gettysburg Cannon

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—Police today sought vandals who attempted to remove a 1600-pound cannon from the Gettysburg battlefield but were foiled when the 500-pound gun carriage broke. Eighteen of the 20 shells piled near the gun were taken but two were later found nearby.

The gun was one of the four Wentworth cannon loaned the Confederate forces by England. Wentworth cannon, the most advanced known at the time, had a range of four miles and fired 50-pound shells. The guns stand at Oak Ridge, held by the Confederate forces in a three-day battle in July, 1863.

SHANK IS EXECUTED AT LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

(International News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Mar. 8.—Mark Shank, picnic poisoner of four members of the Alvin Colley family, died in the electric chair at Tucker prison farm today.

Mrs. Geraldine Shank, the convicted man's wife, was unable to be present when her husband went to his death. Governor Futrell had promised to hold up the execution until she could reach Arkansas, if she desired, to visit the condemned man once more, but she refused when the governor said he would offer no hope of executive clemency.

Shank, who was 43 years old and a lawyer from Akron, Ohio, poisoned Colley, his wife and two sons at a picnic on August 15, 1933.

Kent, O., Mar. 8.—Unable to go to her husband to spend the last hours before death with him, Mrs. Geraldine Shank collapsed here today when informed that Mark Shank had been executed for the "poison picnic" murders of the Alvin Colley family in Arkansas.

Literary And Music Contest Being Planned

Preliminary Contest Will Have To Be Held In Some Events For County Contest

PLANS MADE FOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

Arrangements for the county music and literary contest, which will take place at Westminster College, March 30, are beginning to shape up well, County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling stated today.

Report of the arrangements for the event was given by President Glen Johnson, of the county principal's association, at the meeting of the association Wednesday evening, and disclosed the fact that there were so many entries in some of the events that a preliminary contest will have to be held to dispose of some of the entries in advance of the county meeting.

Entries for the events are being made through Mr. Johnson, but the arrangements for holding the affair, are in the hands of Westminster College, which is sponsoring the event.

Arrangements were made to conduct a baseball league among the county high schools this spring, and a committee headed by Principal Roy F. Conway, of the Union township schools, was named to adopt a schedule and set the opening date for the league.

Labor Racketeers Will Be Probed

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Appointment of a presidential committee to investigate "Labor Racketeers" and "Espionage by Employers" was advocated today by Francis Biddle, chairman of the National Labor Relations board.

Biddle pointed out that the report of the NRA bureau of research and planning contained charges of wholesale espionage by automobile manufacturers in its study of the auto industry.

He referred also to the many charges of labor racketeering that have been made in Chicago, New York and other large communities.

Winter Attempts Short Comeback

Four Inches Of Snow In Bradford Area Reported Today

HIGHWAYS ARE AGAIN RATHER TREACHEROUS

(International News Service)

Old Man Winter, tired and weary from a week of brilliant sunshine and warm temperatures, engaged today in another battle with spring in Pennsylvania.

Aware that he has passed his peak and his days are numbered, the old man from the chilly north was aided in his battle by rain which turned to sleet and snow. His icy breath sent mercury tumbling in all sections of the state.

Freezing temperatures prevailed in the so-called "ice box" areas.

Mantle Of Snow

A four-inch mantle of snow covered the Bradford district while lesser falls were reported from other points in the northwestern region. Light flurries were general throughout the state.

Because of the icy condition of highways, travel was extremely hazardous.

Fair and slightly colder tonight with increasing cloudiness and rising temperatures were forecast.

Richberg Hits Court Ruling

Declares "Some Federal Judges Need Education In Economics"

ASKS EXTENSION OF NRA TWO YEARS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Striking back at federal court rulings against NRA, Donald Richberg, NRA coordinator, today declared "some federal judges need an education in economics."

Testifying before the senate finance committee conducting an investigation into the NRA, Richberg said that in some instances federal judges have "completely disregarded the facts."

"In some decisions there has been a complete disregard of the facts on the part of some federal judges," said Richberg.

"That is what I mean when I say that we need an education of the bench in modern economic conditions."

Would Extend NRA.

Reiterating his argument that NRA should be extended for two years, Richberg recommended that congress investigate the entire economic system to determine the line between interstate and intrastate commerce in relation to code labor provisions. Yesterday he said the revamped NRA should provide codes only for industries engaged in or substantially affecting interstate commerce.

He cited in particular operation of the cleaning and dyeing industry in New Jersey, and declared NRA has never been able to bring it under its jurisdiction.

He said the industry has been a "stench in the nostrils" of the country and that it involves not only industrial competition but "industrial warfare, racketeering, bombing and every vile industrial practice known."

Long Attacks Administration

Reply To Johnson Is Blast At Program Of Democratic Leaders

JOHNSON WAITS TIME TO REPLY

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Senator Huey P. Long admitted today he was "greatly pleased" with his blistering attack on President Roosevelt's new deal made over the radio late last night in answer to Brig. Gen. S. Johnson's condemnation of him and Rev. Charles E. Coughlin.

Johnson accused Long and Detroit's "radio priest" with preaching revolutionary policies that would lead the country to ruin and charged they were working together.

Attacks Administration

Instead of lashing out at the former recovery administrator Long concentrated his attack on the administration and exclaimed the new deal "is more like the St. Vitus dance."

"God save us from two more years of the disaster we've had under that gang," Long shouted.

Long accused the White House of ordering Johnson to attack him and while he stood in front of the microphone delivering his oral attack he was surrounded by two bodyguards and 50 spectators, about 25 of whom studio officials said were "Long's friends."

He referred to Johnson as "the late lamented, the pampered ex-crown prince . . . loaned by Wall Street to run the government." He also mentiioned Mrs. Roosevelt as being among those who are running the government.

Have Had Their Way

The Louisiana "Kingfish" claimed starvation, homelessness and misery still remain.

Four Doomed To Death In April

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar .8.—With Bennett LeHodges convicted Philadelphia killer, sentenced to die April 15, Pennsylvania today had four murderers slated for electrocution next month. Gov. George H. Earle set the execution date for LeHodges yesterday.

Of the other three, also from Philadelphia, one was scheduled for death April 1 and the other two April 8.

Rural Teachers Have High Rating

Report Of State Department Of Education Shows Standard Here Among Highest

ONLY FIVE UNDER STATE STANDARD

Lawrence County teachers rank among the highest in the state of Pennsylvania, County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling has been informed by Henry Klowner, of the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

A total of 98.1 per cent of the teachers of the county have had two years or more of preparation for teaching, and of this number, who do not meet the standard requirements, all but two will complete advanced work which will bring them up to the standard required by the state.

In addition, Mr. Klowner states, it has been found that 32.8 per cent of the teachers in the county schools are graduates of accedited colleges.

In 1918, Lawrence County was among the lowest in the state in their teacher rating, but has now advanced to the very top.

Italians Send Three Warships

Ships Sent As Protective Measures To Grecian Waters Result Of Revolt

(International News Service)

ROME, Mar. 8.—The third great action to take protective measures in view of the civil war ranging in Greece, Italy today dispatched three warships to Grecian waters to guard Italian interests in the Aegean.

Premier Mussolini sent one cruiser and two destroyers to the scene of action. Great Britain and France previously had dispatched warships to Greek waters.

DEADLINE IS SET

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—April 1 today was set as the deadline for filing applications by Pennsylvania farmers for corn-hog reduction contracts under the AAA program for 1935. The corn-hog state board urged farmers who intend to join the program not to delay filing applications.

'Pink Slip' Defenders Missing In Local Crowd Awaiting Aid On Returns

Like in other parts of the country, many an income tax return writer in New Castle and Lawrence county thinks that now-famed "pink slip" which each and every 1935 return must carry with it is a "nuisance" and an "injustice."

A reporter mingled among a crowd of return filers at the Federal building this week and found out for himself that this plan to make public the returns isn't so popular.

"What if a man makes a million?" one young fellow asked. "I admire him for it and, besides, it's not my business!"

As he spoke, another man, somewhat older, grumbled: "It's a gross injustice."

The clause in the income tax law states that if the "pink slip" isn't filed the government will make it out for you at the cost of $5.

Not a word was voiced in defense of the publicity provision of the law and, if anyone was for it, they didn't speak. One could readily tell it was an "anti-pink slip" crowd.

Commencing Saturday morning, the income tax office, Rooms 207 and 209, will be open for any local resident to seek advice.

Walter H. Patterson, internal revenue agent representing the U. S. Treasury department, will assist Paul B. McCandless, deputy collector for the county, in handling the visitors. They will be at the office from Saturday through until next Friday evening, March 15, the deadline for filing returns.

The hours of 9 to 4 will be observed daily until Thursday and Friday. On Thursday the office will remain open until 9 p. m. and on Friday night, the last night, until midnight.

Governor Demands Speed On Tax Bills

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Pressed by Gov. George H. Earle for greater speed on his $203,000,000 tax program, administration legislative leaders today prepared to release several major revenue items from the cloister of the house ways and means committee and hasten their passage through the assembly next week.

Encouraged by the comparative ease with which his "chain store" tax bill passed the house finally on Wednesday night, the governor summoned Democratic members of the house ways and means committee into conference and laid down a vigorous demand that the tax bills be released from committee and prepared for passage.

Program Approved

After the two-hour conference the governor's secretary, Harry Kalodner, issued a statement announcing the Democratic legislators had given blanket endorsement to the administration tax program and that action would be speeded in the legislature when it reconvenes next Monday night.

"The meeting was entirely harmonious," Kalodner said, in answer to reports that several members of the committee were opposed to some of the administration measures. "There was no opposition to any part of the program," he added.

The governor was understood to have emphasized the precarious position of the state's treasury and

Justice Holmes Is Laid To Rest

Ceremonies This Afternoon In Drizzling Rain At Arlington Cemetery

PRESIDENT HEADS HOST OF MOURNERS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—Escorted by the president of his country, Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes was buried this afternoon in Arlington to sleep not far from the resting place of another president and jurist, William Howard Taft.

The greatest liberal of them all found, in the end, a soldiers' grave. It was as he wished it. It was his wish, too, that he rest finally beside the body of his wife, with whom he used to say he had had a 47-year honeymoon before she preceded him in death a few years ago. That, too, was fulfilled. Today was his 94th birthday.

Mayor McNair Battles "Ripper"

Goes To Washington To Take Matter Up With President Roosevelt

DEFIES ALLEGHENY COUNTY LEADERS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—Temporarily discarding his threats to resign, Mayor William N. McNair was in Washington today battling against the "ripper" bill that would oust him from office.

After delivering an address here last night in which he defied two Allegheny county political leaders, James J. Coyne, Republican, and David L. Lawrence, Democrat, McNair planned to go to President Roosevelt on the matter of the "ripper" through Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior.

"If it's a party matter and if Roosevelt wants to run the rackets here just to help the Democratic campaign fund, then I think I will quit," McNair said.

In his address, the mayor charged that "politicians" were planning to open gambling halls in the city, and said they were mistaken if they thought they could do it.

"I'm not going to promise Jimmy Coyne a scrub woman to hold my job," he continued. "I promised nothing to get into office and I won't promise anything to stay in."

Questioned about his resignation, McNair asserted that "I was going to resign until one of the councilmen told me council wouldn't accept my resignation." He further pointed out that, in his opinion, the "ripper" was not legal.

German Operatic Singer Held On Technical Charge

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—Madame Elisabeth Rethberg, object of a $250,000 alienation suit by Signora Augusta Pinza, who says the noted German diva stole the love of her husband, Ezio Pinza, was in seclusion today, following her technical arrest yesterday on a warrant issued by Supreme Court Justice John E. McGeehan.

Judge McGeehan issued a warrant of civil arrest against the singer on the complaint of Signora Pinza, who alleged her husband and Mme. Rethberg had booked passage for England a month hence.

Apparently unperturbed by the day's events, the singer gave a scheduled recital at Carnegie hall last night.

Followers of the opera today predicted trial of the suit will bring to court, as witnesses, a veritable "who's-who" of the operatic world.

SMOKE SCARE IS CAUSE OF ALARM

Firemen from Central and No. 6 departments were called to 611 Sampson street, at 10:55 last evening. On arriving, they found that smoke was seeping from the firebox of the hot air furnace and filled the home. There was no damage.

LEAGUE DESIRES TO AVOID ACTION

Bulgarian Complaint Against Turkey To Be Given For "Information Only"

(International News Service)

GENEVA, Mar. 8.—Torn by civil war at home, Greece today prepared to lay before the League of Nations her fears of foreign intervention.

With Turkey and Bulgaria already looking with suspicion upon their mutual troop concentrations on their Greek frontiers, Raphael Raphael, Greek representative on the league, arranged to call upon Secretary General Joseph Avenol, to direct his attention to the danger of Bulgarian troop increases on her border.

League officials took a grave view of the situation, dreading that the political and national repercussions of the Greek rebellion might cause another flare-up in the Balkans.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Mar. 8.—It's the usual custom for a writer or speaker to tell how much better England or France or Zuzuland have handled their money than the United States.

Well, in today's paper France is prohibiting the shipment of gold out of their country and still they say they are not going off the gold—no, but they are not letting the gold go off them either. Then last week England had to put up millions of pounds to stabilize their money.

So I guess over there they are pointing to the excellent way our system is working. Your own country always looks like they are the only one doing the wrong thing.

This thing called money has got the whole mess of 'em buffaloed. Money, horse racing and women are three things the boys just can't figure out.

Yours,

Will Rogers.

I guess I'm just a sucker for a friendly sort of smile. I fall without much trouble. I get taken in by guile and honeyed words and things like that, although they always bring the kind of treatment we have now from what we thought was spring. The skies were blue the sun was warm, the breezes full of balm, and all around was quietude and early springlike calm. When suddenly the winter broke and socked us two or three. Ah me, this spring is whimsical, the weather's thirty-three.

HEIRESS' DEATH TO REMAIN MYSTERY

Pinehurst Goes Back To Normal

Coroner's Jury Says Mrs. Davidson's Death Due To Unknown Circumstances

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING CAUSE

(International News Service)

PINEHURST, N. C., Mar. 8.—After a week of torrid excitement in which the strange death of Elva Statler Davidson was practically the only topic of conversation, the millionaire residents of this pretty resort village turned back to their golf and tennis today convinced that the death of 22-year-old hotel heiress would forever remain a mystery.

Unable to determine how Mrs. Davidson reached the unusual position in which she was found—her knees on the running board of her car in a garage, the rest of her body on the floorboard, her head lying on her right arm—the coroner's jury decided she came to her death by carbon monoxide poisoning, under circumstances unknown.

This verdict does not close the matter. Sheriff Charles McDonald said after the verdict that he had no comment to make, "but the case was still open for investigation."

GREECE TO LAY CLAIMS BEFORE NATIONS LEAGUE

cline towards maintaining the government of Premier Tsaldaris in power.

It is significant, league authorities pointed out, that the Greek rebel leader, former Premier Venizelos, is opposed to the Balkan pact, of which Bulgaria is not a partisan, while Turkey and Greece, as members, are pledged to maintain the existing territorial order.

Turkey today was on record with confirmation that she had sent troops to the Bulgarian frontier to "maintain the status quo in the Balkans."

Expressing surprise at Bulgaria's charge that Turkey had concentrated six divisions in European Turkey, Cemal Hasnu, Turkish delegate to the League of Nations, countered by accusing Bulgaria of taking military measures along her Grecian frontier.

Rebels Battle.

Athens, Mar. 8.—Rebel infantry fought bitterly today in spite of zero weather to push a path through the government lines on the Thracian front and regain Salonika, now regarded as the key to the rebellion, according to dispatches received here.

While the government insisted that only the weather prevented an immediate movement that would annihilate the rebels, other reports indicated that the loyal troops had suffered one or two reverses.

It was confirmed officially today rebel warships had occupied three Aegean islands, thus placing the forces of former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos in control of Crete, and Samos, Chios and Lesbos, off the coast of Asiatic Turkey.

Venizelos was reported ready to proclaim an independent republic on Crete if the rest of the revolt collapsed.

A British warship and one of three French ships have arrived at Phaleron to protect their nationals.

Bulgarian Complaint.

Geneva, Mar. 8.—Bulgarian complaints of Turkish troop concentration along her border will be transmitted to the council of the League of Nations "for information only", it was agreed today by Joseph Avenol, league secretary-general, and M. Antonoff, Bulgarian delegate.

Making every effort to avoid bringing the question before the council for action, the Bulgarian delegate will meet Cemal Husnu, Turkish minister, informally tomorrow in an attempt to reach a direct agreement.

Seize Turkish Ship.

London, Mar. 8.—The rebellious crew of the Greek armored Cruiser Averoff, flagship of the insurgent forces in the Greek civil war, today seized the Turkish steamer Konya in the harbor of Mytilene, island of Lesbos, it was stated in a Central News dispatch from Istanbul.

The seizure was made in reprisal for Turkey's recent action in holding two Greek vessels suspected of conveying stores to the rebel warships.

binders?" the speaker asked. "They think that Huey Long is the cause of all their worry. They go gunning for me.

"And now what is there for the Roosevelt crowd to do but to admit the facts and admit further that they are now on their third year, making matters worse instead of better all the time. No one is to blame except them for what is going on because they have had their way.

"And if they couldn't change the thing in two years, now bogged down worse than ever, how could anyone expect any good of them hereafter."

Johnson Waits Time

Providence, R. I., Mar. 8.—General Johnson, outspoken defender of President Roosevelt and the new deal, declined to comment on Senator Long's speech in Washington until "I've had a chance to think it over."

He was on his way to New York today after having addressed more than 500 members of the Rhode Island Bar Association on legal aspects of the NRA.

General Johnson said:

"I promise not to drag into this peaceful place any dead cats, ants-in-pants or other tribal totems of recent turmoil . . . although I can't forego the observation that Huey seems to have appropriated my ants to scatter about in senate seats. He says, with great elegance of diction, that they keep one scratching.

"It recalls the Duke of Argyll who, according to an old Irish forebear of mine, erected 'scratching posts' all over Erin . . . with no other compensation than that, as each man rubbed the small of his back against one, he should cry: 'God bless the Duke of Argyll.' That occurred during a plague of lice and, from all accounts, we may yet yearn for a new Duke of Argyll in our own day and generation."

night, and busmen followed. Further tie-up in transportation was feared when it was reported that the railway brotherhoods favored joining the strike.

Newspaper mechanical workers struck early in the morning as a protest against government censorship, which has closed all but two papers. Declaring that a national emergency existed, the cabinet met and decided to remain in a "permanent" session until the crisis was ended.

A statement branded the strike as "ultra-communistic," declaring that it was a "leftis blow against the Republican form of government," and urging all those unsympathetic towards the strike to protect their rights by calling on the government for protection.

Bitterness was increased with the government's re-emphasis that all strikers would be dismissed and replaced by local government workers.

Council Would Aid Steel Plant Move Of Workers

Would Act To Exonerate Taxes For 5 Years If Plant Is Placed In Operation

Upon motion of Councilman D. O. Davies during a formal session of council today at the city building, colleagues adopted the recommendation of steel workers whereby the Carnegie Steel company will be exonerated of their tax assessment for five years providing they start the steel mill or employ the money to make improvements which would cause employment, if such a move can be made legally.

Under the plan as contained in a petition presented by Richard L. Lewis, David Phillips, James Cooper, Hugh Hannon, M. W. Leckfor, George Matthews and Alfred Kissinger the assessment would again become effective in the sixth year when 10 per cent would be paid each year and at the end of the fifteenth year, the entire assessment would again be in force.

According to the spokesmen, Lewis, Hanna, Kissinger, and Attorney J. Elder Bryan, the councilmanic action would prove a friendly gesture toward the company and if an appropriation for the local plant was asked by officials from the board of directors April 1, the directors would know for a certainty that the city council was behind the steel workers in efforts to have the Carnegie mill operate. About 75 steel mill workers attended the meeting. The city assessment of the steel company property for 1935, was given as $2,409,330 and the county assessment as $1,246,430.

explained that prompt action was necessary to supply funds for unemployment relief. Also present at the conference were David L. Lawrence, secretary of the commonwealth and state democratic chairman; Dr. Luther A. Karr, secretary of banking; Guy J. Swope, director of the budget; Ralph M. Bashore, secretary of forests and waters, and Dr. Clyde L. King, fiscal adviser to the governor.

Eroe On Committee

A subcommittee comprised of Reps. William J. Eroe, Lawrence; Samuel P. Stevens, Westmoreland, and Roy Furman, acting chairman of ways and means, was appointed to give further study to the severance tax bill levying an impost on all natural resources except coal removed from the ground. It was believed the subcommittee will revise the bill after study.

As a result of the conference, bills increasing the tax on gasoline and taxing amusements and tobacco as well as several of the bills taxing manufacturers and utilities were expected to emerge from the ways and means committee Monday night for action on the floor of the house.

The governor was reported preparing for another Monday night appearance before senate and house to urge immediate enactment of his graduated income tax for schools to permit it to be tested in the courts.

Administration decision to sponsor an income tax now came unexpectedly and was viewed as a concession by Governor Earle that his plans for obtaining a new constitution this year may be delayed.

The senate committee handling the Ruth Administration Constitutional Revision bill finished public hearings on the measure and was to meet Monday to act on reporting a revised bill to the floor. Indications are the senate revision bill will delay a new constitution at least until June, 1936.

The services, as Justice Holmes also had wished, were simple.

Shortly before noon the casket was removed from the old red brick house in I street where it had rested since Wednesday to All Soul's Unitarian church. Every seat was taken. Up front sat Edward Holmes, a nephew, and the closest relative, and Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. Hughes and the eight associate justices sat in seats reserved for the honorary pallbearers.

Dr. Ylysses G. B. Pierce, the pastor, read Joseph Blanco White's poem, "Mysterious Night," one of Holmes' favorite poems, then some of the jurist's own quotations. No euglogy was delivered. The Unitarian funeral service was read and the organist played a selection from "The New World Symphony."

Passers-by stopped and watched as the procession proceeded to Arlington. Soldiers from Fort Myer were awaiting at the gates and took charge of the burial rites. As the coffin was removed from the hearse to a gun caisson the army band played patriotic airs from the "American Medley Grand March." Then the nine justices started their march beside the caisson to the grave.

Strains of martial music again rent the chill air as the body was removed from the caisson and lowered in the grave. Dr. Pierce offered a brief prayer and the benediction. Eight riflemen stepped forward and fired three volleys in the air. This was followed by the sounding of taps by a bugler—the army's farewell salute to a soldier.

Empty Purse Helps

Mrs. Catherine McMahon and her cat.

"Many times I've started to write about my work, but I never got beyond the title, 'What an Empty Purse Can Do'," says Mrs. Catherine McMahon, of Melbourne Beach, Fla., and Ithaca, N. Y. After the World war Mrs. McMahon started making tiny change purses and selling them to her friends to aid the work in the Near East. So well did they sell that she soon was able to buy a machine to punch the leather for lacing, and larger and larger checks rolled in to the relief fund. Then cataracts formed on Mrs. McMahon's eyes, and she gave up working in leather and started knitting gay scarfs which she also sold or gave for charity. She is 81, and the widow of Prof. James McMahon, 38 years professor of mathematics at Cornell university.

Represents State At Labor Meeting

Miss Gertrude Ely Will Attend Meeting To Ratify Compact On Hours Of Labor

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Miss Gertrude Ely, Bryn Mawr, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the state senate last year, today was named by Secretary of Labor and Industry Edward N. Jones, to represent Pennsylvania at a meeting of the commission on interstate compacts to be held in Boston, Mass., tomorrow.

Representatives of nine states are expected to ratify a compact on hours of labor. Similar legislation will be placed before legislatures in all nine states in an effort to obtain uniform laws. States represented are Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Vermont and Pennsylvania.

Wealthy Woman Leaves Estate To Her Servants

Chauffeur, Cook And "Upstairs Girl" Are Sole Owners Of Big Estate

(International News Service)

NEWTON, Mass., Mar. 8.—A chauffeur and his wife, a cook and an "upstairs girl" today were master and mistresses of an estate in which until a week ago they were servants.

The will of their late employer, Mrs. Jessie A. Goddard, 80, left them the stately mansion to do with as they saw fit.

Heirs to the estate were William Wilson, for 25 years Mrs. Goddard's chauffeur; his wife, Annie; Miss Margaret Macauley, cook, and Miss Jane Douglass, maid.

Wilson was bequeathed the property in trust with the provision that any income from it, or the proceeds if it should be sold, be shared by the others.

Boy King Will Be Allowed To Finish School

(International News Service)

SINGAPORE, Mar. 8.—A school desk before a throne for 11-year-old King Ananda of Siam, his regency council has decided.

A dispatch from Bangkok today indicated that the regents would permit the boy, who was proclaimed king yesterday, to remain in Switzerland to complete his education before taking up his kingly duties.

Smuggling Now Shows Increase

Liquor Smuggling Has Reached Alarming Proportion, Says Official

REPEAL FAILED TO HALT BOOZE EVIL

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Asserting that liquor smuggling has reached "alarming proportions" Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today urged the House Ways and Means committee to approve drastic anti-smuggling legislation.

Morgenthau estimated that more than 2,250,000 gallons of alcohol are being smuggled into this country at a cost in taxes and customs duties of $30,190,933 annually.

The treasury bill would permit searching of rum boats on the high seas, beyond that 12 mile limit, subject to foreign treaties and authorizes the president to extend the customs area and provide drastic punishment for owners of rum smuggling as well as members of the crews.

"Prior to prohibition this country was not troubled much with smuggling," said Morgenthau. "During the fourteen years of prohibition the business of smuggling liquor into the United States from all parts of the world developed to very serious and troublesome proportions.

"It was generally expected that with the repeal of prohibition liquor smuggling operations and fraud on our revenue would be materially reduced.

"For a time after repeal, such proved to be the case, but commencing with the spring of 1934, liquor smugglers again appeared along our coast, and their operations have now increased to alarming proportions."

NYE DEFENDS FR. COUGHLIN

Senator Nye Urges Foes Of "Radio Priest" To Debate Merits Of Banking Scheme

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Challenging the banking interests of the nation to seriously debate the need for a new banking system, Senator Gerald D. Nye (R) North Dakota today defended Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit radio priest, in the Senate.

Nye urged Coughlin's foes to stop denouncing him as a "dangerous demagogue" and enter upon a debate with him on the merits of his proposed banking reforms.

Without mentioning General Hugh S. Johnson by name, Nye made a brief reference to his attack on the Detroit radio priest. He said such critics of Coughlin as Johnson hoped to silence his demand for banking reforms.

Nye also defended his bill, proposing a new Bank of the United States, which would take control of all money and credit.

He said Father Coughlin had helped to draft this measure.

Nye criticized the first monetary system and charged the Federal Reserve system had collapsed.

HOUSING PERMITS IN STATE INCREASE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Although the number of new one family dwellings under construction increased, the value of building permits issued during January dropped off 12 per cent from the January figures for 1934, the Department of Labor and Industry announced today.

A total of 900 permits were issued in January, 1935, for construction to cost $956,272. Of this, 21.2 per cent, or $202,500, was for dwellings, as compared with only 4.8 per cent a year ago.

Matthew Arnold, the famous English essayist, poet and critic, was the son of the famous scholar, Dr. Thomas Arnold and referred to himself as "papa's continuator."

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Sara Anne Griffith

William Phillips of 3 East Reynolds street, on Thursday received a message from Swansea, South Wales, telling him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Sara Anne Griffith, aged 73 years.

Mrs. Griffith leaves four sons, one daughter, two sisters, all of South Wales, and one brother, Mr. Phillips, of New Castle.

Lewis Krucuk.

Lewis Krucuk, aged 47 years, who had resided at the Lawrence county home, died in the New Castle hospital at 12:10 p. m. Thursday.

He was a widower and had no relatives. Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p. m. today at the Kelley funeral home and interment was made in the county home plot.

Mrs. F. H. Louden.

Mrs. Eleanor Kelso Louden, aged 52 years, the wife of F. H. Louden of the Youngstown road, Union township, died at 8:30 o'clock this morning, after an illness of one month following a stroke.

Mrs. Louden was born in Missouri on January 7, 1883, the daughter of Edward Kincaid and Sarah Patton. For practically all her lifetime she resided in the New Castle locality and had a large number of friends to whom her death comes as a great sorrow.

She was a member of the Christian church of Edenburg, the Order of the Eastern Star and the Rebeccas.

She leaves her husband, F. H. Louden, to whom she had been married for a year and seven months; one son by a former marriage, Alva Kelso; one-stepdaughter, Mrs. Thelma Robb, and two step-sons, Charles and William Louden.

The time of the funeral will be announced later.

Funeral of Infants.

Funeral services for the one-day-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClure of 723 East Long avenue, were conducted on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

The infants, who died Wednesday night, are survived by their parents, one little brother, Bobby, and one sister, Donna May.

Roy E. J. Kennedy.

Roy E. J. Kennedy, aged about 36 years, a former New Castle resident who had resided at Coraopolis for some time, died at 7 o'clock this morning in a Pittsburgh hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Kennedy was born in Lawrence county, the son of Roy E. and Mary Amama Kennedy, both deceased. He was single, leaves one sister and one brother, Mrs. Mary E. Kinney and Eugene Kennedy, both of New Castle. He had been away from New Castle for about 10 years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the place to be announced in Saturday's paper, and interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery, this city.

BUTLER MAN IS GIVEN PATENT

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 8.—George E. Howard of Butler has just been awarded the patent rights on an invention of his own design, the United States Patent office reports.

Mr. Howard has been granted the patent on a novel method of an apparatus for forming hollow glassware. He has assigned commercial rights on the invention to the Hartford-Empire Company of Hartford, Conn. He has been allowed protection on six unique features of the invention.

The Butler inventor was forced to wait more than three years for recognition from the government after he filed application for the patent November 19, 1931.

Member Of Noted Club Found Dead

Howard S. Bott, 73, Found Dead In Philadelphia, Member Of "Last Man's Club"

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—The Omega, oldest of the "Last Man's Clubs" in this country, was reduced to four members today with the death of Howard S. Bott, 73, proprietor of a Center City pad shop.

Bott's body was found today by police who broke into his bedroom above his shop. Beside his bed lay a diary in which the aged man had briefly but vividly recorded his reactions to his illness. Physicians attributed his death to natural causes, and said he had been dead since Wednesday.

Death Came Slowly

On Monday, Bott wrote, "I'm not feeling well."

Tuesday, he recorded, "My hands are becoming paralyzed."

Wednesday, his last notation said: "My eyes are failing."

Police were summoned to Bott's establishment this morning by his wife and son, who came here from their home in Beverly, N. J., after Bott's sister had informed them her brother's establishment had not been opened this week.

The Omega club was organized 50 years ago by ten men. They swore that nothing would separate them and each year since the founding of the group the members have met. The last man among them will drink a toast to his departed companions and will inherit the historical parchment on which the club's covenant is written.

MARTHA WASHINGTON TEA PARTY AT LODGE

A large number of members and friends was present and after the regular lodge session, there was a program and cards were in play at 15 tables. Mrs. E. B. Ray planned the affair and she was assisted by several other members including Mrs. Eliza Houston, general chairman, Mrs. Chauncey Davis, table chairman, Mrs. Agnes Watson, Mrs. Christina Kinnon, Mrs. Leishman, lunch. Decorations were developed through the use of alternating pink and green candles on the tables, the effect being decidedly pretty.

The following program was carried out: Solo, "Night and Day" Andy Mazur; tap dance, Augustine Leone; solo, "Riptide", Herbert Stockman; reading, Lillian Dietterlee; toe dance, Gloria Picato; reading, Leta Mae McConnell; harmonica and guitar number, Ernest Black and Carmine Ritchie; acrobatic dance, Shirley Hammond; Hill Billy singers, Ritchie Brothers; original reading, Albert Kissinger; fan dance, Ilene Murphy.

Clearing the tables, the assembly played bingo until a late hour under the direction of Mrs. Grace Warwick, and was served tasty refreshments.

JEWISH JUNIOR COUNCIL SOCIAL

A large attendance marked the movie-dance held in Temple Israel Thursday evening, by members of the Jewish Junior Council, a yearly event.

A program of music and dancing featured the hours from 10 o'clock on, and the serving of refreshments, brought this successful occasion to a close. Miss Julia Levy was chairman of the committee in charge.

Special guests present, included Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shoenberger.

Cal-Pa Club

Mrs. Mary Beck, of North Mercer street, proved a charming hostess to nine members of the Cal-Pa Club on Wednesday. At noon, the guests gathered around a prettily decorated table, with spring flowers as a centerpiece, where a bountiful menu was served.

The afternoon was spent with quilting and Mrs. Harry Barnes won the prize in the usual drawing. Mrs. George Zintz, of Wallace Ave., will be hostess March 27.

FIELD CLUB EVENING PARTY WELL ATTENDED

A good attendance was noted at the New Castle Field Club Thursday evening, when members assembled to participate in another of their bi-weekly bridge parties, planned for their entertainment throughout the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Allen president as hosts, and the occasion proved most enjoyable.

At the close of the card contests, suitable prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. H. Gibson, Mrs. J. B. Waddington, and the men winning honors, included L. H. Pattersen and S. H. Rhoads.

The serving of an appetizing lunch, featured the mid-night hour.

In two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waddington will fill the role of hosts, at a party of the same nature beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

DESSERT-BRIDGE IN SPRING SETTING

Beautiful sprays of forced pussywillows which had been brought indoors in January, in combination with delicate freesia and yellow jonquils, lent a delightful spring-like setting to the scene of the North Hill club assembly Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Luella Brownlee on Hillcrest avenue.

The affair was a dessert-bridge, the guests being seated about the large table in the dining room where they were served a dainty refection by the hostess and her sister, Mrs. W. L. Campbell. Bridge featured afterwards.

On March 21, the club will be entertained by Mrs. David G. Harris of Garfield avenue.

MEDICAL AUXILIARY AT THE CASTLETON

The March meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Lawrence County Medical Society was of a social nature in the Castleton on Thursday evening.

After the business was concluded, bridge and anagrams were in play with favors in the former contest falling to Mrs. E. H. Willmarth and Mrs. Morris Davis. There were 21 guests present, the evening's entertainment being under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Henderson, chairman of the entertainment committee with Mrs. J. Lumen Popp in charge last night. A dainty refection was served.

Sin-Mar-Bridge

Members of the Sin-Mar-Bridge club will be entertained on March 21 at the home of Marian Teets, Highland avenue.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB STUDIES GREAT WOMEN

Junior Woman's club, meeting Thursday evening in the home of Miss Ingeborg Hallgren on Meyer avenue, continued the study of other great women which has been their general topic of late.

After the business session with Miss Ruth Sample in the chair, Miss Shirley Hollbrook had charge of the program when several interesting papers were given. "Cornelia" was discussed by Miss Helena Burckart and "Madame Curie" in a paper prepared by Mrs. William McCombs which was read by Miss Helen Lapish.

As March 21 is the date of the next regular meeting of the Junior club, it will join with the Senior Woman's club in presenting the style show at the New Castle Dry Goods Store. This committee will represent the Juniors that evening; Mrs. Ivan Holsinger, chairman, Misses Stella McVay, Agnes Webster, Ina Tucker, Marjorie Wettich and Ruth Sample.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF WALDO STREET COUPLE

In celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. David Daniel, highly respected citizens of the South Side, a large number of their friends and neighbors called at their Waldo street home at various times on the anniversary and extended personal congratulations to the couple.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Daniel, the celebration was a quiet one. Their friends, however, showered them with cards, flowers and presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel were born in South Wales, and there, in the city of Swansea, the knot was tied. They came to America over 40 years ago and after living in Canal Dover, Ellwood, Indiana, and Connellsville, they settled in New Castle where they have now resided for 35 years. Until a few years ago Mr. Daniel was employed in the New Castle Works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company.

They have one son, David J. Daniel, of North Liberty street, and two granddaughters.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FEATURES MEETING

Mrs. T. A. McCurdy of Fairmont avenue pleasingly received members of the Gramoda Kensington in her home Thursday afternoon, for a beautifully appointed 1 o'clock dinner, in honor of Mrs. Ava Snyder, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. It proved a complete surprise, and during the afternoon the guest of honor was presented with a shower of dainty handkerchiefs, in remembrance of those assembled.

The hostess combined the birthday motif with the St. Patrick note, in her appointments, making the setting most attractive.

Miss Jean Snyder was a special guest.

After partaking of the sumptuous menu, the guests enjoyed an informal period of chat, sewing and radio music.

On Friday, March 22, the club members will meet in the home of Mrs. M. L. Porter, corner of Highland and Wallace avenues, for a covered-dish dinner party.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF LAWRENCE CO. CLUB

Thursday's meeting of the Lawrence County Garden club in the Moody avenue residence of Mrs. S. D. Pearson, was a most enthusiastic one, being held amid a springtime setting of forced shrubs in charge of Mrs. C. S. Royce. The shrubs were beautiful and brought forceably to the attention of the gardeners the fact that spring is well on its way and it won't be long now, until everyone will be armed with garden tools for early planting.

Following a tasty buffet lunch, at 1 o'clock, the president, Mrs. C. A. Ingals, conducted the business session at which routine matters of interest were discussed. Mrs. E. W. Greiner had charge of the program, leading a Garden Clinic with various problems discussed and remedial measures outlined. Mrs. Howley spoke of ivy treatment; Mrs. Allan Urmson on rose culture; Mrs. Pearson on the control of aphis on nasturtiums and other flowers; Mrs. Feutchwanger on the most satisfactory ever-blooming rose, "New Dawn"; Mrs. Royce on narcissi bulbs; while suggestions of Mrs. Mechem on the care of peonies and suggestions of Mrs. Thacker on climbing roses, were outlined by the leader in the absence of these two members.

A question box was of further interest, with several other members contributing. Mrs. Charles Greer had a splendid paper on "Planting an Herb Garden" in which many new facts about these rare specimens of garden culture were brought out.

Of particular interest were plans for a garden show which will be held under the auspices of the Lawrence County club, at the Cathedral, June 13. Mrs. S. D. Pearson will be general chairman, Mrs. W. C. Eckenroad, vice chairman and the following committees will assist: Place, Mrs. Russell Urmson, Mrs. Allan Urmson, Mrs. B. H. Kannenberg, Mrs. C. S. Royce; tables, Mrs. C. A. Ingals, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Mrs. Harry Wettich, Mrs. A. P. Treser, Mrs. C. S. Royce, Mrs. S. E. Crawford, Mrs. C. A. Burckart, Mrs. Russel Allen.

Educational, Mrs. W. J. Howley, Mrs. Chas. Greer, Mrs. E. F. G. Harper, Mrs. B. K. Thacker; classification, Mrs. E. W. Greiner, Mrs. Allan Urmson, Mrs. S. E. Crawford, Mrs. W. C. Mechem; section cards, Mrs. B. H. Kannenberg, Mrs. E. W. Greiner; judges, Mrs. W. C. Eckenroad; schedule, Mrs. S. D. Pearson; staging, every member of Lawrence County Garden club; printing, Mrs. Russell Allen, Mrs. C. A. Burckart; publicity, commercial growers and florists, Mrs. M. Feutchwanger.

The meeting was well attended and one visitor was present, Mrs. J. A. Edgar, of The News. On April 4, County day will be observed with the East Side Garden club hostess.

McKINNEY CLASS HAS DINNER FOR FAMILIES

Any one of over 200 people will testify to the perfection of Thursday evening's dinner and entertainment given in the First Presbyterian church by the McKinney Bible class.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock to the Bible class members, their wives and their families, and from the first dish clear through the apple pie was "the top".

The entertainment was launched with two solos by George MacDonald, followed by a program of songs by the "Hill Billies of Rochester," a special importation for the occasion. The billies were introduced by A. A. Webb.

Party At Moyer Home.

Mrs. Herman Moyer entertained a gathering of relatives at an enjoyable March event, honoring her husband, Herman Moyer, at their home located near Gardner. The occasion was in celebration of his birthday anniversary.

A program of amusements featured cards forming the main diversion, and following, the hostess served a delicious oyster supper. She was assisted by Mrs. Harvey Moyer with the menu. The table was centered with a large birthday cake and other adornments were in keeping with the occasion.

Ki Nu Club.

A sauerkraut dinner Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Milo Calderwood on Winslow avenue was a distinct pleasure for the Ki Nu club. Covers were laid for 10 at a long table, attractive with St. Patrick's decorations and the hostess' daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Calderwood, assisted.

For bingo, which featured the later hours, Mrs. Lois Arrow and Mrs. Mary Kennedy won the awards. Plans were made for a dinner and theatre party downtown on the occasion of their next meeting April 11.

BOOKS AND PAPERS INTEREST CIRCLE '06

Late books were named in answer to roll call at the meeting of Reading circle '06 Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. G. D. Hildebrand on Court street.

After the business session, the program was taken up and a number of interesting papers were read. Mrs. E. C. Morrow spoke of "War Memories of Europe"; Mrs. J. C. Cavill of "Traditional Holidays." A humorous article entitled, "Pardon Me," was given by Mrs. J. H. Wilson. A general resume of the afternoon's highlights following, was of much interest.

The club will hold its next meeting in three weeks instead of the usual two, at the home of Mrs. W. R. McKnight on Adams street, April 4.

MOONLIGHT 500 CLUB HONORS BIRTHDAY

At the gathering of Moonlight 500 club members last evening in the home of Mrs. William Mitchell, Spruce street, Mrs. H. J. Reynolds was honored in a pleasing manner, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth. At the close of the card games, for which Mrs. J. R. Mears and Mrs. George Woodring were awarded prizes, the guest of honor was presented with a handsome gift by Mrs. H. J. Reynolds in behalf of the club.

Lunch was served at a table exquisitely decorated in St. Patrick's suggestions, every little detail being carried out to the N'th degree, in novel green and white tones. Even the menu was in keeping with the season, as well as the emerald dishes used. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Florence Mitchell, in serving.

Mrs. Harry Leathers of Sampson street will receive members on March 21 at her home.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY AT THE ELKS CLUB

Contract, auction, 500 and bingo contests offered a variety of delightful entertainment Thursday evening, to nearly sixty guests at the Elks' club party in the club house on North Mercer street.

Players were seated about 13 tables, while some just strolled around and had an informal time chatting. Mr. and Mrs. T. Earl Dukes were genial hosts, and after the games, refreshments were served in the dining room.

Winners of handsome prizes in bridge were: Mrs. Ann Baldwin, Mrs. Harry Ayersman, T. R. McComb, Earl Wallover: 500, Mrs. M. J. Scanlon, Mrs. L. E. Sweet, Samuel Ross, L. E. Sweet: bingo, Mrs. W. A. Haug, Ben Agnew, W. G. Baker, T. R. McComb, Mrs. V. V. Veach.

A similar party will take place at a later date which will be announced.

At First Baptist.

On Thursday afternoon the Women's Missionary society met in the First Baptist church and had the following program:

Mrs. Charles T. Metzler was the leader.

Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. George Stetson.

A play, Christian Americanization play, was directed by Mrs. David Nesbitt and presented by Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Frank Johnston, Mrs. Montgomery Rodgers, Miss Lila Strayer, Mrs. H. A. Sturdy, Miss Barbara Nesbitt and Mrs. W. C. McCalmont.

Mrs. Charles T. Metzler introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Josephine Sroczynska, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. International Institute, whose subject was "Immigration and Other Civic Problems".

Mrs. C. H. Heaton led the current events discussion.

Mrs. Jessie McCalmont, president of the society, was in charge of the business session, during which a report from the treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Elmore, was sumbitted. Mrs. Nesbitt gave the Christian Americanization report, Mrs. William Wilson gave the civics report. Mrs. N. L. Gardner gave the reading contest report and Mrs. Fred Howland the visiting report.

Prayer by Mrs. N. L. Gardner closed the meeting.

Philathea Society

Gathering in the Central Presbyterian church Thursday evening the Philathea Missionary Society spent a delightful period, with Mrs. E. R. Fry, Mrs. George Lyon and Mrs. T. C. Boston as the hostesses.

Mrs. C. B. Wingerd served as the leader and also conducted an impressive installation service. Miss Hannah Walker led the national topic and Mrs. J. L. Maxwell was in charge of the foreign topic. Miss Alice Sterling reviewed the last chapter of the mission study book.

The new president, Miss Blanche Bright, then took charge of the business session.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Fred Donaldson.

Ureys Conclude Trip

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Urey, of Laurel boulevard, returned Thursday from New York City, concluding a delightful cruise on the French line S. S. Lafayette. They visited the West Indies islands, cruising through the Caribbean Sea and stopping at South American ports.

The return trip was made by way of Panama City, and Havana and they had the pleasure of going through the Panama canal on a government ship. They crossed the Andes mountains through Venezuela to Caracas. Mr. and Mrs. Urey were away from the city for a period of three weeks.

Federation Board Meeting.

Plans for the county Federation meeting to be held March 19 at the Epworth M. E. church will comprise the major part of the business discussion for Fderation board members at their meeting called for Tuesday afternoon, March 12.

They will be received in the home of Mrs. David N. Keast, 302 East Wallace avenue, on the latter date.

Help Name The Champ Tonight

This is your chance to help name the harmonica champion of New Castle. Tonight in the Regent Theatre the champ of the harmonica players will be named by the audience and to the champ will go a cash prize. Also cash prizes to the runner-up and the four finishing below.

Tonight closes the three weeks' contest to find the harmonica champion staged by the management of the theatre. Beginning immediately registrations for old-time fiddlers will be received and starting next Friday night the eliminations for the champion old-time fiddler will take place.

But tonight is the final for the harmonica champion. Come down early, the competition starts at 8 o'clock, and by 9 we'll all know who he is.

Upstreamers Class

A spaghetti dinner Wednesday evening proved more than ordinarily enjoyable for the members of the Upstreamers class of the Epworth M. E. church.

The dinner was served at the home of Miss Nancy Lightner, County Line street, at 7:30 o'clock. The dining room was attractively arranged for the occasion and the table was centered by a birthday cake in honor of Mrs. Charles Caven's birthday anniversary.

Serving was done by the hostess, assisted by her mother. Games and chat followed.

The class will have its regular monthly meeting on March 14 at the home of Miss Marjorie Clark, Mulberry street.

Quilting And Dinner.

A group of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Alveda Shoaf, West Washington street, on Thursday for a quilting party. A tureen dinner was served at noon.

Plans were made to go to the home of Mrs. Pilshaw for another quilting in the near future.

Surprise Shower

Amerita club members gathered Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Nicholas George, on Lutton street, to tender a shower to their hostess and her young daughter, Irene Rose. Many pretty gifts were received and afterwards the guests played 500. Prize winners were Mrs. Joseph Leta and Mrs. Anthony Villani.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, aides including Mrs. Sam Bassano and Mrs. Rose Claus.

Thursday, of next week, the club will have a theatre party.

Ritz Club

Mrs. James Barlett, of Robinson street, entertained the members of the Ritz club at her home Thursday evening. After the business session cards formed the main diversion, with honors going to Mrs. Frank Boron and Mrs. Albert Di Palmo.

At an appropriate hour refreshments were served, with ravioli as one of the delicious dishes.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. James Bongivengo, Glass street.

Evening Of Fun

An evening of much fun and hilarity was enjoyed Thursday when Mrs. James Hileman of Chestnut street entertained the T. N. N. club. Instead of cards, the customary pastime, the girls enjoyed various contests provided by the hostess, the prizes going to Mary Patterson and Helen Jenkins.

A delicious lunch was served at a long table, with spring flowers for a centerpiece, and candlelight lending additional beauty. Mrs. Zella Needler assisted.

On April 1 the club will be guests of Miss Helen Jenkins at her home on Grant street.

CLEAN UP! IT'S NEAR TIME!

THE snow banked hills are beginning to show brown and drab as the white mantle trickles away under the warming sun.

Here and there beneath the dead remnants of last year's flower garden can be seen green points as the early plants begin to show.

The stores are showing spring attire, the seed catalogues litter the living room floor and the calendar says it's nearly spring.

Time to begin to think of cleaning up the yard, front and back, time to begin pricing paints and varnishes, and settling the annual argument as to which paper would look best on the back bedroom.

Winter leaves a drab residue in its wake but the spring should be the time when the drabness is changed to color and life.

A city is judged by the appearance of its streets and buildings and a citizen is judged by the appearance of his yard and premises.

Why not put an extra lick or two in this spring in cleaning up. A few hours work with a rake and a shovel, a spot of paint here and there, a few flowers or vegetables planted and the yard becomes a thing of beauty.

Let's clean up this spring!

TO DISCOURAGE LAWSUITS

An ingenious plan is said to have been figured out by Senator Norris of Nebraska and Senator Rankin of Mississippi to check the flood of lawsuits against the TVA, NRA and other New Deal institutions. They have introduced a bill which would make anyone who challenged the government in such matters put up enough money to pay the cost of defense if the plaintiff lost his suit. That, they say, would prevent many suits brought with slight cause or for academic or partisan reasons.

There is a good deal of room for argument. Our judicial theory seems to be that the government and private citizens are equal in court. If so, wouldn't the government itself be subject to such a provision, and have to reimburse defendants in NRA prosecutions, for example, when it lost its cases?

It might also be necessary or desirable, if this policy were adopted, to apply to all cases, public and private, in all our courts. Large numbers of unnecessary, malicious or racketeering cases might thereby be forestalled. On the other hand, it might often prevent justice, because a poor man with a just grievance might not be able to post the guarantee required, and so could not sue.

THE PINK SLIP

No particular power of prophecy is required to foresee that the injustice of the "pink slip" provision of the income tax law will be felt especially in the towns and small cities, of which New Castle may very well be a typical example. In the larger cities, people are too occupied with their own affairs and care too little about the affairs of others to pry into them.

But in the smaller towns the standing of the chief citizens is somewhat a matter of common knowledge, and there lies in the pink slip the power to give an untrue picture of many a man's actual and potential resources which could not only damage reputations but could actually bring financial disaster to worthy persons.

Particularly is this true of professional and business men and merchants. To be forced to disclose to the public gaze the extent of temporary reverses or of inability to collect accounts due may well unjustly impair the individual's credit standing and injure his business. The pink slip is so devised as to publish the gross income, the authorizable deductions (in toto), and the tax payable.

It takes but a moment's thought to realize that these figures by no means give an accurate picture of the individual's financial status.

The argument that the country has the right to know the incomes of its rich citizens is no argument, for no such right exists. The country's true right is to compel that rich and poor alike pay their taxes. It is a purpose not abetted by the pink slips. The provisions for them can and should be repealed before March 15.

DOES HE PAY?

The statement of Secretary of Banking, Dr. Luther A. Harr that "the commonwealth for years has helped motorists and the motor industry with highway improvements and now they should as a patriotic duty pay their share" is so naive that one wonders if the doctor was correctly quoted.

Certainly he does not mean to imply that the commonwealth has given the motorist anything without the motorist paying for it. Surely he would not have anyone believe that the motorist has not paid his way. True, the state has a splendid system of highways but where did the money come from?

From the general revenues? Certainly not. From the time motoring became universal among the people the motorist has paid his way. Not only has he paid the current expenses of building and maintaining highways but he has carried the highway bond issue load.

The $100,000,000 bond issue authorized some years ago is being amortized entirely from motor revenues. The money to maintain the highways, to pay the thousands of men employed, to build new roads, comes entirely from the motorists pocket.

Does the motorist pay his way? Let's see what the average citizen pays in a year. For his license plates he pays $10 or more. For his learner's permit he pays $1.50. For his driver's license he pays two dollars for himself and two dollars for his wife. If he drives 9000 miles in a year which is not excessive, and averages 15 miles to the gallon he has paid into the state motor funds $18. He pays an additional $6 to Uncle Sam for his gasoline tax. No tax in all the state is collected as efficiently and as fully as the motor taxes.

The motorist has paid his way and expects to pay his way. All he asks is a fair deal, and no more. He is entitled to no less.

KNOCK ON WOOD!

You haven't had a cold for months and months...Knock on wood.

You've never had a bad automobile accident...Knock on wood.

Whatever you eat, always agrees with you...Knock on wood.

You're happily married. Your children are healthy. You've still got your job. Your roof doesn't leak and your eggs all hatched and your friends are true and you aren't worried about anything...So knock on wood.

You're not superstitious? You don't believe in that silly old practice, come down to us from paganism, or knocking on wood whenevr you mention your luck. But nevertheless you might as well knock on wood. Actually, physically, with your knuckles. Because you DO knock on wood whenever you speak of your good fortune—so far.

You do it in your mind. Subconsciously you make a little prayer of humility, of thanksgiving, to take the curse off your easy acceptance of your luck....Everybody with any feeling about life does that...Knocks on wood.

We were advised by the German philosopher, Nietzsche, to "Live dangerously!" No man ever gave more needless advice. We cannot live otherwise than dangerously.

Risk your life in war, in exploration, or in a laboratory and you live dangerously. But play safe with your life, crawl into a corner and take no chances, shrivel and shiver—and you are still living dangerously because you risk what you are pleased to call your soul.

To live at all is to live dangerously. To live richly is to make that danger grandly satisfying. To live meagerly is to make it a disgraceful retreat from life...So knock on wood, and pray for courage! That's all you need.

HARDWARE STORE FASCINATION

Whenever I go to a hardware store,
I wander the counters round
And gaze at knobs for the kitchen door
In a manner that's most profound
I look at this glistening pots and pans
And the gadgets for shelf and wall,
The hammers and planes, and electric fans
And I wish I could buy them all.

While mother is getting a packet of tacks
I stroll down the crowded aisles,
I linger to fondle a woodman's ax
And the chisels and drills and files.
And I fancy that deep in the heart of me
The boy that I was survives,
For, old though I am, still longingly
I look at the pocket knives.

There is something about a hardware store
Which strangely, I can't resist,
And I think it's the joys I have hungered for
Which somehow my life has missed.
Though under the chill of the years I'd say
That many a passion cools,
A man will keep to his dying day
A deep-rooted love of tools.

NEED FOR ADULATION FREQUENTLY GUIDES MORAL RECTITUDE

Be honest, isn't your vanity the strong force keeping you within honorable bounds?

You want the respect of your fellows.

You like to have homage paid you: your ego is encouraged when someone offers you a compliment.

It is satisfying to feel that you are entitled to the good reputation you enjoy.

Comparatively speaking, few merit the good reputation they have.

You have a high position, but if you are honest with yourself, you will acknowlege that many better men have not gotten so high.

You know that you often grow weary of conventions.

You would like to go somewhere among strangers, where you could throw off restraint and give your desires full sway.

You think you would enjoy such freedom and perhaps you would.

Soon you would become tired of it—you would be ashamed of yourself.

You would want to get back to those who respect you.

You would return to those who had faith in the good intentions which you could proudly support.

Bible Thought For Today

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:59. Sun rises tomorrow 6:22.

There is always something to be thankful for. We notice that the tomatoes in the seed catalogues are as large and luscious-appearing as ever.

School pupils in an Allegheny county school went on a strike because the school board discharged two teachers. They carried big banners telling what they thought of the directors. We don't know what their parents were doing, unless they were lettering the banners.

When a girl starts calling a man by his first name, you can depend on it, she has an eye on his last one.

Policeman—Lady, don't you know this is a safety zone.

Woman Driver—Of course, that's why I drove in here.

It doesn't add very much to a man's peace of mind when a woman starts to give him a piece of hers.

Never shed any tears because you are skinny or sickly. Chances are you'll outlive a lot of husky guys who imagine they have a corner on good health. At Pittsfield, Mass., twenty years ago, a puny plumber was turned down for life insurance, at the same time that nineteen of his husky friends were passed. All of the nineteen are now dead and the sickly looking plumber is still active on his eightieth birthday.

The hour inevitably produces the man, and about three-quarters of an hour later, the woman.

There is nothing like the sight of an old flame to make a man's heart burn.

A fellow told us the other day that computing measures are not always correct. He says that one pint of some stuff sold these days will make one cavort. We'll say it will.

It must be disappointing to a young couple to find that instead of a love boat, they have embarked on the sea of life in a battleship.

When a man tells a woman to go buy a dress, you can depend on it that she probably knows more than he wants her to know about certain subjects in his life.

Customer—Are my clothes that you are cleaning and pressing ready?

Tailor—Not yet.

Customer—But you said you'd have them ready if you worked all night.

Tailor—Yes, but I didn't work all night.

Only a few more weeks, friends, and spring will be here. Buds are already beginning to appear on some of the small trees, but so far nobody has told us what the peach crop is going to be like. What's become of all the Peachologists?

Pretzel—Are you economizing at your house?

Know what an "April fish" is? It is the French term for our "April fool."

In a neighboring county a man fell asleep while smoking his pipe in bed. The bed-clothing caught fire and if it hadn't been for the milk man arriving about that time the man would no doubt have been badly scorched. As it was, he was drenched with a five gallon can of milk. Smoking in bed is dangerous business.

The three things that are always entitled to the right-of-way are a fire truck, an ambulance and a woman.

Washington amateur mechanics originally were cocksure that, by stoking the engine with fuel galore, in the form of taxpayers funds, they could produce enough steam to force spectacular revival. It's been a flop and now the brain trust theorists are being pushed aside. What's needed is some hard headed business men who can inspire the country with some confidence.

"I sent you a kiss over the telephone," he said when he met her. "I hope you understood it."

"Oh, yes," she answered. "I understood, all right enough. But to me a kiss over the telephone is like a straw hat."

"A straw hat?" he echoed. "How?"

"Why," she coyly answered, "it isn't felt."

Assemblyman Blake B. Shugarts of Clearfield county, has asked the state legislature to appoint a secret committee of three to shadow lawmakers and find out how they spend their week-ends in Harrisburg. We'll venture the assertion that they would find very few of the state lawmakers attending church.

Wall Street Is Irked
Morgan To Remain Here
Terrorism in Yugoslavia

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—The senator who upsets financial New York the most is Senator Elmer Thomas, of Oklahoma, the silverite.

Financial New York sees the silver program of Senator Thomas as pushing not only the United States, but the remainder of the world over the financial brink.

Senator Thomas is trying to have a bill passed making it mandatory that the United States treasury purchase 50 million ounces of silver a month until one billion ounces have been acquired.

"When the treasury is ordered upon a fixed mandatory program, it is not wise finance to count on an unknown factor. It takes little imagination to conceive the confusion in the silver markets of the world toward the end of any one month when it became apparent that the American treasury was short of its 50 million ounces. . . ."

Then, sardonically:

"Perhaps Senator Thomas will introduce a bill compelling all foreign holders of silver to sell their holdings to the United States government."

* * *

WHAT'S THIS?

Something new to reflect on the United States appears in a trade item in the noted Manchester, England, Guardian:

"It is surprising that at a time when conferences are being held in the United States to discuss the problem of the reduction of American cotton exports, when Brazil is pushing forward with efforts to make cotton rank closer in importance to coffee as one of its exports, and when the Lancashire Indian cotton committee are bringing about a large substitution of East Indian for American cotton, that Lancashire spinners should have to complain that they were being sold false-packed bales of American cotton."

This is a terribly long sentence, but the charge is clear.

* * *

MORGAN'S MOVE

J. P. Morgan will not move to England. That is the view of Leslie Gould, financial editor of the New York Evening Journal.

Gould believes that Morgan, in disposing of art, is taking advantage of a good market, in order to be able to have his estate in such condition that his control interest in the Morgan company's activities will not be affected by the huge income tax his son will have to pay.

Morgan's dominance in American finance, according to Gould, has been accomplished with comparatively few millions, well managed. His fortune is not in a class with Ford's or Mellon's.

Going to England would be no escape for Morgan. Taxes on estates are even higher there, and the size of the Morgan fortune would be diminished by being translated into English pounds at this time.

TERRORISM

Add Yugoslavia to the growing list of countries in which there is fascisti terrorism.

Students have sent a memorial to the outside world protesting against cruelties inflicted on them. They tell of deaths by torture.

This is the country in which the boy king Peter "rules" under the regency of his uncle, Duke Paul. But the real rulers are a group of militaristic terrorists.

Spain, also, is in the grip of such terrorists, from reports seeping through. And Austria, Hungary, Italy and Germany have seen the disappearance of freedom.

In every one of the countries mentioned, leaders of laborites, agrarians and opposing political factions either are in prison or concentration camps (if not dead) or have escaped to exile.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

STRONG MAN

Tim McGrath ran "The Tip" one of San Francisco's well known bars in the old days, and among his friends was "Deacon" Jones, on oldtime Negro fighter.

On the morning of April 18, 1906, the "Deacon" walked into McGrath's bar and demanded a drink. The bartender refused to serve him.

"White man, ef you don't give me a drink quick, I'll pull you' bar down," said Jones, who had quite a reputation as a barroom fighter. The Deacon grabbed hold of the bar and started to tug. Just then the earthquake which destroyed "The Tip" and San Francisco, roared and rumbled. "The Tip" came down around the ears of the bartender and Deacon Jones.

Pulling himself from under bottles and debris, a scared Negro turned to a frightened bartender and said:

"Please tell Mr. McGrath I'm sorry I caused such a disturbance."

You're Wrong If You Believe—That the horns, or cusps, of the new or old moon never point downward.

They are, but only in the daytime; as may be seen on very clear days. If the sun is near the meridian and the moon in the western sky, the horns will point toward the western horizon. When the sun is below the horizon, the horns will then point upward.

That beekeepers never get stung, because their bees know them.

Nearly every person who works with bees will get stung occasionally. There is no evidence that bees ever get to know humans.

That Washington didn't get a unanimous vote for the presidency.

We have to reverse ourselves on our statement to the contrary, and we thank F. Frank Crall, head of the department of history, McKeesport, Pa., high school for setting us aright again.

Washington did get 69 of the 138 electoral votes cast in 1789, as stated here. However under the procedure from 1788-1800, each elector had two votes, which he was constitutionally obliged to cast for two different persons, with the man receiving the largest number being elected president, and the man with the second largest number, the vice president. Thus Washington WAS elected unanimously by the 69 electors, though 138 votes were cast. The first president was the last to be elected unanimously.

National Farm Outlook

Written For Central Press
By ARTHUR H. JENKINS
Editor The Farm Journal

The amendments to the agricultural Adjustment Act which the AAA is asking congress to grant are of a good deal of interest, although possibly not tremendously important to the nation as a whole.

They are mostly concerned with that branch of the AAA activities that deals with "marketing agreements" as distinct from the voluntary reduction processing tax benefit-payment campaigns affecting the great staple crops.

Marketing agreemnets apply to such farm products as fruits, vegetables, peas, beans and corn for canning, milk, tobacco and various specialties that for one reason or another do not lend themselves to other control.

What the AAA wants to do is to consolidate its position on these agreements through stricter licensing of the various dealers and "handlers" of these farm products, and particularly by forcing any given branch of "handlers" to come under a license, even if less than 50 per cent will agree to it voluntarily.

* * *

Open Hearings Desired

Other amendments make it necessary to have open hearings on these licenses and marketing agreements, which have not been in the law hitherto, and therefore presented a weakness from a constitutional stanopoint.

Fines for violation of license would be reduced somewhat.

The AAA would get the right to examine handlers' books to verify the facts and figures given in reports, but for no other purpose.

Limitations of production or allotments could not be imposed on farmers except with approval of two thirds of those in this branch of production.

Licenses could not be imposed on farmers at all, the lack of this provision being chiefly blamed for failure of the amendments last year.

May Complete Highway Link

Grove City-Slippery Rock Paving Work Completion Is Desired

MOST OF ROAD ALREADY PAVED

GROVE CITY, Mar. 8—Approval of state plans for completing the "short road" between Grove City and Slippery Rock, by commissioners of Butler County and the council of Slippery Rock Boro clear the decks for an early start on the improvement for which the local Commercial Club has been campaigning for several years.

Maps indicating an 80 foot right of way from the end of the present paving at the Mercer-Butler County line have been submitted by the State Department of Highways. Slippery Rock councilmen have allotted 40 feet on each side of the center of the old "macadam" road as a right-of-way for the proposed route, after viewing the maps. Butler county commissioners indicated by resolution that they would do their part. The road is to be of concrete, 20 feet wide, to match the Mercer County pavement.

Indications that the state would authorize an early start on construction are contained in requests from the state that blue-prints submitted to the Butler County bodies be returned as soon as approved. It is understood that the road is scheduled for immediate action.

E. B. Harshaw, of this city, chairman of the local good roads committee, has been heading an aggressive group that sought completion of this link. It is four miles in length, and is the direct route between Pittsburgh and Erie, by way of Butler and Slippery Rock to Grove City, where a choice of two routes to Erie may be taken, over the Perry Highway from Mercer, or through Sandy Lake, Cochranton and Meadville. On either route, the link between Grove City and Slippery Rock is the only unfinished portion. For two years the five miles have been paved with a narrow macadam surface.

the distributing trades will put up a bitter battle in congress against the proposed change. And indeed it may be doubted whether the AAA is well advised in clamping down a stricter license system when the movement of events seems to be away from government coercion and away from fines for violation of bureaucratic regulations.

Some other amendements, however, are less controversial, particularly those which would permit the AAA to use money from processing taxes to promote the wider sale of the commodity taxed, and would make it possible to pay "benefits" to the wheat or cotton grower in surplus wheat or cotton instead of cash.

* * *

A Debatable Clause

One other point will appeal to all who are interested in constitutional powers, and who question the basis for any kind of federal interference with private business.

The AAA considers all farm business interstate commerce. Nowhere in Washington, not even in the NRA, has there been such an anxious effort to establish and nail down authority over transactions which are not visibly "interstate" in character. In the new amendments therefore,we find the declaration that the AAA licensing power is to extend to the agricultural transactions "in the current of or in competition with or so as to burden, obstruct, or in any way affect, interstate of foreign commerce."

That is a gorgeous phrase, that will delight lawyers, although what the courts may do to it before they have finished with it is another matter entirely. A less sweeping phrase in the present Adjustment Act has several times been thrown out of the lower federal courts, notably in milk cases in Illinois.

Like the gold clause cases, however, we won't really know what is what until the supreme court has laid down the law.

Farm Meetings Are Concluded

Poultry And Dairy Meetings Held In County This Week To Aid Farmers

Lawrence county poultry raisers and dairymen were interested in a series of meetings throughout the county, which were concluded this afternoon.

Earlier ir the week, two meetings were held for poultry raisers, at the farms of Charles McClain, of North Beaver township, and in the Firemen's Hall, at New Wilmington, when the early care of chicks was discussed by H. H. Kauffman of Pennsylvania State College.

R. H. Olmstead dairy specialist of State College discussed Bang's disease in cattle, at a series of three meetings which opened Thursday. The first of these was held at Scott township high school at Harlansburg, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock.

This morning, a meeting was held at the home of E. P. Rader of Little Beaver township; and this afternoon at 2 o'clock concluded the series with a meeting in Pulaski township.

Thursday afternoon dairy feeding problems were discussed at a meeting on the farm of John Eppinger, of Plaingrove township.

LUMBERMAN TURNS TO OPERA SINGER

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—After 20 years, Max Franklin, lumber company employe, is facing the goal he longed for during his entire life, a career as an opera singer.

Granted an audition by the Metropolitan Opera Company, Franklin said that it was the first "break" he had had since coming to Pittsburgh 21 years ago. A foreman in the yards of the lumber concern, Franklin is well-known in Pittsburgh musical circles, but he had tried for several years without success to obtain an audition at the Metropolitan.

MOCK WEDDING SOUP MADE QUITE A HIT

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8.—Mr. Beet and Miss Carrot were united in vegetable soup in a mock wedding that was one of the entertainment events at a supper party given by a group of nurses at the Williamsport hospital in honor of a supervisor who will be married soon. Amid much hilarity the nurses voted it one of the "prettiest weddings" they had ever seen.

Little Progress In Lowellville Mystery Case

Belief In Village That Girl Whose Skeleton Was Found Was "Helen"

NAME MENTIONED IN SOME LETTERS

LOWELLVILLE, Mar. 8.—The first name of the girl whose decomposed body was found buried in a shallow grave in a hillside near Lowellville probably was "Helen", Ed Maloney, Lowellville marshal, believes.

The girl, who Coroner David H. Hauser believes was about 25 years old when she died, probably lived in Campbell, for the letters found in a suitcase several years ago, in a brick shed near where the body was found, bore this postmark, said Cecil Seronsy, who led a biology field trip which resulted in accidentally finding the suitcase.

"I understand the name 'Helen' was mentioned quite frequently in one of the letters found in a suitcase," Marshal Maloney said.

Late yesterday afternoon the cheap board suitcase, which had been misplayed, was found at the home of one of Seronsy's biology students.

Contents Divided Up.

Contents of the suitcase, it was revealed today, were divided among the finders, and it may be several weeks before they can be located.

Marshal Maloney has located two wash dresses which he is holding in his office at Lowellville.

There were no names or addresses on the suitcase, and the dresses did not bear identification marks.

Marshal Maloney has been told the suitcase which had a hole punched in its side, contained the two wash dresses, a fur fabric jacket, two or three sets of women's underwear, face powder, some perfume, a doctor's certificate, a small pencil sharpener, and a pair of men's pajamas.

"Packed In Hurry"

"The contents of the suitcase were crammed in, as if the packer were in a hurry," Seronsy said today. "I can't remember just what happened to the letters, but I think they were turned over to Lowellville authorities, who might have sent them to Campbell."

Marshal Maloney thinks the letters might have been burned or thrown way by the finders.

Flowers In Bloom Foresters Report

Sheltered Sections Of State Show Trees And Flowers Out Early

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Early spring flowers are already blooming in Penn's Woods, according to forester's in the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters. Although snow still covers many hills and cakes of ice crowd the narrows of streams, many trees are bursting into bloom.

In sheltered spots away from cold winds the furry blossoms of the pussy-willow are beginning to appear, and the buds of the red and silver maples are swelling for an early opening.

March usually brings forth the white flowers of the trembling and large-toothed aspens. The American elm and the slippery elm, the white poplar, shellbark hickory, and the pink flowers of the Judas tree will be among the early blossoms. Along the ground the arbutus, the hepatica and the spring beauty may soon be found in warm, sheltered locations.

Visitors to state forests and parks are welcomed by the Department of Forests and Waters. Many nature lovers are attracted each spring by the flowers of Pennsylvania's woods, particularly to the early blooming dogwoods at Valley Forge Park.

State foresters urge all visitors to be careful with fire in the woods so that the beauty and utility of the forests may be preserved.

MANY ACCIDENTS

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—State highway patrolmen investigate an average of 40 accidents daily, contributing reports which play an important part in expediting license suspensions where carelessness is disclosed. Last year the patrol investigated 14,267, an increase of more than 25 per cent from the 11,262 accidents which were the subject of inquiries in 1933.

On Court House Hill

Commissions as Notary Publics have been recorded at the register and recorder's office for D. C. Hancher, of Ellwood City and Martin Leonhardt, of this city.

By an agreement made by the county commissioners of Mahoning county, Ohio, the road supervisors of Mahoning Twp., Lawrence county, and the local county commissioners, one and one-half miles more of the state line road are to be improved at the northern end of the present improvement. The work is an RWD projects. The county commissioners are furnishing tools.

Thursday was the last day for filing executions on properties which are to be sold by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard at the April term of court. The list is somewhat smaller than the list for the previous month when there were twenty-seven executions.

With the rejection by the grand jury of the county commissioners to erect a bridge over Cheesman's run during the coming summer the commissioners do not have major projects on. One of the principal reasons for the proposed Breakneck bridge, aside from the condition of the bridge, was that it would furnish an RWD project and result in a saving to the county. The bridge will have to be replaced sometime soon.

County Commissioners were called to the Covert's bridge across the Mahoning river yesterday, when it was reported that a heavy truck had broken planks on the bridge. Happily the truck did not go through and nobody was injured. The commissioners have ordered the bridge repaired.

It is seldom that a grand jury makes such a record was that made by the grand jury this week, when indictments were returned on all of the eighteen bills presented. Usually there are several reported "Not true bills." In some of those acted upon some of the counts of the indictments were ignored, but there will be something on which to go to trial in each case. The list of cases presented by District Attorney Mont L. Ailes, was considerably less than usual. This was owing to the fact that a great many prisoners have pleaded guilty since the December term of court.

Charles E. Ketterer, receiver of the Citizens Bank of Ellwood City, has filed two suits at the prothonotary's office against the Ellwood City hospital. The suits are based on notes given the bank. One note, given on October 5th, 1931 was for $5,000. On this note there is a balance due of $4,030.96, with interest from October 5, 1931. The other note was for $9,400. It was given on December 30, 1932. On this note there is a balance due of $7,544.69, with interest from January 30, 1933.

An appeal from the decision of Justice of the Peace J. R. Broadbeck has been filed at the prothonotary's office in the case of Sol Wolk and Sons, of Pittsburgh against the Diamond Men's Shop, of this city. The suit was based on an alleged balance due the Pittsburgh firm. Judgment for $114.50 was awarded by the justice, and the defendant disputes the bill.

Judges R. L. Hildebrand and Jas. A. Chambers held juvenile court yesterday at which delinquent children were given hearings in private. Only the parents of the children are admitted at the hearings. The children are placed in the custody of Parole Office Jack M. Dunlap, to whom they must make regular reports.

County commissioners have received very few responses from former property owners, whose properties were purchased in former years by the commissioners. The former owners are now being given a chance to redeem their properties by paying the taxes, and if this is not done it is proposed to sell the properties. Union township has been the only one taken up so far, but it is understood that the next one will be Shenango.

Test Is Made Of Seed For Planting

Much Of It Is Found To Be Low In Germinating Qualities Say Experts

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Designed as a guide to farmers, cooperative associations, granges and others in the purchase of field seeds, a report has been compiled by the department of agriculture of the results of laboratory examination of approximately 2,400 samples of farm seed collected by inspectors of the bureau of plant industry from more than 1,200 retailers in 1934.

The report specifically cited 85 samples as violations of the state seed law. A majority of the violations, however, were of a minor nature. A table was included giving the names and addresses of all seed wholesalers and retailers showing the quality of seed originating from each.

State and federal authorities anticipate that a large quantity of seed low in germination will be offered this year because of the shortage and high price of timothy, clover and other field seeds.

BURNING BRUSH IS HAZARD TO WOODS

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8 —State Game Commission officials today issued their annual spring appeal asking care in burning of brush. Fires that escape those engaged in the practice each year cause heavy damage to game birds and animals. In addition human lives sometimes are lost.

Officials suggested that brush be burned only when adjacent weeds or brush are wet and when the air is calm. Surrounding the site of the fire with a wide swath from which inflammable material has been removed also was recommended.

One of America's first industrial triumphs was the almost complete monopoly of the world's cotton markets.

THIS MOTOR CLUB IN FAVOR OF GAS

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Mar. 8—In site of conditions attached to their resolution approving the levying of an addition two cents tax on gasoline, the Jefferson County Motor club remains one of the few county groups upholding the tax-measure.

The gasoline tax plan was approved with the provision that any funds raised must be specifically allocated to the reduction of school and land taxes.

Further discussion of the matter is expected to be held at the annual meeting of the Jefferson county club here on April 9. The speaker on that occasion is to be S. E. Gable, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation.

JUDGE SAYS WOMAN'S PLACE IS IN HOME

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Mar. 8—The woman's place is in the home, according to Judge D. W. Henderson.

That was the effect of the jurist's ruling in enjoining Mrs. Mae Kelley, Fairchance, from going out at night any more and requiring her husband, Troy Bruce Kelley, to give her $50 a month instead of $40 a month for the support of their five children.

Kelley complained to the court that his wife would leave the children alone at night. The court instructed both that it was their first duty to look after their family.

EVENING EVENT FOR L. A. B. CLUB MEMBERS

The home of Mrs. William H. Marker, Winter avenue, was the scene of a delightful party, when she had as guests, associates of the L. A. B. club, and three visitors, Mrs. G. W. Rigby, Mrs. William Nelson of this city, and Mrs. Mary Sinclair of Youngstown, Ohio.

Cards formed the diversion, trophies going to Mrs. M. R. Sweet and Mrs. Lucy Covert. At conclusion of play Mr. William Marker, favored those assembled with several pleasing piano selections. Mrs. J. W. Sweet and Mrs. Ira Taylor each rendered a vocal solo as another part of the program.

In serving lunch, the appointments and all details being cleverly carried out suggestive of St. Patrick's day, was served by the hostess. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Lucy Covert were her aides.

In two weeks Mrs. Maude Jones of Maryland avenue will entertain at their regular meeting.

Ten Ivory Club

Members of the Ten Ivory club were entertained in the home of Phyllis Aicone, Clearview avenue, Thursday evening. After a short business period, the hostess was presented with the usual club gift. Cards and informal pastimes ensued. Later the hostess served a tasty lunch, assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. Nativio. Miss Florence Deli shared as a special guest of the evening.

A report of the frolic held by members on Tuesday evening in King Humbert hall was given.

Their next meeting will be held at the residence of Theresa Fazzone, Lutton street, on the eve of March 21.

Mrs. Frank Myers, of Allen street, received the Jolly Twelve club at her home Thursday evening.

A social hour was enjoyed, cards were featured, and honors were won by Mrs. Charles Rimey and Mrs. Albert Perkins.

In serving a tasty lunch the hostess had the assistance of the Misses Ruth Myers (her daughter), and Louise Faupel.

EASY ACES CLUB DINNER THURSDAY

Miss Helen Geary of Neshannock avenue entertained members of the Easy Aces club at a local tea room Thursday evening, at a chicken dinner party. Beautiful appointments in keeping with the season, decorated the table, and at 7 o'clock the menu was served.

The pastime of the leisure hours following, was found in playing "Pokeno" with Mrs. Clara Balch winning the prize.

Their next meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. J. W. Staudinger on Wilmington avenue.

Chicken Dinner

The Junior Guild of St. Andrews church held a chicken dinner in the dining room of the church this week which was well attended. At two long tables places were laid for 40 guests.

The centerpieces were bouquets of fresh flowers, with tall tapers on either side. A color scheme of orchid and yellow prevailed in appointments, favors being tiny yellow baskts of candy. Members of St. Andrews bingo committee were visitors, together with Rev. Samuel Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hetrick.

After dinner, an enjoyable entertainment was presented, which included several selections by the Pumpkin Town Symphony String Band, accompanied by the Ritter Twins.

The committee promoting the affair consisted of Ethel Evans, Dorothy Jones, Violet Hetrick, Gretta Nesbitt, Rose Sturdevant, Frances Davis, Frances Barbara, Lillian Falls.

Will Honor Three

At a meeting of the Willing Workers of the Emmanuel Baptist church Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Griff Phillips, Lyndal street, plans were made for a class dinner on March 21 to honor the three oldest members of the class, Mrs. Thomas Evans, Mrs. William Phillips and Mrs. Sara Davis.

The dinner will be a 6 o'clock affair and will be at the church.

At last night's meeting Mrs. Katherine Merriman was the associate hostess. A report stating that a nice sum of money was realized from the last social and quilt display given by the class, was read, and it was voted to turn over the money to the church.

A prize was awarded during the evening to Mrs. William Phillips.

Queen Sewing Circle.

An enjoyable all day meeting in the home of Mrs. James Richards, Chestnut street, interested members of the Queen Sewing Circle Thursday, with Mrs. Charlotte Richards, Mrs. William Herman and Mrs. Holsinger attending as special guests. Mrs. William Crowe was one of the five members who shared the event, and this marked her first meeting following a long illness. She was given a cordial welcome.

After the serving of dinner at 12 o'clock, quilting held their attention, and informal pastimes filled in the leisure moments also.

In two weeks Mrs. Hettie Rhoads of Beckford street will extend hospitality to club members.

A program of games ensued, with Gwen Williams and Mrs. E. Dugan winning prizes. At the close of an informal social period, the hostess served a delicious lunch, the table being centered with a huge birthday cake. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Griff Thomas, Mrs. Wm. Johns and Catherine Louise Johns. At this time, a birthday greeting received from Mary Johns of Pittsburgh was read.

On April 4, the class members will assemble in the home of Mrs. Ed Spencer, Winslow avenue.

Re-Deal Club

Last evening the Re-Deal club enjoyed the cordial hospitality extended in the home of Miss Constance Priestly, Wilmington avenue, who entertained informally at cards.

Prizes for honor scores were presented to Mrs. June Crill and Miss Diane Foulke at conclusion of play, and also lovely tokens were given to the Misses Kathryn Wagner and Kathryn Dixon, special guest of the club.

At the appointed hour, a tempting St. Patrick's lunch was served by the hostess, at tables which also expressed the approaching season. Miss Wagner assisted the hostess.

The next meeting, March 21, will take place at the residence of Mrs. June Crill, Adams street.

Past Worthy Mistresses Club

Past Worthy Mistresses club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Belle Hopwood on East North street. There were nine guests present and at the usual game of 500, Mrs. Helen Ray and Mrs. Blanche Lewis won the favors.

Arrangements were made for a bingo party in Clendenin hall, on Thursday evening, March 14. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Julia Miller, Mrs. Myre Parks, Mrs. Belle Hopwood.

Refreshments were served with the assistance of Herbert Stockman. Mrs. Blanche Lewis will entertain the group on April 4, at her home on Butz street.

Sicilian Girls Club.

Miss Jennie Venturella of the Wilmington road proved a pleasing hostess last evening to members of the Sicilian Girls club in her home. A short business period opened the program, and instead of the usual card contest ,the girls enjoyed an interesting discussion on the "Life of Leonardo DaVinci," a noted artist. Miss Mary Ciao led this feature.

In serving a dainty menu of refreshments, the hostess was aided by her sister Nancy. St. Patricks appointments prevailed.

In two weeks Mrs. Dykes Monsey of Huron avenue will entertain.

Top Notch Club

Members of the Top Notch Club were pleasantly entertained in the home of Miss Madeline Caruso, of East Lutton street, Wednesday evening.

The hours were whiled away playing cards, listening to music and discussing numerous topics of interest. Club token was won by Miss Madge Pezone. Delicious refreshments were served during the course of the evening.

Mrs. Joseph Fortune, East Lutton street, will receive the club in two weeks.

Birthday Honored

Frank W. Wood received a pleasant surprise on his birthday Wednesday evening while playing cards at the home of a friend. A large group of friends dropped in for an informal celebration of the occasion.

Music was furnished by the Davis trio assisted by Charles Knox with the piano accordian. A buffet lunch was later served by Mrs. Helen Waddington and aides. Miss Dorothy Dennis, Mrs. Myron Bollard, Mrs. Charles Hennon, Mrs. John Burns.

The guest of honor received many handsome gifts.

Ladies' Auxiliary

A new organization of the Second U. P. church, the Ladies' Auxiliary, had an excellent meeting Thursday evening. Reports from the different sections were presented during the business period, and a "White Elephant" party followed, causing quite a great deal of merriment.

A lunch was served by the heads of sections, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Roy Warnock, Mrs. C. W. Martin and Mrs. Clarence McCormick.

Reunited League

Bingo featured the meeting of the Reunited Ladies league members Thursday evening, with Mrs. Lena Nolte of Hazen street, hostess. Prizes for the contest were carried off by Mrs. Elsie Phillips, Mrs. Anna Richards and Mrs. Mary Wyman.

A delicious collation served at a late hour, concluded activities. The hostess had as her aide, Mrs. Frank Campbell. Plans for their next event will be decided later.

J. U. G. Club

Playing cards Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Milton McHattie, on Croton avenue, was a pleasing diversion for members of the J. U. G. club. Mrs. Dorothy Schetrom and Roy Bales captured the trophies and in serving, a tasty repast, Miss Sara Shehy aided.

The next meeting will be in a fortnight at the home of Mary Ellen Blaine, on Dewey avenue.

Swastika Party

Members of the Swastika Class of the First Congregational church met at the home of Margaret Thomas, Park avenue, last evening, for the purpose of celebrating their second anniversary. Miss Margaret Davis presided over the business period, when election of the following officers occurred: president.

Prizes for cards, went to Mrs. Jack Jones, Mrs. Charles Alexander and Mrs. Clarence Welsh, at the meeting held Thursday evening of G. T. E. club members, in the home of Mrs. Charles Alexander on Dewey avenue, who entertained in an enjoyable manner.

Following play, an informal social time was featured, during which time the hostess assisted by her mother, served a delicious repast.

Announcement was made regarding the men's party, previously scheduled for this Saturday evening. The occasion has been postponed until Saturday, March 16th and will take place in the home of Mrs. Clyde Lloyd on East Washington street. Their next regular session however, will be in two weeks, Mrs. Earl White of Croton avenue, hostess.

Mrs. Matheis Entertains

At the home of Mrs. Etta Matheis, Park avenue, on Thursday afternoon, the Women's Missionary society of the Central Presbyterian church had a stewardship program, with the president, Mrs. J. T. Byers, leading the devotionals.

Mrs. Anna Finney and Mrs. J. Etta Matheis sang two songs. Mrs. C. B. Wingerd gave a reading, "Out of an Old Coffee Can." Mrs. Grant Fisher, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. Oscar Rhodes and Mrs. J. P. Houlette, gave a stewardship pageant, "For the Master's Use."

During the business meeting Mrs. Wingerd installed the officers who will serve for the coming year. With the exception of the president all are the same officers as last year. Mrs. R. J. Williams is the new president, taking the office of Mrs. J. T. Byers, who found it not possible to serve for another year.

Mrs. Oscar Rhodes, the treasurer, gave a fine report, stating that the apportionment was met in full and all obligations were taken care of. For the social period dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Matheis and Mrs. Anna Finney.

Physicians Aid Letherman's Case

Say Girl Could Have Been Killed In Fall Over Embankment

MURDER TRIAL NEARS CONCLUSION

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8. — The story of William Letherman, 25, Charleroi athlete on trial for murder in connection with the death of his fiance, Miss Viola Dennis, was bolstered by two physicians who testified for the defense in criminal court here today.

Fighting a second degree murder charge, Letherman told jurors his sweetheart died from injuries suffered in a fall over a five-foot embankment near Fehls church last August. The commonwealth claims he killed her during a "love quarrel" in the lonely church yard.

Dr. Martin E. Griffith of the Monongahela hospital and Dr. A. S. Sickman, chief of staff of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, estified today, however, Viola could have met death in the fall described by the youthful defendant.

Weather Prophets Mostly In Hiding

Where Are Those Forecasters Who Predicted Exceptionally Cold Winter

WINTER WARMER THAN U. S. NORMAL

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The weather bureau is having a quiet chuckle today at some people who predicted the winter of 1934-35 would be unusually cold.

It turned out to be a very warm winter in almost all the United States. The weather bureau, incidentally, issued no forecast of what the winter would be like.

Between 85 and 90 per cent of the country had a winter warmer than normal. The small portion in the Northeast that was colder than normal was not so cold as it was the previous winter.

Some unofficial phophets based forecasts of a cold winter on movements of air masses. But the masses actually brought warm weather. Cold Polar air moved southward by way of Hudson Bay over eastern Canada, and centered over the northeastern United States. Turning clockwise, this mass helped to maintain prevailing winds from a southerly direction over the rest of the country, sweeping up warm tropical air from the Gulf of Mexico, the weather bureau asserts.

"Since the winter of 1917-18," says the bureau, "there has been a remarkable trend to warm winters in the United States. Fifteen of these 17 winters have been warmer than normal, when the country as a whole is considered, and about half of the 15 show plus departures of temperatures for practically all sections of the country. . . .

"Precipitation for the winter, 1934-35, ran, in general, below normal, except in a few areas."

Opportunity Knocks; Students Are Away

Find Note Where Door Ought To Be Demanding Four Dollars For Its Return

(International News Service)

LEWISBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—"Opportunity" knocked on the door of two Bucknell University students and, finding no one in, removed the door!

Jack Bailey, of Elkland, and William Peebles, of Trenton, N. J., both freshmen, returning home the other night, found a note signed "Opportunity" tacked on the yawning entrance to their sanctuary, demanding $4 ransom to save the door from the firewood pile.

The note, written on brown wrapping paper, read:

"Dear Mr. Bailey and Mr. Peebles: Finding no one at home tonight when I called, I removed your door. No harm will come to it while it is in my possession if you place four dollars in one-dollar bills in the waste paper can on the fourth floor of East College, Sunday night at midnight, after which the door will be returned safely to you. Otherwise I shall burn the door or sell it for firewood, and I will never knock again," signed "Opportunity."

Bailey and Peebles, however, refused to take the warning seriously, believing it was but a prank by sophomores.

Pet Crow Now A Hitch-Hiker

(International News Service)

CANTON, O.,—"Blackie" has his own ideas about hitch-hiking.

"Blackie" the pet crow of George Axx, of Canton, has a passion for stealing rides. Now, after the first few times, Axx has become accustomed to it and thinks nothing of his extra passenger.

But the peculiar part about it is that "Blackie" dosen't choose a comfortable seat in the Axx family car. Instead, he occupies a place on the brake rods underneath the machine.

Why he selected such a place nobody knows, because "Blackie" can't see a thing from his mobile perch. And not on'y that, but the mud and water from the road splashes on him and the oil from the car drips on him. But it's O. K. with "Blackie." Axx, reasons that perhaps the crow, in his youth, was a rider of the "rods" and thus prefers the peculiar position.

Robinhood Now Man In Iron Mask

Medieval Cage Revived To Keep Bandit From Escaping

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI.—An iron cage will house China's 'Robin Hood,' Swallow Li, for the remainder of his life.

Known through North China as 'Swallow' because of his ability to break through prison walls, Li was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

A few days after he was put in prison the famous bandit, who has become a figure of romance because he claimed to have robbed the rich to give the poor, was missing.

Close search of the cell failed to reveal the means by which he escaped. Two weeks later, however, he was rearrested. Several years more were added to his original sentence and he was given solitary confinement in a remote corner of the prison.

Once again his cell was found empty. An intense search by a disgruntled police force ultimately discovered Li and he was again brought to trial. The judge added 10 years to his sentence this time and he was placed in a cell even better guarded than before. Escape seemed impossible, but to the astonishment and bewilderment of the authorities the outlaw was again at liberty within a few days of his sentence.

He was arrested for the fourth time and the judge decided to extend his sentence to penal servitude for life.

The prison governor, determining that Li should never escape again, installed an iron cage in which Li was placed and a strong guard was mounted without.

Friends are confident that the invincible bandit will find means to start on his travels again as soon as he is tired of the Government's hospitality.

MOTORISTS RESPOND

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Motor vehicle owners who plan to get the maximum value out of their registration are renewing their licenses at the rate of from 2000 to 3000 a day. The bureau of motor vehicles reports the current aggregate of registration about 50,000 ahead of the t tal for the corresponding date of last year.

This Student Was Real Fast Thinker

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Mar. 8.—Fast-thinking in the extreme was effectively demonstrated by a Gettysburg college student to pull himself out of a "prize boner" recently.

It all happened while Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president, was addressing a college gathering. His remarks apparently failed to impress a young sophomore seated near the front of the hall who turned to a woman nearby and asked if she knew the "old windbag" who was speaking.

"Do you know who I am?" she demanded.

"No," the youth replied.

"I'm the 'windbag's' wife," she answered.

The student, taken aback, quickly regained his composure and queried:

"Do you know who I am?"

"No."

"Thank Heaven," he stammered.

Third Class City Study Is Planned

Costs Of All Branches Of Municipal Service Will Be Compared

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Plans for a survey of the activities of third class cities in Pennsylvania are being made by the bureau of municipalitie in the Department of Internal Affairs, according to Secretary Philip F. Dewey. Tabulations will be made on the costs of all branches of municipal service and figures on taxes and assessments also will be compiled. Per capita costs on police and fire protection park, playgrounds, street and sewer maintenance and other items will be worked out for purposes of comparison.

Secretary Dewey pointed out that under the law creating the bureau, it is empowered to make such surveys and in so doing the bureau becomes a clearing house for municipal information. When the facts are compiled and tabulated detail sheets will be forwarded to the various cities so that they in turn may know operating costs of respective departments in all cities in the class.

SENATE WORK RELIEF BILL BATTLE OPENS

President Faces Stiff Opposition

Both Republicans and Democrats Challenge Huge Relief Measure

AMENDMENTS TO BILL ARE LIKELY

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—President Roosevelt faced the first real challenge to his fiscal policies today as the senate armed for a new battle over his $4,880,000,000 work relief bill.

This challenge came from both Republicans and Democrats. The Republican threat came in the form of an amendment, prohibiting expenditure of $4,000,000,000 of the fund until the government imposes new taxes to amortize the huge indebtedness. The Democratic attack came in the form of amendments to slash the huge appropriation to $1,-880,000,000 and limit its use to the two-year-old experiment of direct relief.

Would Sell Bonds

The Republican demand was sponsored by Senator Townsend (R) of Delaware. His proposal would treat the $4,000,000,000 work fund as a new liberty loan to be raised through sale of a long term bond issue, which in turn would be amortized by a sinking fund to be financed by new taxes. It would be a substitute for the president's present fiscal policy of merely borrowing the money from banks for short periods at low interest rates.

Republicans and some conservative Democrats charged the president was piling up so huge a deficit that any future effort to balance the budget would be hopeless since the nation would be unable to absorb the tremendous taxes required.

Some Democrats were ready to denounce the president's work relief program as "wasteful," "extravagant" and "dangerous to the government's credit."

Today

Where Life Is Not Dull.
A Noble Life Ends.
If You Were President.
Much Vice, Many Murders.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

LIFE IN the Senate is not dull; seats in the sight-seeing galleries could be sold at a good price, if that were not beneath senatorial dignity.

IN ONE session an alleged guard of Senator Huey Long, sitting in the gallery, is examined by the sergeant-at-arms, "frisked" in search of deadly weapons.

Senator Long, protesting against the "frisking," his eyes rolling in an unusually fine frenzy, asks, "What do you want to do; do you want to say I must be murdered here?"

SENATOR ROBINSON, Senate leader of Senator Long's party and a believer in senatorial dignity, suggests to Senator Long that he go outside and fight it out with Gen. Johnson, personally, physically and violently. Gen. Johnson would be willing, fighting is his specialty. Senator Long said, "I'm not much of a fighter unless I have to."

SENATOR LONG names two Senators whom he will not permit to return to the Senate. They are not from his state, but he thinks the constituents of Senator Robinson and Senator Bailey would be guided by his advice.

JUSTICE OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, dead within two days of his ninety-fourth birthday, one of the greatest judges that have sat upon the United States' supreme bench, will be buried in Arlington Cemetery, where doubtless, his wife, who died before him, will lie beside him.

His military burial will remind fellow countrymen that before he became a great Supreme Court justice, Oliver Wendell Holmes was a good soldier, severely wounded.

You might look far in history before finding a life more completely satisfactory or more completely useful than that of the late Supreme Court justice.

MRS. VICTOR BERGER, widow of the late Socialist Congressman from Milwaukee, will like to be remanded of the fact that "the dissenting justice," Mr. Holmes, intervened in her husband's behalf when Postmaster General Burleson had barred Victor Berger's Milwaukee Leader from the mails because of its pacifist attitude in the war. Justice Holmes disposed of the matter, thus:

"The United States may give up the postoffice when it sees fit, but while it carries it on, the use of the mails is almost as much a part of free speech as the right to use our tongues, and it would take very strong language to convince me that Congress ever intended to give such a practically despotic power to one man."

IN HIS last public utterance, Justice Holmes, on his ninetieth birthday, nearly four years ago, declined to speak of himself, saying:

"In this symposium my part is only to sit in silence. To express one's feelings, as the end draws near, is too intimate a task."

He had still to live four years, lacking only three days. Those four years of courageous life, like the long years that had preceded them, were more eloquent than any address that could have been made.

THESE ARE the days of youth. When you hear of agitation in Spain, Cuba, Mexico, even in conservative England, you find youth at the helm and new ideas at the prow, some of the new ideas startling, such as:

"No, I would NOT fight for king and country."

THIS REPUBLIC is to have a weekly newspaper for young Americans to be called "Young America," intended for Americans sixteen to eighteen years of age, and under.

Its publisher, Stuart Scheftel, who believes that youth deserves a more important place in the scheme of things, asks his young readers to answer first of all the question: "What would I do if I were President of the U. S. A.?" More or less competent judges will select the best answer, and probably select a better answer than they could write.

What would you do if you were President of the United States? Whatever you might do, you could safely rely on a considerable number of self-approving patriots to tell you that you were doing the wrong thing.

TO NEW YORK as a crime, shooting, murdering, gambling, vice and all-around racketeering center, Chicago takes off her hat politely, says, "After you."

Today it may be said truly:

"If you hear anything in New York it's somebody being shot."

A "vice grand jury" was called and promptly those interested began shooting others that might become dangerous witnesses.

Three were killed on one day, one a taxicab driver. Police though he was accidentally shot by gunmen seeking to kill "Blonde Mazie," who sat in the back of the cab.

Police change their minds today, say the taxi driver was wanted, and that "Blonde Mazie" was there to "put the finger" on the man to be killed.

NEXT DAY came two more killings. One dead man owned a string of taxicabs, said to be built conveniently for criminals, small windows offering protection to the occupants, with free play for machine guns. Another taxi driver was killed and thrown into the gutter. There is a "taxi-racket" in town.

Yesterday in Union Square, three young bandits were arrested after they had stolen eleven hundred dollars. "All," the police tell you "have robbery records." You wonder how the young gentlemen happened to be free in Union Square with those robbery records.

Was it parole board foolishness, or judicial coddling of criminals, or "good work" by criminal 'awyers?

NEAR SANTANDER, Spain, a mob entered the tomb of the Marquis of Valdecilla, dragged the remains of the well-known philanthropist and friend of the Spanish monarch from the sarcophagus, mutilated the corpse, scattered fragments around the cemetery.

Such is the feeblest, most ineffective sort of revenge. In France, after the monarchy was restored, the same thing was done with the remains of Voltaire that had been buried in the Pantheon with great honors. His ashes were thrown on a garbage pile. But that was not effective, since his ideas could not be thrown there.

RAMSAY MacDONALD told the House of Commons that Germany's actions were causing a war scare and wanted his representative to discuss the matter with Chancellor Hitler.

Chancellor Hitler replied:

"I have a cold."

England replies to that with an appropriation of sixty million pounds, about three hundred million dollars, to build more fighting ships. You may hear some heavy guns, and buzzing air machines.

COUNTY OWNS MUCH UNSEATED LAND

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8 — Nearly 100,000 acres of unseated land, taken over for delinquent taxes in the past 20 years, are owned by Lycoming county, according to an estimate made by County Engineer Mark C. Krause.

The commissioners are hoping to get the land back into tax-producing channels soon. They also are considering leasing the mineral rights which they hold under considerable areas of mountain land in the upper part of the county.

An aerial survey for mineral deposits is to be made in Australia.

IN THE MIDDLE

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—Motorists driving on the wrong side of the road were responsible for 5374 accidents last year, the department of revenue's division of safety reports. Among these accidents were 104 which resulted in fatalities and 2707 which caused non-fatal injuries.

Canal Booster Asks Bridges Be Raised At Counties Cost

BEAVER, Pa., Mar. 8—Beaver county boosters of the Ohio river and Lake Erie canal via the Beaver and Mahoning rivers have asked the Beaver county commissioners to finance the raising of the 16 bridges along the Beaver river.

The cost was estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. The committee, headed by Mayor Dennis Mutscheller of Beaver Falls and Colonel James P. Leaf of Rochester, expressed the belief the canal would be financed from the $4,800,000,000 works relief bill now pending in congress.

The commissioners expect to give an answer within a few days.

SPEED TAKES TOLL OF ONE LIFE DAILY

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—Speed on the highways claim at least one life a day in Pennsylvania, the Department of Revenue's Division of Safety reports.

Last year 382 fatal accidents were caused by motorists who were driving too fast for the existing road and weather conditions. In January, this year, twenty-eight fatal accidents were attributed to this cause.

Sons Of Legion To Meet Tonight

Large Group Of Veterans Sons And Parents Expected At Meeting

Arrangements have been completed for the meeting of the Sons of the American Legion at the Legion Home this evening at 7:30, when the organization will be completed.

The charter has been opened and all who register at this time will be placed on the charter of the local squadron.

Pilot L. G. Theakstone, manager of the New Castle airport, will speak to the sons and will judge their airplanes.

The meeting will be closed with a luncheon, and indications point to a large attendance.

THIS SIGN WAS SURE MISLEADING

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8—A woman member of the congregation of St. John's Reformed church saw a sign, "Closed Doors," on the bulletin board as she was about to enter the church for Sunday service, turned and returned home.

Inquiring later as to why the church was closed, she learned that "Closed Doors" was the subject of the sermon.

In the period since the oldest known rocks were laid down, taken as some 1,600 million years ago, the earth's rotation is supposed to have increased from 20 to 24 hours.

Civic Orchestra Plays Tonight

Free Public Concert In Benjamin Franklin Auditorium At 8:15

SOME SURPRISES ARE PROMISED

Something new in the way of orchestral music is promised for tonight when the New Castle Civic Orchestra presents its second public concert in the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school. In addition two "musical surprises" are promised.

Since the first public concert in the Senior High School auditorium the orchestra has been busy smoothing out a few minor bumps, improving the musical arrangements and striving for a smoother performance. They seem to have it and tonight's concert should be something well worth hearing.

Afternoon Concert

This afternoon the orchestra plays two concerts for the students of the school. Tonight students will not be admitted unless they are accompanied by their parents. This in order to avoid the confusion that usually results when yougsters are admitted to adult affairs.

The concert starts at eight fifteen with Director Harry C. Hammond and Conductor J. V. Sypher in charge. In addition to the drawing power of the orchestra, many people want to see the interior of the Franklin auditorium since it was redecorated by RWD artists.

Like the previous concert there will be no collections and no admissions, the concert being entirely free. Sponsored as an Emergency Education Relief project, the orchestra has started people thinking along lines of a permanent civic orchestra in New Castle. It is the hope of those interested in it that eventually New Castle will have a civic orchestra that will be available for public affairs in the future.

VETERAN RELIEVED OF CONSTIPATION* BY NATURAL FOOD

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Corrects His Condition

Here is an interesting, unsolicited letter: "I have used Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for about 4 years, and find it a wonderful relief for constipation.* While in Government Service in the P. I., I contracted constipation* in 1898-99.

"I consider your ALL-BRAN in terms of millions, instead of the cost of a box of pills, for it surely has saved me. I eat ALL-BRAN every morning."—F. L. Wylie, Visalia, Calif.

Research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies gentle "bulk" to aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also rich in vitamin B, as well as iron, an element of the blood.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a delicious laxative food . . . far better than patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. In severe cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dying Statement Of Woman Given

Deathbed Statement Accuses Lebanon Man Of Slaying Act

TRIAL IN PROGRESS IN EASTERN COURT

(International News Service)

LEBANON, Pa., Mar. 8—Emma Miller's deathbed statement sprang to life today to accuse Byron A. Laudermilch, elderly lingerie manufacturer, of slaying her.

Before she died in the Good Samaritan hospital of a bullet that severed her spinal cord, the 26 year old factory worker named Laudermilch as her assailant, Dr. Adam L. Hauer told a jury of 12 men in Lebanon county court where Laudermilch is on trial for his life.

Told her death was merely a matter of hours, she was asked by Chief County Detective George Tucker who shot her and left her in a roadside ditch at the deserted National Guard reservation at Colebrook, Dr. Hauer related.

"Byron shot me," she answered, Dr. Hauer told the jury. Questioned by District Attorney James L. Atkins, the physician explained "Byron" was Byron Laudermilch, the wealthy manufacturer in whose factory the girl had once been employed and with whom, it was testified she had been friendly for several years.

Fiermontes On Way To France

Former Boxer And Wealthy Wife Leave Italy After Much Difficulty

(International News Service)

ROME, Mar. 8.—Ex-boxer Enzo Fiermonte and his bride, Mrs. Madeline Astor Fiermonte, sped towards France today to leave a fortnight of Italian woe behind them.

The Fiermontes were finally allowed to leave when Enzo's passport was returned by Italian authorities, who at first had planned to keep Fiermonte here because they considered him, as an Italian good-will ambassador, decidedly a third-rater. Fiermonte came to Italy to see his Italian ex-wife and son.

SUNBURY, Pa., Mar. 8—A five-day jail term was accepted by Harry R. Keller, Sunbury, in preference to a $5 fine for refusing to send his son to school. The father protested the distance to school was too great.

Seven Are Injured When Car Hits Truck

BUTLER, Pa., Mar. 8.—Seven persons were injured, none critically, in a three-car crash on the Butler-New Castle road near here late Wednesday night.

A car driven by Miss Alice Johnson, Seattle, Wash., struck the back of a truck driven by H. R. Spangler of Butler. Miss Johnson is said to have lost control of her automobile, which then ploughed head-on into a car operated by Claire Pflugh, Portersville.

Pearl Campbell, Balm, N. C.; Marian Rabe, Marietta, O., and Dolly Smith, Parkersburg, W. Va., who were riding in the Johnson car, and Pflugh were taken to the Memorial hospital here for treatment.

Pins were once made in two pieces.

Buffalo Boy Was Urged By Mother To Kill Father

Richard Kloes, 11, Tells Prosecutor Real Facts In Slaying Of Mother

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 8—Richard Kloes, 11 year old schoolboy, confessed his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kloes, "told me to kill father because he was mean," District Attorney Newcomb revealed today just before beginning presentation of the John Kloes murder case to the grand jury.

Newcomb announced that a first degree murder indictment would be asked against Mrs. Kloes, who is in a critical condition in city hospital, following a blood transfusion.

May Escape Charge

The boy, however, may escape a murder charge due to his extreme youth.

Newcomb also revealed that Mrs. Kloes, through a series of notes had urged little Richard to kill his father on several previous occasions.

Commission Finds Mitchell Is Sane

Will Be Placed On Trial For The Murder Of His Wife Next Week

James Mitchell, who is charged with the murder of his wife, Evelyn Mitchell, is sane, according to the report of a commission after examining Mitchell in the county jail Thursday evening. The commission was composed of Drs. Henderson and Kaplan, and Attorney Alvah M. Shumaker.

After Mitchell was placed in jail Sheriff Pritchard noticed that he was acting queerly. This was called to the attention of District Attorney Mont L. Ailey, who wanted to be sure that Mitchell was sane before placing him on trial.

A commission was appointed to determine the matter. After a thorough examination of Mitchell, the commission found that he had been suffering from delirium tremens, which might have accounted for his actions, but as to his mentality the commission was satisfied that he is sane.

Mitchell will therefore be placed on trial for the murder of his wife.

Medical Society Hears Dr. Whalen

'Infectious Diseases' Is Topic Of His Paper; Spring Work Planned

The four infectious diseases of measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever and diphtheria were discussed last night by Dr. Charles H. Whalen in a paper he delivered before the Lawrence County Medical society at The Castleton. It was the society's regular March meeting, and nearly 40 attended.

The members in their business meeting, voted to cooperate with city and county school authorities and the state health department in a campaign, to be conducted later in the spring, to immunize pupils against diptheria.

The immunization, according to the tentative plan, will come about May 1, already designated as Public Health Day.

Reports that three sessions of the post-graduate school for physicians have been held at the Jameson Memorial hospital and that three more are to be conducted at the New Castle hospital were made to the organization.

GETS REQUISITION FOR GEO. SAMMERS

County Detective A. Sharp Leslie was at Columbus, O., yesterday where he secured a requisition to return George Sammers, alias George Davis, to Lawrence county where he will stand trial for bigamy. Sammers was arrested at Youngstown, O., and is being held by the Youngstown authorities until an officer is sent for him. He refused to return to Pennsylvania with a requisition.

HEARING POSTPONED

Because of the illness of J C. Colgan, his hearing on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor has been postponed. He was to have been given a preliminary hearing today at two o'clock before Alderman James C. Brice. The charge arises out of an accident on North Jefferson street in which Mrs. Harry Malley was injured.

Long Hurls New Attack On Farley

Charges Postmaster General With Soliciting Campaign Contributions

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8—In a new attack on Postmaster General Jas. A. Farley, Senator Huey P. Long (D) of Louisiana, this afternoon charged that Farley had solicited campaign contributions from federal employes in violation of law.

Long told the senate he had in his possession letters soliciting the contributions. He declined to turn the letters over to the senate post office committee, which is considering his resolution to investigate Farley, "because these employes would be instantly dismissed."

Quashed Indictment

Long also renewed his charge that Farley quashed the indictment of Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's roving ambassador, and his brother Paul D. Davis on bank fraud charges, in connection with the operation of the American National Bank, at Nashville, Tenn. He produced what he said was a photostatic copy of a letter sent the United States attorney at Nashville, by F. A. Guiles, National bank examiner, calling attention to irregularities in the bank's operations.

Trapping Found Big Farmer Aid

NEW YORK—Approximately 2,000,000 American farmers engage in trapping in the winter months, it is shown by a comprehensive survey just completed.

This annual winter "crop" brings a profit of about $60,000,000, as much profit as the ordinary $300,000,000 farm crop, and is vitally important to the farmer as it brings him the wherewithal to stave off the harsh winter months in which he has virtually no other source of income.

In some sections the annual income accruing to the farmer-trapper is as much as $100. The average for the country as a whole is only $30.

The "crop" consists mainly of muskrats, minks, raccoons and beavers.

Mellon Battle Reaches Crisis

Government Seeks To Test Credibility Of Mellon Witness

DEFENSE COUNSEL ARGUING ISSUES

By WILLIAM J. KELLY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—The three million dollar Mellon income tax battle reached a crucial stage today when the government sought to test the credibility of a witness for Andrew W. Mellon by turning the spotlight on banks affiliated with the multi-millionaire financial dynasty.

Chief Government Counsel Robert H. Jackson charges Mellon, the Union Trust company and its subsidiaries—the Union Savings bank and City Deposit Bank & Trust company—were engaged in "a common plan to evade income taxes." To prove this, he sought information from Carl A. Korb, vice-president of the Trust company, concerning stock deals involving the banks.

Because the activities of these banks and their directors "have no bearing on the Mellon tax case," Chief Mellon Counsel Frank J. Hogan resists this line of testimony. Counsel are prepared to argue the issue before the U. S. board of tax appeals.

Hogan insists the government has no right to question witnesses about things not associated directly with the Mellon case. Disagreeing, Jackson contends the banks served as clearing houses for Mellon's "wash sales" in 1931. Because of these alleged "wash sales" the government wants $3,089,261 in additional taxes and penalties on the former treasury secretary's income for that year. Mellon seeks a $139,045 refund.

In connection with the "wash sales" Jackson offered "proof" of three transactions between the Union Trust and its subsidiaries whereby they took deductions of $4,320,000 on their income tax returns. He charged Korb was a party to the arrangements whereby Union Trust and its subsidiaries engaged in "a tax evasion plan".

BEWARE CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS

Crude, harsh substances attack color . . . Flat suds won't budge dirt . . . Hard rubbing weakens fabric . . . Clothes go to rag bag

ARE YOU TEMPTED by big bargain boxes of soap-chips? Lady . . . be careful! Find out the truth, before you take chances with clothes and linens worth hundreds of dollars!

Too little soap . . . too much rubbing

The trouble is—all that looks like soap is not soap. When you buy a big box of soap for too few pennies, look out for strong bleaching alkalies that steal the brightness away from colors. Look out for lumps which won't rinse easily—leave spots.

And in your tub, look out for stingy, flat suds that won't loosen dirt. You have to rub and RUB! You have to rinse—rinse and RINSE. Still the gray scum sticks!

Threads weaken . . . colors run

But that's only half the damage. Hard rubbing weakens threads—causes thin spots that tear easily. Colors are apt to run and fade.

No wonder frocks and blouses soon go to pieces. No wonder linens turn gray . . . wear thin.

Chipso suds save hard rubbing

But with Chipso, it's soap—just pure, rich soap that washes the dirt away. And that's a happier story! For Chipso's wealth of suds surround every fleck of dirt . . . lift it away without the strain of hard rubbing. Clothes are bound to wear longer!

Colors keep smiling

And Chipso is gentle. No harsh substances to weaken materials and fade colors. Nothing strong. Just fine, rich soap . . . and soapier suds. That's why Chipso in your tub means snowy white linens . . . pretty bright colors . . . and a long life to every fabric!

Chipso goes farther, too

You get a big box of Chipso for a low price. And it's even bigger than it looks, because Chipso is so much SOAPIER. It gives wonderful suds that stand up. You don't have to keep adding soap to keep them working. That's why your package of Chipso outlasts larger quantities of cheap thin-suds soaps.

Red hands . . strong smell . . say, "Harsh soap"

SEVEN DRESSES FADED ON ONE WASHDAY!

"I could have cried with Mary . . . the day she had to wear that faded frock to her school party," writes one young mother. "You see, I thought I'd save money by buying cheap soap-chips. Instead, I ruined all the dresses Mary had in the wash one week . . . and besides, I discovered that my linens were developing worn 'fringes.' From now on, it's safe Chipso for this household."

"We're Money Ahead With Chipso," Women Decide, "And It Makes Our Washdays Far Easier"

"Our Chipso-washed clothes wear 2 to 4 Years"

"Chipso is safe. It leaves colors bright as new," says Mrs. L. E. Frank, "yet the suds are so lively that they take dirt right out. I never rub. Rubbing wears out clothes. Our clothes last from two to four years."

"Soak only 15 minutes—get snowy white clothes"

Five clean blouses a day . . . and a daily wash for her baby . . . don't daunt Mrs. Wellington Hunter. "Chipso is quick," she smiles. "Its rich suds soak dirt loose in 15 minutes. And another thing," she adds, "it takes so little Chipso for a big wash. One box every two weeks does all our washing."

CHIPSO IS SAFE . . It Makes Clothes Wear Longer

See Sharp Boost For HOLC Fund

House Nearing Final Action On Measure To Provide New Funds

NEW LOANS MAY BE PROVIDED FOR

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—A sharp boost in the $1,500,000,000 HOLC fund requested by the administration appeared likely as the house neared final action on the measure today.

Confronted by demands from constituents, members proposed increases in the administration figure ranging from $250,000,000 to an even billion. The demand for more money was based upon sentiment to open up the home owners emergency loan agency to new applicants.

As explained by HOLC officials, the $1,500,000,000 fund would permit the making of 500,000 loans. Only applicants now on hand, however, would be eligible for loans.

The house banking committee, Rep. Hancock (D) of North Carolina said had agreed to raise the administration figure by $250,000,000 and open up applications for new loans for a 60-day period.

A proposal by Rep. Brunned (D) of New York to give the HOLC $2,500,000,000, and thus make possible loans to 800,000 or more distressed home owners, was said to be gaining strength rapidly.

Despite bitter critism of management of the HOLC, the fight for a congressional investigation was fading as the result of a concession made by the banking committee.

Ask Abandonment Of Fleet Maneuvers

Methodists See Maneuvers In Light Of Threat To Japan

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—A demand that the United States abandon its annual battle-fleet maneuvers was on record here today in the 148th annual session of the Philadelphia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The demand was embodied in an amended report of the social service commission of the conference. The commission submitted a report recommending that the fleet maneuvers be removed from the Pacific ocean. But, the report was amended from the floor to call for abolishment of the annual naval pageant, whether it be in the Pacific or the Atlantic.

More than 400 lay and clerical delegates to the meeting adopted the report on the ground that the naval maneuvers might be construed as a warlike threat to Japan. Copies of the resolution adopting the report were ordered sent to President Roosevelt and Pennsylvania's senators.

The report also advocated modification of immigration restrictions on Orientals as a gesture of international friendliness.

Lent Services To Commence Tonight

"Station Of The Cross" Service In St. Vitus Church

"Station of the Cross" services, held annually during Lent, will commence this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita announced today.

These series of services will be conducted every Friday and Sunday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. Albert Farina, assistant pastor will deliver sermons in English, on Friday evenings and the Rev. Fr. DeMita will preach in Italian on Sunday nights.

Edenburg News

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet on Wednesday at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Clara Beight of the north side.

Bobbie Biddle is slowly improving from an attack of intestinal flu.

Mrs. Marie Biddle visited Mrs. Howard Biddle at her home on Laurel Blvd., New Castle, Thursday. Mrs. Biddle has been confined to her home with a cold.

Mrs. Sara McIntoch spent Thursday at New Castle with Mrs. John Davis.

BREAD LINE BRINGS JAIL IN RED RUSSIA

MOSCOW—A new type of crime—"offences against bread"—has appeared in Soviet Russia; and ruthless measures are being taken against culprits.

Since the abolition of bread cards, the authorities are trying to see that bread is available on an unlimited scale.

The manager of a small bakery in Moscow was sentenced to eight months imprisonment for permitting a line to form in front of his shop. The charge was that he failed to open up early enough in the morning.

The United States Weather Bureau began its work under the control of the army. It was started to help the Union Army operations during the Civil War.

Ruth Connor Given Award

Raymond Street Girl Is Presented With Highest Honor Of Girl Scouting

LARGE CROWD MEETS IN EPWORTH CHURCH

One hundred seventy-five Girl Scouts, leaders and mothers witnessed the presentation of New Castle's third Golden Eaglet badge to Miss Ruth Connor, of Raymond St. Thursday night, in the Epworth M. E. Church.

It was one of the big occasions in New Castle Girl Scouting circles for the badge represents the highest honor that can be bestowed on a Girl Scout and can be won only after diligent work and meeting numerous requirements of character.

Among those present were Mrs. W. H Hanger, Girl Scout Commissioner, who is also captain of Minnehaha troop, No. 6 of which Ruth and the other Golden Eaglet wearers are members, Miss Eleanor LeFevre, local Girl Scout director, Donna Jean Beall and Beatrice Connor, sister of Ruth, Golden Eaglet scouts.

Minnehaha troop marched the length of the large assembly room in opening the ceremony, preceded by the color guard, and singing "O Beautiful Banner."

Miss LeFevre presided at the salute to the flag and led the group in singing "America."

The troop then preceeded on to the stage and separated into three groups—tenderfoot, second class and first class. Their captain Mrs. Hanger, went to the stage and addressed the honored scout, Ruth Connor.

"You have followed the Girl Scout trail for seven years" Mrs. Hanger said, "Now come again with me to reminisce over some of the experiences met on that trail."

Jean Allen, wearing a "sandwich" board representing the Girl Scout laws, joined the two, saying that she (The Laws) wanted to go through life with Ruth.

The three went along the "trail" to the tenderfoot group, then to the second class and first class groups, stopping every time to review what was learned of first aid, nature lore and so forth, in each class.

There were remembrances of the summer camps, the trip to Cook's Forest, the trip to Akron, where the scouts had a ride in a blimp, and many other delightful occasions. The trail led to Donna Jean Beall and Beatrice Connor, first and second Golden Eaglet scouts who told Ruth what the award had meant to them, and finally wound up in the presence of Mrs. Thomas Clark, chairman of the badges and awards committee who made formal presentation of the badge.

Mrs. Clark made an impressive presentation address, saying that there are three choices in life, the right, the wrong and no choice at all" and that Ruth Connor had "always chosen the right way."

Miss LeFevre led in singing. A receiving line was formed and the large crowd of guests gave congratulations to the honored scout. Attention was directed also to an exhibit of "world knowledge" handcraft work, including exhibits from Holland, China, Russia and Switzerland arrayed on a large table.

The meeting was concluded informally with a party in which ice cream cake sandwiches were served.

Ruth Connor received a congratulatory telegram yesterday from Miss Elizabeth Reis, who is visiting in Summerville, North Carolina, a member of the Girl Scout Council.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Conference Is Being Planned By Executives

Sunday School Executive Committee Plans Children's Division Affair

The regular monthly executive committee meeting of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association was held in the parlor of the Y. W. C. A. with the president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., presiding and the following members present: D. M. Marshall, vice president: Mrs. M. E. Vaughn, secretary: Miss Anna Perry, administrative department superintendent: Mrs. H. F. Magill, missions superintendent: Mrs. A. B. Street, children's division superintendent and Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, D. S. Williams and John W. Owens, additional members of the committee.

Mrs. Street stated that plans were complete for the Children's Division Conference to be held at the First Presbyterian church, New Castle, Monday, March 18, with an afternoon session, a Christian Fellowship Conference Dinner for those making reservation, and an evening session. Miss Ione Sikes, the children's division superintendent of the state association, together with a pianist and song leader for children, will be present, Mrs. Street stated, and a quota for the dinner has been assigned to every Sabbath school superintendent. The afternoon and evening sessions are open to everyone interested in children's division work, especially Sunday school teachers of this department.

The meeting was dismissed after plans were discussed for the place of meeting and the speakers for the annual county convention which is to be held in New Castle Thursday, June 13.

Hiccoughs Stop In Strange Way For Contractor

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8. — Hiccoughs which have victimized Harry A. Honse, 62, retired Homestead Park contractor, for the past nine days stopped today.

The victim's wife said Honse arose from sleep this morning to find the strange malady had left as spontaneously as it set in after a spasm of coughing and heartburn.

Truck Driver Goes On Trial

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Mar. 8.—William Haines, a trucker, of Columbia, was on trial in the Schuylkill county court today charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of two children who were run down by his truck on the highway between Suedburg and Pine Grove last December 31.

The victims, Gladys Neidlinger, a cripple, and her brother, Paul, were killed while returning home from school. A jury was selected yesterday to hear the case.

To Call Women On Federal Jury

Western Pennsylvania Women To Be Summoned In May For First Time

COURT ORDERS NAMES IN NEW JURY WHEEL

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—When jurors are selected for the May term of federal court the list will contain the names of women for the first time in western Pennsylvania's history and probably the first time in the nation's history.

Inclusion of women's names in the jury wheel for the spring term was ordered yesterday by Federal Judge Robert M. Gibson, presiding judge of the United States district court here, at the request of Mrs. John M. Phillips, president of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women.

The names of the women will be selected from the 18 western Pennsylvania counties.

Advices from Washington were that the Department of Justice was willing for women to serve on federal court juries in all states where service is authorized for state and local courts.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m., March 7, three arrests on charges as follows: Violation of parking law two, and suspicion one.

Announcement that a small zoo will be placed at Gaston park this summer will be pleasing news to the thousands of children who frequent that recreation center. Plans for the zoo have been under way for some time and according to Owen Fox he already has a collection of small animals, an owl and he proposes to secure additional birds.

Youths who break glass in fire alarm boxes and pull alarms should cease the practice immediately as it only can lead to trouble. Everytime a piece of fire apparatus answers an alarm there is probability of an accident and if a false alarm were turned in and someone injured or killed the guilty party if apprehended would be punished severely.

For a time businessmen took extraordinary pains to know that the doors of their business places were locked before they left for home at night but recently patrolmen have been finding doors open. In such cases the police sergeants telephone the businessman and he must return to the place and lock the door. However, it may happen that a burglar may find the door open before the police do which means no good for the businessman.

As yet Joseph D. Alexander, director of parks, has not met with the park commission but as soon as the session is held plans for the summer will be outlined...It is not known exactly when Safety Director Davies will make recommendations for promotions in the fire bureau... City detectives recovered three stolen bicycles yesterday but owing to the tender age of the youths who took them they were not placed in custody...Police authorities of Lawrence county and state police have never co-operated more harmoniously than at present. They are operating as a unit in the protection of the citizens.

ALFALFA MEETINGS

The production of alfalfa and the Improvement of Permanent Pastures will be the topic of discussion at two meetings to be held in the county next week.

The first of these meetings will be held at the home of C. M. Hartzel, Monday evening, March 11, at 8:00 p. m., in Shenango township.

The second meeting will be held Wednesday, March 13, at 2:00 p. m. at the home of J. F. Young in Wayne township.

All persons interested in this topic are invited to attend either of these meetings.

FEED EWES RIGHT TO GET GOOD LAMB CROP

A spring lamb crop, which some say will be the most valuable in several years, will soon be born.

A recent survey showed that 25 of every 100 lambs die, many of them at birth. One of the chief causes of this loss is insufficient feed. Some of this feed should be of a laxative nature and part of it should be of the milk producing kinds so that the ewes will be ready to produce strong lambs which will start the business of growing right at birth.

Many mothers of lambs do not have sufficient milk flow which is a definite handicap to their offspring.

In some cases the class of roughage sheepmen are forced to feed this winter is of very poor quality. Legume hay is scarce on some Lawrence county farms. This makes it highly essential that some oil meal or bran be fed to the ewes. Ewes which are not receiving legume hay should have access to a mineral mixture of equal parts of ground limestone, bone meal and salt.

Exercise, salt and plenty of water are three very cheap essentials in preparing for a good lamb crop.

CORRECT PRUNING WILL IMPROVE GRAPE VIGOR

Pruning of grapes in the commercial vineyards should be given more attention this year than in the past.

Prices received for grapes in 1932 and 1933 greatly influenced cultural practices during those years, and doubtless the short crop and prices received last year are likely to bring changes in the growing program this year. During the past few years smaller applications of fertilizer have been made and there has been a tendency to wood the vines with a larger number of buds than the vigor would permit them to carry with safety.

Many of the vineyards, as a result of this effort to cut costs, are in a low state of vigor. This condition is readily seen in the wood, which is short and weak.

If an effort is being made to economize, the best practice is to prune the vines harder. Instead of four 10-bud canes or even three 10-bud canes, the use of two canes per vine would be more advisable and only three canes should be used where the vines are exceptionally vigorous with the umbrella system. In the Chautauqua or Kniffen systems the number of canes can be reduced without materially cutting down the crop and with decided benefit from the standpoint of general production.

For the benefit of those who have grapes on arbors or trellises the one year old wood is the fruiting wood and all efforts should be made to retain this wood but remove as much older wood as possible. The old method of pruning where two buds are retained should be discarded and pruning to retain 8 to 10 buds be used.

TREAT SEED OR SOIL TO SAVE SEEDLINGS

Owing to increasing severity of canker disease of tomatoes, seed treatment with corrosive sublimate is proving to be an important preventative step.

Tomato seed should be soaked for five minutes in a 1-3000 solution of errosive sublimate and then washed for at least 15 minutes in running water.

This treatment is a partial control of damping-off but if treated seeds are planted in steam sterilized soil or the corrosive sublime 1-2000 soil drench is applied at planting time the control of damping-off will prove as effective as if bluestone, red copper oxide, or formaldehyde dust were used.

Tomato seed treated with corrosive sublime should not be planted in soil treated with formaldehyde or formaldehyde dust because of danger of injury to the plants.

PLAN GARDEN TO GROW PLENTY OF VEGETABLES

Gardens can be planned to produce an adequate amount of vegetables, not only for the summer but also to can and store for winter needs. This is the planning time, Miss Eleanor Drury, home economics Extension representative, reminds.

There are certain staple vegetables, as they might be called, such as lettuce, radishes, potatoes, cabbage and turnips which are grown in practically every garden. In addition to these desirable vegetables there are others just as worthy in nutritional values which also add variety to the meals. Among these are the green vegetables which can be eaten raw and cooked in the daily diet. The food requirements of the family can be more adequately met by raising leafy greens for use from the garden and for canning.

Beet tops, spinach, kale, swiss chard, broccoli, brussels sprouts, and chinese cabbage are easily grown and may be served in many attractive appetizing dishes both raw and cooked. Tomatoes also should be raised in large enough quantities to furnish a generous supply to use fresh and to can for winter consumption, Miss Drury says.

Everyone in the family can eat tomatoes. Even the month-old baby may have one-half teaspoon of strained juice daily, diluted at first but gradually increased in strength and amount to three tablespoons at one year of age. Tomatoes can be served at any meal and in a variety of ways. They contain iron, phosphorus and vitamins, A, B, C, and G, thus making them one of our most desirable vegetables.

(International News Service)

DENVER.—Rugged "individualism" still survives in at least one community, it is shown in the report the Colorado state planning board submitted on the results of a survey of projects through the state that could provide the greatest amount of employment to the largest number of persons.

Officials of Ophir, a mining camp town located in southwestern Colorado, replied to a questionaire that they had no project to propose. They insisted that they wanted none of the $4,800,000,000 the federal government is expected to provide for such projects.

Prize Hunting Story Of Season

(International News Service)

DENVER.—Edmund Burke and R. E. Mackey, Denver sportsmen, went rabbit hunting.

They saw a rabbit running into a culvert. Burke went to one end of the cudvelt, Mackey to the opposite end.

Burke heard a noise and fired into the culvert.

Mackey was brought to a Denver hospital with two shot wounds in his face.

YOUTH IN CUSTODY

Victor Hudson, 16, 307 Pearson street, was arrested at 12:15 a. m. today on a charge of suspicion, it having been alleged that he had been inside the Rohrer restaurant, East Washington street, which has been entered several times recently.

Jack Court, an attache of the place, who was passing, claims he chased the boy to a nearby gasoline station. The lad denied he was in the restaurant.

We live in memory and by memory, and our spiritual life is at bottom simply the effort of our memory to persist, to transform itself into hope, the effort of our past to transform itself into our future.

President Roosevelt Heads List Of Dignitaries At Funeral Of Holmes Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Oliver Wendell Holmes is to be escorted today by the president of his country to a tree-protected knoll in Arlington to sleep with another president and the nation's warriors.

Simple funeral services were held at All Souls Church at noon.

Admired By All

The many persons who knew or didn't know Oliver Wendell Holmes personally but who admired him and sent him cheery congratulatory messages on this, his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary, changed them to condolences to his nephew, Edward Holmes, his closest relative. His intimates here who usually called at the plain, red brick house in I street to wish him well on his anniversary, went to his funeral services instead.

Death stole upon the former associate justice of the supreme court Wednesday during his sleep.

Three Men Face Serious Charges

Prominent Attorney And Two Others In Philadelphia Held On Bond Charges

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 8.—Accused of participating in a purported conspiracy of flooding Philadelphia with stolen securities, a socially prominent attorney and two other men faced arraignment today.

The three suspects are Arthur G. Dickson, well-known attorney of Chestnut Hill, Samuel T. Blieden, professional bondsman, and Harry A. Stone, real estate dealer.

The three men were held in $10,000 bail each at a magistrate's hearing following their arrest.

Confession Made

The arrests were made on the basis of information supplied by Assistant District Attorney Earl J. Gratz who said that George De Horth, of New York, who is serving a three-year term in the county prison at Holmesburg, made a confession implicating Dickson, Blieden and Stone.

Importing stolen bonds into the state from New York, obtaining money under false pretenses and conspiracy are the charges confronting the three men.

Throws Self Under Truck

Mercer Is Scene Of Unusual Suicide On Thursday Afternoon

(International News Service)

MERCER, Pa., Mar. 8—Funeral arrangements were being completed today for O. C. Tennant, 55, of Fairmont, W. Va., who committed suicide by throwing himself under the wheels of an on-coming truck near here yesterday.

Tennant and a companion, both paroled patients of the Mercer sanitarium, were taking a walk when the former's unexpected and sudden action ended his life. He died in an ambulance enroute to a hospital.

The driver of the truck, Stanley Buczynski, Erie, was unable to avoid striking Tennant and the body was carried for 10 feet before the truck heavily loaded, could be stopped.

Parachute Jumper Dies From Want Of Supply Of Oxygen

(International News Service)

COPENHAGEN, Mar. 8—One too many stunts today had resulted fatally for John Tranum, Hollywood dare-devil parachute jumper.

Tranum died of want of oxygen in a 28,000 feet ascent preparatory to an attempt to raise his own 17,000 feet delayed drop record. Still climbing, his pilot noticed Tranum adjust his oxygen mask then feebly signal for a descent. The pilot plunged rapidly to thicker atmosphere, but Tranum became unconscious and an hour's effort to revive him failed.

Detain Two In Death Of Man

Question Two In Death Of Bellefonte, Pa., Barber In Auto In 1934

(International News Service)

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Two men were detained by state police today pending an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of Harold Guy Coll, a local barber, nearly a year ago.

The men were Willard Eckel, 32, Lock Haven, and David Carver, 34, Bellefonte, state police said. No charges have been brought.

Coll, clad only in his underclothing, was found fatally injured in his car here May 19, 1934. Police said he had been beaten, he died four days later without making any statement. Police said they were told Carver, his wife and Mrs. Coll were with the victim the night before he was found.

Archbishop Will Be Sent Into Exile, Report From Mexico

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 8.—Archbishop Pascual Diaz, titular head of the Catholic church in Mexico, will be sent into exile, members of the Catholic Episcopate announced they had learned today.

The Archbishop, who yesterday failed to return to his home after a visit to a near-by town, will be removed from the country "to quiet the nationwide Catholic agitation now assuming formidable proportions," it has been reported.

The drastic step was decided upon by President Cardenas and his cabinet as followers of the Archbishop were speculating upon his disappearance, first noted when the prelate's secretary was informed by telephone that Mgr. Diaz had been "arrested."

Catholic investigators declared that the Archbishop was seized along the Cuatitlan road by government agents, and brought to Cuatitlan without opportunity to communicate with anyone.

Death Reveals Amazing Story

Eighty-One Year Old Colorado Widow Found Frozen To Death

STUCK TO PROMISE MADE TO HUSBAND

(International News Service)

DENVER, Mar. 8—"Baby Doe" Tabor, 81-year-old widow of the late United States Senator H. A. W. Tabor, Colorado silver king, will be buried beside the man she married when he had $11,000,000 and remained with through poverty and privation, according to plans laid here today.

Mrs. Tabor, whose frozen body was found in her shack beside the Matchless mine on Fryer hill above the city of Leadville, will be brought to Denver. Tabor's remains will be removed from the abandoned Calvary cemetery, where they have lain neglected for many years, and placed beside those of "Baby Doe" in a cemetery.

Mrs. Tabor apparently froze to death when, weak and ill, she was unable to reach the woodbox in her shack to get fuel for the stove.

For many years Mrs. Tabor lived in the shack beside the mine shaft, in accordance with a promise made to her late husband to "guard the Matchless". The fact that ownership of the property had passed from her hands was never accepted by her.

Physicians said she had been dead about two weeks. She was last seen on Feb. 21.

Tabor and "Baby Doe" were married in Washington, D. C., with President Chester A. Arthur, cabinet members and senators present.

The Tabor fortune, estimated at $11,000,000 at the time of his marriage to "Baby Doe", was acquired in a series of amazing silver strikes in the Leadville field. Collapse of the silver market in 1893 plunged Tabor into comparative poverty.

Frustrate Jail Delivery Plot

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Mar. 8.—Warden Frank Sain questioned 30 prisoners of the Cook county jail today following frustration of a wholesale escape plot led by Chester Novak, 27, a condemned murdered.

In Novak's clothing guards found a key, made from a spoon, which fitted two iron doors which bar the route to the main exit. Five saw blades were discovered in the "bullpen" near the cell block.

Alleged Murderer Shot By Accident

Detroit Police Arrest Nephew Of Slain Man, Seek Another

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mar. 8.—Dominic Abbo, 50, wanted for questioning in a murder committed in Brownsville, Pa., in 1922, died here early today after he had been accidentally shot by his nephew, John Chew, 22, yesterday. Abbo attempted to escape from the three policemen who came to his home to question him yesterday.

A warrant charging Chew with manslaughter will be issued today. Before he died, Abbo said he knew nothing of the murder. Police are hunting for Chew's father, said to be a suspect in the murder.

Peter Preaches To Gentiles

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Acts 10:34b, 35—"God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him."

(The international uniform lesson on the above topic for March 10 is Acts 10:1-11 ; 15:6-11, especially 10:34-48, the Golden Text being 10:34b, 35, "God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

Although Jesus manifested utmost breadth of sympathy for all races and classes of people, and told his disciples of "other sheep not of this fold whom he must bring" to hear his voice that there might be "one fold and one Shepherd"; although he at his ascension commissioned his disciples to evangelize all nations, more than 10 years passed before the early church really opened the door of fellowship and spiritual privilege to other nationalities than the Jews. And when the new idea of broader fellowship was born it was attended by birth pangs of the severest sort. Race prejudice dies hard in every age.

Peter's Sympathies Enlarged

God was preparing Cornelius, a gentile centurion at Caesarea, to receive the gospel. But he knew he would have a harder task to get Peter to carry that gospel to a gentile than to get the gentile to receive it. So God sent a vision to Peter like a great sheet let down from heaven containing "all manner of four-footed beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven". And when a voice commanded Peter to kill and eat of that motley collection of creatures he demurred, saying, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean." Then came a voice saying, "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common." In other words, "Don't be more strict or more conservative than God himself!"

In immediate connection with this strange thrice repeated vision came the three gentile messengers from Cornelius seeking Peter and entreating him to accompany them to Caesarea to preach the gospel to a gentile group. The vision was not wasted on Peter. He had sense enough to put three and three together, "So he called them in and lodged them." That was a good beginning in a broadening fellowship and enlarging sympathy of Jew for gentile.

God No Respecter of Persons

Still further ventures in this larger fellowship were taken two days later when Peter entered the home of Cornelius saying not as an apology but as an emancipation proclamation: "Ye ourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation: and yet unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean."

His sermon to his gentile congregation is a marvelous epitome of the gospel he later gave John Mark, a beautiful resume of the life and mission of Christ the universal Saviour: "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness is acceptable to him. . . . Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil. . . . . Whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest . . . to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead . . . that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins."

The Gentile Pentecost

This gospel was received with faith and the result was a repetition of Pentecost as the Holy Spirit came with power, with the gift of tongues and probably also with tongues of fire, "even as on us at the beginning", Peter says, "with no distinction between us and them". When the church later at Jerusalem approved Peter's reception of gentiles into full free fellowship it merely showed it had caught step with God in his onward march toward the brotherhood of man in Christ.

World Day Of Prayer Service At Park Church

New Castle's observance of "World Day of Prayer" opened this morning at the First Christian church, with all women's missionary societies of the city taking part.

The morning session was devoted mainly to a consecration service. A luncheon was served in the church at noon, and at 1:15 p. m. the service was continued. The meeting is inter-denominational.

Green Refused Conference On Motor Industry

Manufacturers Affiliated With A. M. A. Do Not Want To Confer With Labor Chief

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mar. 8—Stating that the automobile manufacturer's association "has no occasion to carry on collective bargaining," Alfred Reeves, vice president, today refused William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, a conference with manufacturers affiliated with the A. M. A.

Green, in a letter February 27, asked for the conference for the "purpose of negotiating an agreement applicable to workers regarding wages, hours and conditions of employment in the automobile manufacturing industry."

Arrange Conferences

"This association is not itself an employer of automobile workers and has no occasion to carry on collective bargaining," Reeves letter said. "It does not arrange such conferences as you suggest. The manufacturers—members of the association—bargain collectively with their respective employes through representatives of their employ's own choosing."

In his reply to Green, Reeves charged the A. F. of L. is "creating a strife in the industry" by withdrawing from the president's automobile settlement and asking its 176 unions to take a strike vote.

SEWAGE CONVERTED INTO ELECTRICITY

(International News Service)

BERLIN—Electric power and fertilisers from sewage.

The City of Hanover has just completed a plant which can convert sewage to these uses.

After the poisonous substances have been removed, the sewage is allowed to decompose in tanks until it can be converted into fertiliser. The gas which escapes during this process is used in internal combustion engines for generating electric power.

Statistics just compiled show that Pennsylvanians purchased 4,488,289 gallons of hard liquor from state stores during the first year of repeal.

SPRING DRESSES NOTED FOR BEAUTIFUL DETAILS

Beautiful details mark the new spring dresses, and the two models pictured bear out the statement. Left is a silk crepe with stitched collar which can be worn up or down. Rhinestone bow knots accent the three black bows and the fluted vest beneath. The black silk crepe afternoon frock, right, has a stitched bib collar and cuffs trimmed with a renaissance roll of white faille silk.

Mellon Hearing Resumes Monday

Tax Case Is Adjourned During Day Out Of Respect For Holmes

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—The U. S. board of tax appeals adjourned hearings in the three million dollars Mellon income tax battle today out of respect to former associate justice Oliver Wendell Holmes after taking the first major legal question of the case under advisement.

When hearings are resumed Monday, the board will rule whether the government may test the credibility of a witness and the Union Trust Company by considering stock transactions between that bank and its subsidiaries.

Chief government counsel Robert H. Jackson seeks this authority to obtain data essential to prove the government's demand for $3,089,261 in taxes and penalties on Andrew W. Mellon's 1931 income. Frank J. Hogan, attorney for the financier who want a $139,045 refund, opposes the move.

Jackson told the board he wants information on Union Trust transactions to "show the bias" of Carl A. Korb, vice-president of that firm. He charges Korb and other bank officials were implicated in "transactions identical to those in the mellon case."

"Kiki" Roberts Asked To Leave

Allentown Officials Ask Sweetheart Of Late Jack "Legs" Diamond To Leave

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Mar. 8—Marion "Kiki" Roberts, one-time musical comedy actress and sweetheart of the slain Jack "Legs" Diamond, left Allentown today after police authorities informed her that her presence was undesirable.

Authorities said there had been no complaint against Miss Roberts' behavior since her arrival here early this week and revealed their action was taken "because we do not wish to attract persons who have gained such notoriety."

The former show girl, barred from the movies, has been earning a living giving dance exhibitions in small towns and in road houses.

BOSTON—The police of the Mattapan station were told that "carriding is a thrilling sport," by Gordon Gaull, 11 of Roxbury who spent a whole day riding throughout the entire Boston Elevated Railway system with money that had been given him for the movies.

Two And A Half Million Youths Are Without Jobs

Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Finds Big Increase In Employables

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—More than 2,500,000 boys and girls have arrived at working age since 1929, only to find no employment and to know nothing but living as public wards, on relief.

This condition was revealed today by Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins.

"The net annual increase of employables since 1929 has been approximately 500,000 a year," Hopkins said. "These boys and girls arriving at a working age know nothing but relief."

Throughout the country the average number of employables in each family is 1.6. President Roosevelt has estimated the work relief program provided in the $4,880,000,000 work relief bill pending in Congress will provide employment for 3,500,000.

Heads of families, under the administration program, are to be given preference in jobs. This means the 2,500,000 young persons who have become of working age in the last five years will have to depend on a revival of industry and private employment for jobs.

INDUSTRY DECLINES

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Mar. 8.—Once a leading industry here, the manufacture of cigars is almost a forgotten industry in this city. In contrast to the 1,625,000 produced annually several decades ago, only 78,000 cigars were made in 1934.

Pomona Program Fills Entire Day

Pleasant Hill Grange Host To Governing Body Of County's Granges

CALL NEXT SESSION FOR EARLY IN JUNE

Lawrence county's Pomona grange members assembled this week at Pleasant Hill grange, Portersville-Ellwood City road, to consider grange problems and to enjoy entertainment furnished by Pomona's subordinate granges. Eleven granges were represented.

Master W. Sharp Fullerton presided over the forenoon and afternoon sessions.

Routine matters came up for attention following the opening exercises and among the visitors who heard business talked were Pomona Master Haner and Mrs. Haner and their daughter of Mercer county, and several members of the Pomona organization of Beaver county.

Featuring the forenoon assembly was a tableau entitled "Three Things for Which the Grange Stands — Religion, Patriotism and Knowledge".

Morning Program Entertains

The morning also brought a variety of other entertainment by the talented Grange folk.

At noon the ladies of Pleasant Hill served a delicious dinner.

Interesting reports of subordinate Granges in Lawrence county and of activity in the juvenile Granges were submitted to the assembly during the afternoon hours, following which East New Castle Grange presented a program which featured musical and reading numbers.

During the roll call the lecturer conducted an apple-guessing contest.

Host Grange Wins Contest.

The attendance contest on percentages of membership at the January, February and March meetings was won by Pleasant Hill grange. Wilmington took second honors, Plaingrove third and Big Beaver and Willard tied for fourth.

Wilmington grange presented a program for the audience late in the afternoon. It featured instrumental numbers.

"The Mothers' Assistance Fund" was the topic of a talk which Mrs. Eugene Sampson, member of the Mothers' Assistance Fund board of the county, delivered.

A play, "He Liked Them Modern," was the climax to the day's literary programs.

Resolutions which will be sent to local representatives in the state's legislative halls were offered at the close.

Pomona will meet next at the Plaingrove hall on June 5 with members of Washington county's Pomona grange as special guests.

The Hill Traveling gavel and program will be brought to Lawrence county, it was announced, by Washington county on June 5. The following day the Lawrence Pomona group will take it to Clarion county.

Two conferences have been arranged for all masters and lecturers of granges in Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties for the spring. The first will take place at London grange and the second at Harmony grange, both neighboring county halls. State Master J. Audley Boak, will preside at the masters' conference and State Lecturer Mrs. Ira Gross will lead the lecturers' discussion.

Damage Suits Total $150,000

Gas And Electric Company Defendants In Big Suit, Due To Fatal Explosion

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Mar. 8—Two damage suits totaling $150,000 today were filed against the Luzerne County Gas and Electric Company as a result of an explosion that wrecked the Paukstis building in Edwardsville last week, killing six persons and injuring eight others seriously.

Mrs. Rose Moran sued for $50,000 for the death of a son and Mrs. Anna Bienish $100,000 for the death of her husband.

SWITZERLAND HAS HIGHEST SUICIDE RATE IN EUROPE

MUNICH, Bavaria—Out of every million inhabitants in Switzerland between 210 and 260 become suicides yearly, it is shown by a Munich Medical society analysis of suicide statistics collected since 1900.

The rate in Switzerland is more than double the average for all Europe which reaches only 97 per million.

France, Germany and Denmark have the next highest rate after Switzerland. Ireland has one of the lowest rates in Europe.

The extremely high rate for Switzerland is attributed by statisticians to the large number of foreign invalids who go there in the vain hope of regaining their health.

Probes Secrets Of Atomic Rays

British Inventor Conducts Weird Experiments In Lonely Mountain Retreat

(International News Service)

LONDON, Mar. 8.—In an attempt to conquer death—in the air, under the sea and in the human body—a British inventor is probing the secrets of electricity and mysterious atomic rays in a lonely mountain retreat in South Wales.

His objects—as nearly so fantastic as to rival the imaginings of Jules Verne and H. G. Wells—are:

To perfect a device for detecting the presence of submarines 30 miles away;

To discover a ray to kill disease germs;

To set up a new aerial defense for London, or any other city, by rockets and steel-wire gossamer aprons which will hang in the sky;

To devise rocket airplanes to travel at the incredible speed of six miles a second, with which man might be able to reach the moon.

This genius who is quietly attempting to harness the air in the service of humanity is Harry Grindell-Matthews, formerly known as "Death Ray Matthews", from whom the British government a few years ago bought a motor boat controlled by light, with guns that were fired by searchlight beam.

Opposed To Japan Giving Financial Help To Chinese

Claim Japanese Would Take Advantage Of Opportunity To Get Control

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The United States today stood definitely opposed to any move by Japan to obtain control over China by extending it separate financial aid.

In reply to the recent British inquiry as to whether the United States would be prepared to join in an international move to aid China financially, the state department said this government favors cooperative rather than individual action to help China, if such help is deemed desirable.

Seek Influence

Under Secretary of State William Phillips notified the British ambassador this government would give sympathetic consideration to the possibility of rendering aid to China "by cooporative action."

The British move was prompted both by appeals from the Chinese government and by reports that Japan was planning to extend separate financial assistance in return for special privileges which would give Tokyo a dominating influence over China.

Measles Epidemic Sweeps Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—With four deaths already reported, Pittsburgh today was in the throes of the most severe measles epidemic it has experienced in several years.

Since the first of the year, 2,408 cases of measles have been reported. Of the number, 1,458 developed in February, while during the first five days of March 460 cases were recorded. The epidemic should reach its peak toward the end of the current month, according to Dr. P. E. Marks, superintendent of the city bureau of infectious diseases.

Increase In Oil Stocks Is Noted

Texas And California Oil Fields Show Big Jump In Production

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Stocks of domestic and foreign crude petroleum at the close of the week ending March 2 totaled 323,575,000 barrels, a net increase of 2,208,000 barrels, over the previous week, the bureau of mines reported to oil administrator Harold L. Ickes today.

The chief increases were in the East Texas "hot oil" fields, 762,000 barrels up, and California, 786,000 barrels up.

Imports were 119,000 barrels daily average, approximately three times the average imports for the previous week, while production was 2,545,000 daily average, a decline of 45,000 from the previous week.

Deny Report That Alyce Jane McHenry Needs Transfusion

Hospital Authorities In Massachusetts Report Girl Now Progressing Well

(International News Service)

FALL RIVER, Mass., Mar. 8.—Authorities at Truesdale hospital today denied reports that preparations were being made to give a blood transmusion to 10-year-old Alyce Jane McHenry, of Omaha, Neb., recovering from an operation which righted her "upside down" stomach.

"There is no immediate blood transfusion contemplated," declared one member of the hospital staff. "If Alyce Jane continues to show the same steady improvement she has shown the past three days since her operation, and can continue taking the beef broth, orange juice and cereal diet, a blood transfusion will not be necessary."

The first bulletin issued today on Alyce's condition read:

"Temperature 100, pulse 100, respiration 20. Fairly restful night. Progress continues."

House Committee Reports Favorably On Lundeen Bill

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Disregarding the administration social security program, the Democratic controlled house labor committee today voted to report favorably the Lundeen unemployment insurance bill estimated to cost 11 billion dollars a year.

The bill will be put forward in opposition to the administration's economic security bill which is slated for a favorable report by the ways and means committee next week.

The Lundeen, or so-called "workers security bill" would grant every unemployed person average local wages but not less than $10 a week plus $3 for each dependent.

Truck and Bus In Collision

Thirteen On Bus Bruised And Bumped As Result Of Crash Near Pottsville

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Thirteen passengers aboard a bus enroute to Mauch Chunk escaped with bumps and bruises today when the vehicle was struck head-on by a truck whose driver, Emil J. Barth, Hazleton, was seriously injured.

John Gallagher, Lansford, the bus driver, said the truck suddenly went out of control on the ice-covered, treacherous Bell Volliery curve west of Tamaqua. Both bus and truck were badly damaged. Barth was in the hospital in a serious condition.

Annual Meeting Of Primitive Church Held Last Evening

New Officers Are Elected; Rev. Sutton Is Asked To Serve For Another Year

At the annual meeting of the Primitive Methodist church Thursday night the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year:

Society steward—Miss Mae Sands.

Church clerk—Mrs. Henry Gibson.

Delegate to annual conference—Miss Sadie Lewis.

Alternate—Miss Marian MacKenzie.

The congregation, as is the yearly custom, voted upon a pastor. It was agreed to extend a call to the present pastor, Rev. Harold J. Sutton, to serve for another year. The congregation will await Rev. Sutton's reply.

Offer Morgenthau Bribe Of $1500 To Get Valuable Number

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Federal agents were put on the trail today of a New York "numbers" operator who was brash enough to write a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau offering him a bribe of $1,500 to make today's number "55329".

The numbers game is operated by taking the last five dollar digits in the daily treasury balance. Today's number was really 43918.

Beyond saying the letter was mailed in New York state and that they had a clew to the sender, treasury officials would not comment.

Air Complaints Of Dual Employment In Relief Set-up

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Although more than 1,000 complaints were originally received, only 123 families in the entire state relief administration setup had more than one member on the payroll, state relief director Robert L. Johnson announced today.

There are 11,000 persons on the state and county relief board payrolls. Of the 123 families affected by Johnson's ruling against nepotism, dual employment has been eliminated in 72 families by dismissal of that number of persons. Three others are employed on work which will be discontinued shortly, seven cases of dual employment were families maintaining separate households and 28 others will be replaced shortly.

No action has been taken on five cases and the last eight were exempted because the total salaries of the two or more persons from one home was less than $35, used for the sole support of from five to 12 persons.

Keep this in mind for next summer. Scoop out equal portions of watermelon and cantaloupe with melon scoop, and pour sherry wine over them. Let stand in cold place for an hour, and serve as fruit cocktail.

Youthful Slayer Will Tell Story To Grand Jury

Buffalo Prosecutor Says It It Is Up To Grand Jury To Decide On Story Of Boy

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 8—Announcing he believed it was up to the Erie County grand jury to decide whether Richard Kloes, 11, was legally guilty of his self-confessed murder of his father, District Attorney Walter C. Newcomb today will let the boy tell his own story to that body.

Newcomb pointed out that when he calls the boy to testify, he will be forced to grant him immunity from prosecution, Richard not being legally old enough to sign a waiver of immunity and an indictment charging first degree murder will be asked against an unnamed person.

FHA Officials Visit Office Here

Field Representatives Are Guests Of County Director Feuchtwanger

J. J. Gallagher of Erie, and Joseph C. Flanagan of Pittsburgh, field representatives of the Federal Housing Administration, are visiting the local FHA office here today, conferring with Marcus Feuchtwanger, county director.

Because of the fact that the local FHA office was among the first organized in the nation, and their setup has been so efficient, the local office is looked upon as a model by the administration.

The Plante cell is the simplest form of storage battery and in an improved form is still much used where weight and space are of little importance.

Famous Doctor Taken By Death

Death Claims Dr. William Duane, 62, One-Time Associate Of Madame Curie

(International News Service)

DEVON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Dr. William Duane, 62, internationally noted scientist, direct descendant of Benjamin Franklin and one-time associate of Madame Curie, the late great discoverer of radium, was dead at his home here today. He succumbed to a long illness yesterday.

Despite the fact that he was under a physician's care for the past two years, Dr. Duane persisted in his research studies of cancer, X-ray and a variety of other scientific subjects.

Dr. Duane served in the Curie radium laboratories at the University of Paris from 1907 to 1912. He was a native Philadelphian, tracing his ancestry directly to Franklin.

Students In Row Over Oath Bill

Representatives Of 17 Colleges In Bitter Row At Albany, N. Y.

(International News Service)

ALBANY, Mar. 8.—Chance for passage of the Nunan student's oath bill, approved by the senate and still locked in assembly committee, were enhanced today by the bitter row which broke out 150 students from 17 colleges who came here to oppose the measure.

Radical and conservative elements among the students failed to agree. As a result, the conference broke up with six colleges withdrawing and the rest taking a vote of confidence in themselves.

The climax of the stormy session came when an unidentified male student strode up to a newspaper woman, who was "covering" the conference, seized her notes and raced from the room. Although the conference reconvened hurriedly and voted a public apology to the writer, the notes were not returned.

A resolution was adopted, with some of the colleges not voting, attacking newspapers supporting the bill, as well as the D. A. R., the American Legion and the Elks.

You'll Find City Mission Welcomes Outworn Articles

Spring House-Cleaning Nears And Mission Seeks Odds-And-Ends

Spring brings house-cleaning time and house-cleaning time always turns furniture odd-and-ends for donation to the City Rescue Mission.

Superintendent B. J. Watkins and his staff today were completing arrangements to receive the furniture gifts that always appear at this season of the year.

"Cleaning time is almost here again," the superintendent commented, "and the ladies will find many old pieces of furniture which they will be glad to dispose of. Many articles of clothing, now of no use to their families, always are uncovered. The Mission as always, will be glad to receive them as gifts for presentation to needy families. Housekeepers may call 430 and the mission truck will collect any kind of a donation.

Mr. Watkins spoke the mission's thanks for those who have been contributing articles to it month in and month out. "Many a worthy person has been helped," he said.

Eckert Votes With Opposition To Retirement Pay

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 8—Representative Charles L. Eckert, of Beaver, this week joined with a Republican-Democratic coalition which successfully opposed a bill backed by the Administration to permit United States Supreme Court judges to retire with full pay guaranteed.

Under existing laws supreme court justices may not retire. If they wish to leave the bench they must resign and Congress may then give them such retirement money as it so elects. The bill offered in the House this week by Roosevelt followers would have permitted such justices to retire with retirement pay equivalent to their active pay.

Opposition to the measure developed and it was finally defeated by a 210 to 144 ballot with party lines broken. Representative Eckert was one of those voting against it.

SUBDUES MARCH WEATHER

Anything can happen in March

says the Chief Climatologist, United States Weather Bureau

Weather Bureau records show that the old saying, "If March comes in like a lion it goes out like a lamb," has more truth to it than most weather proverbs, as this month has long been known as one of very changeable weather.

Anything is likely to happen. A single day may bring nearly all kinds of weather in quick succession. Rapid temperature changes are normally of frequent occurrence and extremely cold weather sometimes occurs.

In the eastern states, zero weather has occurred in March as far south as Georgia, and 30° to 35° below zero in some northeastern districts. Rainfall in March usually is heavy in the southeastern states. In the northeastern states rain or snow occurs usually on about twelve days of the month. Snowfall is sometimes heavy.

March is normally cloudy in the northeast with an average of only about five hours a day of sunshine in the Middle Appalachian mountain districts. Thunderstorms become increasingly frequent during this month.

A statement by Joseph B. Kincer, Chief Climatologist, United States Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C.

FREEZING cold before breakfast. Blazing hot at noon. Perhaps a thunderstorm before night. That's March . . . toughest month of the year for the gasoline in your car. That gasoline must be volatile enough to give quick starting at zero . . . yet the volatility must not stall your car from "vapor lock" when the thermometer mounts to 70° or 80° above.

ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS more than meets these difficult specifications. It is a quick-starting motor fuel of low vapor pressure . . . more expensive to make, yes . . . but therefore much more satisfactory to use.

Contrary to customary practice, ATLANTIC does not make merely a winter and a summer gasoline. It is constantly changing WHITE FLASH PLUS to meet changing weather conditions. That's why it is ideal for March. And it sells at the price of regular gasoline. Fill your tank today . . . and turn the wild March lion into a harmless little lamb!

No business can long endure without true service to its customers. We believe that ATLANTIC'S steady growth over 70 years reflects the extra quality which we constantly strive to put in our products. * * * We think of ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS as something more than "just gasoline." It must definitely be the best . . . so as to meet the emergencies of life, as well as to give dependable and inexpensive service in every-day use.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

ERIE SINGERS COMING

Members of New Castle's Parent-Teachers Ass'n. and their friends are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the well-known Academy A Cappella choir of Erie on the evening of March 14.

The choir consists of sixty-eight voices, thirty male and thirty-eight ladies under the direction of Prof. O. L. Grender, who was for five years a member of the famous St. Olaf choir.

The group will stop here for the night while enroute to Pittsburgh where it will appear before a convention of music supervisors from eastern Canada and the New England and middle Atlantic states. The honor of singing before such an important musical group is one greatly coveted by scholastic choirs and this year the invitation came to the visiting artists from our neighbor to the north.

The concert will appeal, not only to the many students in the local schools who appreciate fine music but to many also from nearby towns and to music lovers in general. The quality of the music employed and the manner in which it is sung has brought many fine tributes from nearly every state in the union and from at least two foreign countries. Only a few days ago the choir was invited to sing in Canada and will probably tour four or five cities in Ontario early in April.

The concert will be held in the auditorium of senior high school and proceeds will be turned oved by the P. T. A. to local school authorities to be used in underwriting expenses for the April 12 and 13 conclave here of nearly 2,000 Northwestern students for the annual Northwestern Pennsylvania Inter-Schclastic Forensic and Music contest. The contest will be one of the largest of its kind to take place here.

LIBRARY SQUAD ORGANIZED

Due to the large number of students using the library recently Miss Westlake has found it necessary to organize a squad to help in checking ing the attendance and in taking care of the library. These students are: Robert Miner, Carl Custer, Laura Lewis, Ernest Royal, Mary Toney, James Carey, Leo Gensante, Eugenia Matt, Rodney Williams, Everett Barker, Betty McIlvenny, Rose Nader, John Rozak, Mary Cestrone, Russell Gustafson, Marian Butler, Robert Dilley, Jeanne Hartland, Louise Corio, Pat Cubbison, Betty Rick, Sarah Andakian, Edward Manning, Helen Markley, Geo. Andrews, James Dart, Jack Dukes.

REPRESENTATIVES BALLOT

With President Lawrence Bennett in the chair the student representatives met Tuesday for the first time this semester. Pauline Booher was eleced secretary, Marianne Francis, assistant secretary, and Patricia Montgomery vice president. A new seating plan for the students at Taggart Field was presented. This proposal will be voted upon after it has been explained to the student body, thereby having the vote reflect the opinion of the students.

NEW STUDENT COUNCIL

GOLF ASSEMBLY HELD

Through the efforts of P. H. Bridenbaugh, athletic coach, an assembly was held Tuesday morning for all those interested in golf. "Dike" Monsey, local professional and manager of New Castle Golf Course will act as the instructor for the group. He will be assisted by Richard Monsey, another very capable player. After the group has been instructed in the technique of the game, the most capable players will be chosen for a team to play other high school teams this coming spring. Mr. Monsey explained how he would instruct the pupils, what would be expected of them and he also stated that these training classes would be held every Monday and Thursday, third period. Mr. Bridenbaugh gave a list of the teams that have asked for games with New Castle. He also stated that there was a possibility of the girls organizing a team.

DANCE ON MARCH 15

The Senior A's are giving a party and dance for the whole school, on March 15, from 7:30 to 11:30. This promises to be a fine dance, and everyone is urged to attend. The committees for the various functions have been appointed. They are:—Refreshments—Chairman Bob Johnson, Richard Warner, Thomas Holliday, Betty Kay Matthews: Guests, John Thompson, chairman, Jean Cassellman: orchestra, James Fox; tickets, Jim Bradford, chairman, Nancy Duff, Tom Schnebly, Bob Bougher, Viola Dufford, Jean Hoose, Kathleen Shuttlew,o r t h Pauline Booher: decorations, James Donnelly, chairman Charles Book, Dave Guido and Bernard Chill.

GRADE MARKS GO OUT

Senior high students received their regular report marks during classes on Thursday. Within a few days they will be presented to students for parental inspection.

FUND BALANCE

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8—The state retirement fund balance is now $15,102,398 of which $1,322,137 is in cash.

COMING To End RUPTURE Troubles

Representatives of Wm. S. Rice, Adams, N. Y., originator of the Rice Method for the self treatment of rupture at home, will be at the Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa., Wednesday, March 13, to give a personal and free trial of his method to all sufferers who want to end rupture trouble and truss wearing.

No matter how bad the rupture, how long you have had it, or how hard to hold; no matter how many kinds of trusses you have worn, let nothing prevent you from getting this FREE TRIAL. Whether you are tall and thin, short and stout, have a large abdomen, whether you think you are past help or have a rupture as large as your fists, this marvelous Method will so control and keep it up inside as to surprise you it will so restore the parts where the rupture comes through that soon you will be as free to work at any occupation as though you had never been ruptured.

For the lady callers a woman expert, thoroughly trained, will assist in the demonstrations in private apartments. The trial will be absolutely complete and thorough without a penny of cost.

You owe it to your own personal comfort and safety not to miss the great free demonstration. It is a real opportunity to learn how you may be done with chafing trusses and the danger, suffering and trouble your rupture has caused.

The hours are 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m. and evenings 7 to 9. Remember the dates and place, Leslie Hotel, New Castle, Pa.

7,000 sheets Newburgh Peace Commemorative.

5,000 sheets of each of the souvenir panes.

These amounts will never even cover the demands of collectors on the first day therefore it is called the "initial printing". Postmaster Farley intends that therefore shall be a sufficient number of stamps available for all collectors. Most of these sheets of stamps will be uncut, unperforated, and ungummed. Because they are not going to be sold at any postoffice the Postoffice Department is making an exception and allowing them to be used as postage

Will Accomodate Postmark Collectors

The Postoffice Department has issued orders to all postmasters to co-operate with any reasonable request for postmarks from queer named towns and cities. This is providing return postage is enclosed and the postmark can either be secured on a slip of white paper or upon an envelope that is prepared for sending through the mail. This accommodation however, is limited to philatelists only, and trying to secure postmarks for other than philatelic purposes will be useless. This announcement appeared in the February 25 issue of the Postal Bulletin.

Official notice went out to all postmasters on February 19, that hereafter the country heretofore known as "Persia" will now be called "Iran" the official name in the language of that country.

Arbor Day Stamp Illustration

This is a two cent stamp and was authorized in commemoration of the sixtieth anniversary of the establishment of Arbor Day, on April 22, 1932 in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of J. Sterling Morton, through whose efforts a day was first officially set aside for the planting of trees in the State of Nebraska in 1872.

The picture on the stamp seems at first glance to conflict with the country's law prohibiting any living person to be shown on a United States stamp. The picture is of a boy or a girl planting a tree, the girl holding the tree while the earth is filled in by the boy. The children are Ruth and Alvin W Hall, Jr. Their father is Alvin W. Hall, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at that time. This does not conflict with the ruling however, because they were merely used as models to portray the spirit of Arbor Day.

Regulars To Be Remade

Roy M. North, deputy third assistant postmaster general, states that the present series of regular stamps has run about twelve years and is going to be remade. The subjects are still speculative and final decision has not been made. There is a possibility that some of the higher values will again contain pictures of buildings rather than a complete set of all the presidents.

Sales And Income Tax Sentiment Seen At Capital

Increasing Favor For General Measures To Supplant Earle's Plan

INCOME TAX MOVE PRESENTS PROBLEM

(By NORMAN GAGE)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Present trends toward a general sales tax and a combined flat-and-graduated personal income tax may cause the Earle Administration to dust off a few bills which were drafted a month ago.

Such measures were among the first drawn when Dr. Clyde L. King was called in by the Democrats to supervise the preparation of a $200,000,000 revenue-raising program. There is good reason to believe that the ace of Pennsylvania's budget experts still prefers them to some of the hybrid, alternative bills which are giving so many legislators headaches.

Out Of The Wastebasket

Discarded bills which are likely to serve as a basis for ultimate compromises provide:

A flat one per cent general sales tax;

A flat two per cent income tax; and

A graduated income tax with rates of two per cent on incomes of less than $10,000 a year; four per cent on incomes from $10,000 to $50,000, and six per cent on incomes of more than $50,000.

When the present tax program was agreed upon, the flat-rate taxes were rejected on Governor Earle's theory that they are "sock the poor" levies. The graduated income tax was sidetracked for three reasons: (1) A Supreme Court test to establish its constitutionality is necessary; (2) The test, if successful, would take some of the zest out of the movement to revise the constitution, and (3) The use of the revenue for general operating expenses of the state government would divert the money from schools and real estate relief.

Sales Tax vs Sales Tax

In the House as well as in the Senate, legislators can be found who cannot reconcile the Governor's opposition to a general sales tax with his demand for the 22-point program. They contend the Administration plan includes nearly $100,000,000 in sales taxes on gasoline, cigarettes, electricity, cement, etc.

Important from the legislators' viewpoint is the fact that opposition to the general tax is dwindling while that directed against the $203,000,000 program is increasing. Legislators do not thrive on opposition, particularly organized opposition. They do not share the Governor's assurance of four years at Harrisburg. To them, a general sales tax with the "pass-on" feature, specifying that the consumer must pay the tax, looks like a means of lessening the pressure from organized groups.

Income Tax Problem

The problem presented by the personal income tax is somewhat different. The constitutionality of the graduated tax must be established quickly and Governor Earle's objection regarding the use of the money must be considered.

Current odds are heavily in favor of the graduated tax surviving a Supreme Court test. In private, even prominent Democrats concede this. Two years ago, House Democrats were supporting the Pinchot proposal for a graduated tax for school purposes, contending it would withstand the court test. Among those who took this view were the then Representatives Wilson G. Sarig (now speaker of the House) and Chester H. Rhoades (now judge of the Superior Court.)

Since that time, appellate courts in other states with similar Constitutional provisions have sustained the validity of a graduated personal income tax. Belated Republican converts recognize this fact and also stress the recent tendencies toward liberal interpretations by state and federal courts. Today they can see as a step in this direction the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's decision sustaining the 1931 Talbot (unemployment relief) act. They are ready to help expedite a test case and decision on the graduated tax.

Urge School Plan Delay

To meet Governor Earle's objection regarding the use of income tax proceeds, advocates of the compromise plan are emphasizing the emergency nature of the Commonwealth's plight. They advise delaying the refund-to-schools plan until consolidations of small districts have been effected and other refinements have been made in the present school system.

In this situation, the eventual nature of the tax compromise will depend upon how the Democratic majority in the House behaves when confronted by final votes on key bills of the 22-point program. Once that question is settled, Governor Earle will know where he stands when it comes to bargaining with the Senate.

Crowd-Pleasing Tactics

Outstanding feature of the legislative week was the bi-partisan grandstanding by which $4,200,000 has been made available for old age assistance, pensions for the blind, and hospital aid. For weeks Democrats and Republicans had known exactly what had to be done. The Administration simply played to the gallery in the sensational, last-minute rush for action. Republicans followed the same course by sponsoring the emergency resolution which eliminated the need for a five-day session. The net result was a lot of fuss and the transfer of a few million dollars from one pocket to another.

Asks Business To Support Roosevelt

Would Have Business Men Aid Economic Security Program In Nation

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8—An appeal to business to support President Roosevelt's economic security program was made here by Senator Wagner (D) New York its author.

"Congress does not want to put the economic security program into effect without the cooperation of business men. Your advice has been sought, your interests have been consulted....and business must and will do its part," he told the merchants association.

Wagner asserted improved business conditions warrant enactment of the program.

New Wilmington Ends Season In League Tonight

Victory Over Shenango High Will Give New Wilmington Championship

"BOB" EAGLESON TO END CAREER

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Tonight is the big night as far as New Wilmington high is concerned. Two memorable occasions will be reached. It will mark the passing of "Bob" Eagleson as a member of the Blue and Gold basketball team, and it will mean the county league championship if New Wilmington high can defeat Shenango high.

Eagleson is rated as one of the very finest basketball players to ever play on a New Wilmington high team, and his shoes will be hard to fill next year. He is one of the leading scorers of the league and has played both forward and guard. In addition to his athletic prowess Eagleson has three times been elected as president of his class, and has starred in many theatrical productions. He is also a noted baseball pitcher. He is only five feet four inches, but is a "human dynamo."

Title At Stake

With Shenango high and New Wilmington high tied up for the title, any thing can happen tonight. Coach Ed. Raney has given the Shenango high team a final workout and pronounces them fit for a gruelling battle tonight. Coach Eagleson has given the New Wilmington high quintet their final instructions, and feels confident that the race for the county championship will be over late tonight.

The Community House floor at New Wilmington will be filled to capacity strength tonight. This is the biggest game of the year for the New Wilmington team and a title hinges on the outcome.

College Coeds Plan Exhibition Of Swimming

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Members of the Mermaid club, a branch of the Women's Athletic association at Westminster college, have completed plans for a swimming exhibition to be held in the college pool on Wednesday, March 13. A water pageant entitled, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," will be presented.

Lucille Nevin, Monongahela, is the W. A. A. swimming chairman in charge of the Mermaid club. Those on the committee in charge of the water pageant include: Elizabeth Cone, Crafton; Alice McCrory, Cambridge, O., and Dorothy Veazey, Cleveland Heights, O. Miss Nandeen Love, director of physical education for women, is in general charge of the event.

HUMBERT JUNIORS WIN

We'll bet you've often worn a hat in which you weren't perfectly pleased . . . you bought it because it was the best in the lot.

And this Spring we want you to have a hat that is RIGHT . . . and this Spring, finding that very hat is far easier than it has been for years.

This year the hats have a balance never before achieved . . . they're like the cars . . . they all look good and if ever you had an opportunity to be 100% "hatisfied" . . . here it is.

Be particular . . . we want you to . . . the hats can stand it and you won't get on our nerves by taking lots of time.

But mainly . . . there's something in these hats that you've been looking for . . . perhaps for years.

Miss Orcutt meets Miss Rogers and Miss Bauer faces Miss Miley in the semi-finals this afternoon.

A big, rangy female pointer, Homewood Flirtatious, was crowned national champion of bird dogs yesterday after a brilliant performance at Grand Junction, Texas. The victory carried with it a $1,500 cash award and a leg on the Robert W. Bingham cup. She is owned by H. M. Curry, Jr., Pittsburgh, and was handled by Frank Bevan of the Homewood kennels, Waynesboro, Ga., where she was trained. She found her first covey in 100 yards. She stylishly pointed one of them and on the next chase came up with another covey find. She was running so well her bracemaye, Sulu, was almost forgotten. Soon after, however, Sulu made her first find on a single bird and the "Flirt" supported her beautifully. She made her fourth find a few hundred yards away, another single and climaxed her performance a short while later by stylishly backing Sulu on that dog's second single. Sulu was out of sight of the mounted gallery at the time and the "Flirt's" positive back proved she was on the job. Sulu is owned by A. G. C. Sage of New York, and was handled by Clyde Morton.

Max Schmeling, former king of punch and Steve Hamas, have ended hard training for their 10-round bout at Hamburg, Germany, Sunday. Hamas punished his training mates before a large crowd in his last hard day of work and his stock soared upward. Schmeling took a walk, sparred for five rounds, punched the bag and wound up the day by skipping rope.

To Limit Tourney At State College

Inter-Collegiate Boxing Contest To Be Staged During Present Month

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Mar. 8.—Although requests to enter boxers in the eastern intercollegiate boxing tournament here March 15 have been received from such widely separated colleges as Kansas State, Duke and Toronto, efforts will be made to limit the tourney field, according to an announcement by Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of ahletics.

An attempt will be made this year to limit entries in each weight class so that each fighter will not be required to participate in more than three matches. In the past, the entry list has been limited to regular members of the association plus a few additional invited colleges.

In addition to the five regular members of the association: Western Maryland, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Penn State, Syracuse and Army, the past members, Navy and Pennsylvania, have been asked to participate. Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard and Cornell, whose teams regularly meet association members, also have been mailed entry blanks.

Beaver Falls And Rankin To Battle Tonight

W. P. I. A. L. Championship At Stake Tonight In Game At Pitt Stadium

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 8.—Rankin high, crown winner of Section 7, and Beaver Falls, champion of Section 3, will fight it out for the championship here tonight at Pitt Stadium court for the W. P. I. A. L. title.

This is the first time the Beaver Falls team reached the finals. Rankin, too, has never won a title, but it is odds on favorite tonight.

Before the game the boy athletes will eat—but not too much—at the annual basketball banquet of the W. P. I. A. L. Ira Thomas, once major league baseball star, will be principal speaker.

Lawther Selects All-Star And All-Opponent Teams

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Coach John D. Lawther, mentor of the Westminster college basketball team which closed another successful season with 19 victories out of 22 starts, has chosen all-star and all-opponent teams from the fives which the Titans played from Ohio, West Virginia, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

In selecting an all-America team from the players he has seen in action this year, Lawther choses Rubenstein of New York university and Bennett of Westminster at the forwards; Peters of Notre Dame at center, and Cribbs of Pitt and Birch of Duquesne at the guards.

Lawther's all-opponent teams are:

First Team

Rigg, Tech—Forward.
Winograd, C. C. N. Y.—Forward.
Noon, Pitt—Center.
Cribbs, Pitt—Guard.
Milanovich, Geneva—Guard.

Second Team

Ginsberg, Geneva—Forward.
Hughes, Pitt—Forward.
Hutzley, Geneva—Center.
Doepken, Bethany—Guard.
E. Bouldin, Waynesburg—Guard.

Bennett Again Paces Titans In Scoring With Over 300 Points

Westminster Star Has Scored 792 Points In Three Seasons

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Wes Bennett, star center or forward on the Westminster college basketball team, is again the team's leading scorer this year with a total of 301 points scored in the 21 contests in which he participated. Bennett tallied 110 field goals and 81 fouls.

Despite the fact that he has been ill for the last three weeks and saw action in only parts of three of the last four games, Bennett was able to average 14.33 points per game. He was the leading collegiate scorer in the country last year with 359 points tallied in 25 contests. In his freshman year he scored 132 points in 15 games. His total, then, for 61 games played in three seasons is 792 points, or an average of about 13 points per game over this period.

Ray Sweeney, diminutive guard or forward, is second to Bennett with 187 points scored in 21 contests. Sweeney tallied 71 field goals and 45 fouls. He averaged 9 points per game. John Wilhelm, guard or forward, was third with a total of 110 points scored in 22 contests. Wilhelm scored 42 field goals and 26 fouls.

Bennett's total of 301 points again makes the Akron, O., junior the high point man in the Pittsburgh and western Pennsylvania section. Sweeney's total of 187 easily places him among the first four high scorers of the district.

Bennett's largest scores in single games were: 21 against St. Johns in Madison Square Garden, New York; 22 against Glenville at New Wilmington and 26 against Glenville at Glenville; 22 agianst Waynesburg; 23 against Bethany; 20 against Rider. He made good 81 fouls out of 118 attempts.

Sweeny and Wilhelm are the two Titans to be lost by graduation. Both men have been valuable players during the past three seasons, and both will be missed. The improvement shown by Krivosh, Backus, Demo, Willits and Arrowsmith, and the return to college of Ken Grubb, out with an appendicitis operation, will bolster the squad next season.

Speed Records Again Broken

Sir Malcolm Campbell Drives Fastest Mile In Auto History

UNDECIDED ON FURTHER ATTEMPT

(International News Service)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Mar. 8.—Sir Malcolm Campbell, English speed merchant who cracked world's land speed record yesterday was undecided today whether he will ship his bluebird super racer back to England or await a more favorable beach and try for a higher speed.

"I am satisfied the bluebird has much more speed than I have attained," he said. "The whole question hinges on whether the beach will improve or get worse with passing time. I am advised it should be better at high tide during full moon about 18th but I am undecided what to do."

Sir Malcolm Campbell And His Racing Car

Sir Malcolm had the closest call of his racing career he disclosed following his record run.

"As I was entering the measured mile on the north run the car hit a bump and for another mile I was all over the beach and barely missed running into the dunes," said Sir Malcolm. "My tires were ripped to pieces and it is miraculous that they held together.

"I suffered an injured wrist shortly after starting while changing gears. It really however, is just an old sprain. Other than being shaken up I suffered no ill effects from the run."

Sir Malcolm really broke four different records in his super racer, including a new world's land speed record.

They are: one mile, miles per hour 276.816 the time 13.005; kilo, 281.374 miles per hour; time 8:10; five mile, mph 235.141 the time 1:111.60; five kilo, miles per hour 268.474. All miles are average.

PIRATES ARE IDLE

(International News Service)

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Mar. 8.—Rain—yes, real California rain, forced the Pittsburgh Pirates again today to choose between practicing on a soggy outdoor field or using the huge indoor stadium here to get in trim. Pie Traynor settled the matter yesterday by using the indoor stadium. The Pirates play the Acme team, crack local outfit, in an exhibition match Sunday.

Seven Seniors To End Floor Career At New Wilmington

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 8.—Robert Eagleson, Russell Minner, two four year lettermen; Edward Borowiz, "Wild Bill" Hart, Lloyd McKean, Frank McClure and Joseph McClure, have donned for the last time the Blue and Gold colors of New Wilmington high school. June will see the graduation of these colorful athletes, some of whom will probably go on to various colleges.

Three New Wilmington girls played their last school game on Friday night against Shenango high. They are Jane Sharp, Betty White and Dorothy Robins.

Ask Lawther To Aid Selection Of All-Star Teams

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—John D. Lawther, Westminster college basketball mentor, has been asked to serve on a number of boards and committees to select all-star basketball teams for syndicates, press associations and radio. The latest request came from the Christy Walsh syndicate which is promoting an all-American basketball team as selected by leading coaches in the country. Another request came recently from the N. W. Ayer advertising firm. Press associations and newspaper sports editors have also requested Lawther to select all-star teams.

Eight Titans To Receive Letters

Awards To Be Made At Meeting Of Athletic Council

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 8.—Eight members of the Westminster college basketball squad which closes another great season Monday night with a record of 19 victories in 22 starts, will be recommended for varsity letters at the meeting of the Athletic council here Saturday.

The eight players who competed in sufficient games to qualify for awards are: Captain John Wilhelm, Kittanning; Ray Sweeney, Youngstown, O.; Wesley Bennett, Akron, O.; Peter Leyshock, Farrell; Henry Hunneke, Baldwin, L. I.; Paul Backus, Youngstown, O.; Jack Willits, Ford City, and John Krivosh, Sharon. Student Manager Robert Scarbrough, McDonald, O., will also be recommended for an award.

Two seniors are included among the men to win letters. They are Captain John Wilhelm and Ray Sweeney. Juniors who won letters were: Wes Bennett, Pete Leyshock, Henry Hunneke and Jack Willits. Frosh who qualified were: Paul Backus and John Krivosh.

Pulaskis Upset Humberts, 34-26

Oaklanders Win Second Game Of Season From South Siders, 34-26

J. SLOSERNICK AND BORON STAR

Inspired by the recent fine showing made against the Polish Falcons, the K. Pulaski basketball team, of Oakland, went to the Humbert hall last night and took a 34 to 26 victory over the strong Humberts of the South Side. It was the second defeat this year administered by the Pulaskis to the Italian boys. One of the biggest crowds of the year witnessed the game.

"Red" Boron and Johnny Slosernick led the scoring for the evening with brilliant exhibitions of accurate shooting and clever floor work. "Cash" Mateja also played a fine game and had six points, while "Mikey" Slosernick had three points and played a great defensive game.

Convincing Victory

Zingaro, former Franklin high star, was the big noise for the Humberts with 11 of the points. At the half the Pulaski team led by a score of 16 to 12. Coach Walter Sniezek used but two subs in the game, "Tillie" Slizeski and himself. Zaremba was missing from the Pulaski lineup.

The Pulaskis won in a most convincing manner and served warning on other New Castle basketball teams to watch out in the near future. The Pulaskis played a most impressive game.

May Have Eight Clubs In Loop

Four Decide To Return — Three Others Said To Be Prospects

CITY LEAGUE TO HOLD MEETING

Indications point to an eight club circuit this season, according to announcement today by William G. Andrews, vice president of the loop who had charge of the first meeting of managers which was held at the Sport Goods Store last night.

West Pittsburgh, Bessemer, Mahoning and Hillsville decided to again cast their lot with the circuit that has been operating since 1923.

The A. S. & T. P. tin mills, I. A. A. and Ellwood City may come into the fold and if they all do, efforts will be made to secure an eighth team.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday when officers will be named for next season.

Next Thursday managers of all City League clubs are to report at the Sport Goods Store, where the Lawrence League officials will aid them in organizing for 1935.

LISTEN TO THIS

According to Ford Frick, president of the National League, the umpires are going to bear down on the pitchers in the matter of balks this season...Albie Booth, great little Yale football star of a few years back, has resigned his job as assistant coach at N. Y. U. in order that he may devote more of his time to his duties in a Hartford, Conn., creamery...186 athletes from 15 colleges and universities, the largest number of schools entered in the history of the meet, will compete in the ninth annual Central Intercollegiate indoor track and field meet this weekend at Notre Dame...St. Louis which turns out so poorly for major league baseball, produced 17,000 customers for a Jim Londos-Strangler Lewis wrestling match.

No matter how successful the Marquette university track men may be in the next two seasons, the school already is assured representation in the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin. Bob Peterson, Marquette freshman, has been named to the United States ice-skating team as a result of his work in the distance races. The Milwaukee school figured quite prominently in the 1932 Olympics with Ralph Metcalf burning up the cinders...Connie Mack, who was on his way back from Japan with the all-star team he chaperoned, missed his second meeting of the 35 held by the American league. On the other occasion a honeymoon interfered back in 1910...Abe Attel received 55 per cent of the gate for whipping Aurelia Herrera in 1901. The latter got only 5 per cent.

Walter Neusel, German heavyweight, was a distance runner in Westphalia before he took up fighting...Henry Johnson, Boston Redsox hurler, has not made an error since 1930. In 1931 he took part in 40 games, accepting 28 chances. In '32 he was out most of the season but managed to break into six games, accepting six chances. In 1933 and 1934 he was in 56 games, handling 49 chances, thus giving him a toal of 102 games without a misplay...Basketball, growing more and more popular in the middle west, is definitely on a paying basis at Marquette university...New York's veteran of the fighting game, Sammy Shack, has boxed in British Columbia, Panama, the Philippines, Japan, China, Australia, New Zealand and England.

Charlie Paddock once the world's fastest human, ran 50 yards in five seconds flat. But Everett McGowan, speed skater, reeled off the same distance in four seconds in 1923. Paddock tore through 60 yards in six seconds flat, and Fred Robson equaled this time to set a world's record on the blades in 1916. It takes the tracksters between 9 and 10 seconds to do a 100 yards, but the skaters can cover the same distance about three second faster. In other words, why is it that title-holding speed skaters could always run away from sprinters at every distance except 60 yards?...Manager Frankie Frisch says there will be no special training rules for the Cardinals. All he demands is that the players be in bed by midnight and at the practice field on the appointed hour.

Prichett Named To State Banking Department Post

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Wilson Prichett, Haverford, today was named secretary of the Pennsylvania Securities commission at $3600 a year by Dr. Luther A. Harr, secretary of banking.

The position includes supervision of the work of employes of the commission and handling of commission correspondence. Levi G. Lichliter is chairman of the commission. Prichett succeeds Samuel M. Pursell who resigned.

Dr. Harr also announced that Irland McKnight (CP K) Beckman, Erie, had been promoted to first deputy secretary of banking at $7,000 a year. He has been a deputy since 1925. Robert W. Doty, Mifflintown, first deputy since 1931, will be continued as a deputy at $6,000 a year.

Castletons Will Play St. Marys

Two games are on tap at the "Y" floor Saturday night. The first game starting at 7:30 o'clock will find the Castletons meeting the St. Marys league, leading team of the Shenango township church league.

This will be the first appearance of the St. Marys team at the "Y" floor, and they hope to make a creditable showing against the hotel boys.

In the second game a House-Indus league contest will have the "Y" Devil Dogs and the National Pants team playing.

Council Rescinds Previous Action

Claim Power Of Burgess Was Usurped; Committee To Meet With Turner

Burgess Turner Declares That He Will Run Police Department Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Burgess Judd C. Turner at the regular meeting of the Ellwood City Borough Council in the City building last night informed that body that "I want to run the police department and I am going to do so as I see fit."

This arose out of an action taken by council at the last monthly meeting when a schedule regulating the hours to be worked by the police department was passed by the city solons. Last night Councilman Paxton R. Fike moved that council rescind this action as the burgess had not been consulted in the matter whatsoever, and that council therefore was usurping the powers delegated to the burgess by law.

Councilman Henderson, chairman of the police committee, stated that the committee had attempted to inform the burgess of their plans, but due to an error, a letter had never reached him. Burgess Turner declared that no such action should have been considered without a conference with him first. Running the police department was one of his specific duties.

The plan passed by council was a schedule in which each member of the police department was given one day off a week. Burgess Turner stated that council earlier in the year had asked for more police and then raised their wages. This was within their powers. "At the present time," he went on, "the police department has two men off a day and sometimes three, and thus giving the city less protection than it ever had." The manner in which the situation is worked now would show that the city has too many policemen and is keeping some off with pay. With the present plan the schools cannot be policed properly at dismissal. He also stated that the Gamewell system was installed here to speed up the efficiency of the police force and to eliminate one policeman. The latter has not been done and now there are two policemen off daily.

Council voiced the opinion that the members of the police department should have one day off a week, but also agreed that the burgess should have been consulted before any action was taken. A motion was passed to reconsider the matter. The police committee was delegated to meet with the burgess and work out a definite program.

The Gleen Club rendered three numbers after the dinner. A public concert was given at the church auditorium at 8:15.

Storm Sewer Work Will Be Stopped

Committee Points Out To Council All Of RWD Allocation Has Not Been Used

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Unless quick action is taken, the RWD storm sewer project in Ellwood City will be stopped, according to an announcement at the monthly meeting of the Ellwood City borough council in the City building last night.

The reason given was that all the funds have been used up and the RWD work all over the county has been ordered to be stopped. A committee of council pointed out that the allocation for this work has not all been used. It is sufficient to complete the project.

A committee was delegated to investigate the matter.

Truck Damaged By Hit-Run Driver

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Lawrence Morini, of Wampum avenue, reported to local police last night that his truck was considerably damaged by a hit and run driver.

The truck was parked in front of his store about 7:30 last night when a young man had come rushing into the store and told him that a car had side-swiped his truck and failed to stop. The car was a large blue sedan.

Slippery Rock Alumni Meet

Association Is Formed At Gathering In Lincoln School, Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Fourteen graduates of Slippery Rock State Teachers College of this city met in the Lincoln High school on Thursday evening for the purpose of forming an Alumni organization in this section.

Representing the Alumni Association from Slippery Rock were Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Wrigley, Dr. B. H. Dimit, Mrs. Rose Stewart and Mrs. Book.

H. F. Wilson presided as temporary chairman and Mrs. Joe Young as temporary secretary. An election of officers was held and resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Thad Young vice president, Mrs. John Brenemen, secretary, Mrs. Ida Cooper. It was revealed that 67 Alumni reside in the Ellwood district. It is planned to contact these.

A meeting in the near future to plan a program of activities will be called by the newly elected officers.

MRS. ED. BUTLER IS CLUB HOSTESS

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Mrs. Edward Butler proved to be a pleasing hostess last evening when she opened her home in Park avenue to members of the N. O. N. club who gathered for the regular meeting, Mrs. Albert Keller was a special guest.

Two tables of 500 were in play during the evening and the score awards went to Mrs. Clarence Druschel and Mrs. Lloyd Badger. The hostess assisted by her mother Mrs. John McKim served a tempting luncheon.

The group will be entertained again on Thursday evening, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Morrow of Clover avenue.

MRS. JOE LATIANO ENTERTAINS CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Mrs. Joe Latiano delightfully entertained the members of the T. O. B. Club last night at her home on Crescent avenue.

Bridge was the chief diversion of the evening with two tables in play. Mrs. James Casey, Mrs. Frank Morrow and Mrs. Doc Kelnar won the prizes at the conclusion of the games.

A dainty luncheon was served at a later hour by the hostess. Next Thursday the club will motor to New Brighton, where the members will be guests of Mrs. Geo. Boyle.

Large Turnout At Eastern Star Function Thursday

Clever Program And Entertainment Is Held At Masonic Temple Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Over 100 members of the local Eastern Star Chapter participated in an entertainment at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening. It was an evening of fun and merriment and of complete enjoyment.

There were several clever features, novelties and stunts. The Kitchen Band kept the assemblage in a state of glee with its music and antics. Mesdames Frank Huffman, Tom Jones, Mina Steinberger and Edward Mackasek were the soloists.

Special features were rendered by Mesdames Laura Kirk, Gail Morrison, William McGlincey, Charles Adams, and Walter Whittaker. Comprising the wedding party were Patty Painter, Martha Jean Harris, Peggy Adams, and Master Arthur Whittaker. Dance numbers were given by the pupils of Miss Betty Nickum's dancing school.

The Kitchen Band was composed of 14 members with Mrs. Harry Reynolds as conductor and Mrs. Loren Springer as drum major.

After the entertainment sacks of food samples were distributed. The remainder of the evening was occupied with bingo as a result of which many prizes were awarded. Mrs. Harriet Bartel and Mrs. Anna Baker, of Akron, O., received the door prizes.

Zelienople Man Dies In Hospital At Ellwood City

(Special To The News)

ZELIENOPLE, Pa., Mar. 8—Following an illness of but a week, J. Louis Passavant, 33, died in the Ellwood City hospital Thursday night, March 7. His death comes as a shock to the people of Zelienople, as his illness was sudden and of brief duration.

Mr. Pasasvant was the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Passavant, one of the pioneer families of Zelienople. When the city was first founded they came here and have been a part of the business and civic life for many years.

For a time Mr. Passavant was engaged in business in Springfield, O., but for the past year or more has been back in Zelienople. He was a member of the English Lutheran church. He was unmarried and made his home with his parents on South Main street.

The body has been brought to the Passavant home, but the funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Mr. Passavant is survived by his father and mother and one brother, Charles S. Passavant.

W. M. SOCIETY AT KETLER HOME

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 8—Members of the Women's Missionary society of the Wurtemburg U. P. church were entertained in a hospitable manner last evening when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Ketler of Wurtemburg for the regular March meeting. Ten members and one guest, Mrs. Clarence Cowan, participated.

The third chapter of the mission book, Seed Corn, was presented by Mrs. Laura Weller as leader. Usual routine matters were transacted at the business meeting.

A social period was concluded by the serving of a tempting luncheon by the hostess. Adjournment was then taken to meet again on Thursday evening, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Harry Fury of Wurtemburg, with Mrs. George Gibbons as leader.

Farley Inquiry Request Refused

Senate Committee Rejects Demands Of Long For Investigation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—After deciding to oppose any inquiry into the official conduct of Postmaster General Farley, the Senate post office committee met today to draft a report, justifying its refusal to investigate the charges of Senator Huey P. Long (D) of Louisiana.

The report probably will be supported by statements from Attorney General Cummings, Secretary of the Interior Ickes and Jesse H. Jones, RFC chairman, declaring Farley innocent of Long's charges which involved their respective departments.

The overwhelming majority of the committee, however, are convinced Long's charges have proven groundless. The committee apparently relied on Farley's sweeping denial of Long's charge that he secured a private profit from the New York firms, which sold materials to contractors on government jobs. Ickes said Farley had never used any influence on PWA building contracts.

GERSONS TAKE FORFEIT

Gersons basketball team won a forfeit game from the National Pants last night at the Humbert floor in a city league battle, when the latter team failed to show up.

SQUARE CIRCLE

Members of the Square Circle will hold their regular meeting in the International Institute room, Y. W. C. A., this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The public should normally expect the practicing physicians with their professional understanding and personal contact with sick people, to know more about the best forms of sickness service than other socialogists, economists and other theorists.

Stock Market Demand Steady

Utility Shares Much In Demand In Early Hours Of Market Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—A steady demand for the utility shares principally Consolidated Gas, Public service of N. J. and American Telephone, featured forenoon dealings on the stock market today.

American Telephone was a particular strong spot jumping more than a point to the best levels in months. Consolidated Gas ran up about half point and Public Service about a point.

Other sections of the list, while somewhat firmer, continued to be mixed.

Railroad shares received a better grade of support which served to lift Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific and other recent weak spots fractionally. New York Central, however, continued under slight pressure and held fractionally under yesterday's closing levels.

Industrials were only moderately active. United States Steel held around its previous close, but Bethlehem was fractionally higher.

Farm implement shares recovered further under the leadership of J. I. Case. Montgomery Ward, International Harvester were firm.

Chemicals, liquors, oils and specialties marked time. Motor shares including Chrysler held their own in light trading.

Ordinance No. 79

An ordinance providing for the levying and collection of taxes for general borough purposes in the Borough of Enon Valley, Pennsylvania, for the year 1935.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and the Town Council of the Borough of Enon Valley, in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same; that there hereby is levied and directed to be collected on all property, offices, professions, and persons within said Borough made taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth, for county rates and levies, a tax for general borough purposes for the year 1935, of eight (8) mills on the dollar on said valuation, to be levied on the assessment made by the elected assessor and duly adjusted and equalized by the proper authorities of said County of Lawrence.

Section 2. The Commissions of the Tax Collector hereby are fixed at 3 per cent on all taxes paid to him on which an abatement is made under the provisions of Section 1508 of the General Borough Act of 1927, as amended by the Act approved May 18, 1933, and at 5 per cent on all taxes by him collected after the period for said abatement has expired.

Section 3. The Borough Secretary hereby is directed to prepare a Tax Book showing the above rate of tax and also showing the amount of the valuation and the amount of tax for each taxable, and he is further directed to prepare a duplicate thereof, to which the Burgess shall add his warrant for the collection of the same and the Burgess shall deliver said duplicate together with said warrant to the Tax Collector for collection.

Section 4. The Tax hereinbefore levied is a tax of eighty cents (80c) on each hundred ($100) dollars of assessed valuation of taxable property.

Ordained and Enacted in Council this 5th day of March A. D. 1935.

C. L. Marshall, president of council.

Attest: Chas. L. Dice, borough secretary. (Borough Seal.)

Examined and approved this 6th day of March A. D. 1935.

Jacob O. Fischer, burgess.

Petroleum Board Orders Oil Company To Recognize Union

Company Union Is Ordered Dissolved In Oklahoma Oil Field By Policy Board

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—The Petroleum Labor Policy Board today ordered a company union of the Keener Oil and Gas Co., of Bartlesville, Okla., dissolved, and directed the company to recognize the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America as representing the employes in collective bargaining.

The company was directed to refrain from dealing with employes through the "company dominated union which it has established," to discontinue interference with self-organizing activities of its employes, to cooperate with the board in elections for collective bargaining, and to negotiate with the representatives of the union "in good faith."

The order was based on a hearing held January 17 at Bartlesville. This was the second company union ordered dissolved by the Petroleum Labor Policy Board. A similar union of the Texas Co., at West Tulsa, Okla., was ordered dissolved six weeks ago.

Here's Another Etta Kett Doll! Paste On Cardboard And Cut Out

Famed Comic Strip Heroine Presents More of Her Wardrobe—Three Removable Costumes

Was the editor of The News surprised! He hoped you young readers would like the Etta Kett cutout doll printed recently, but, goodness! he certainly didn't expect to receive so many enthusiastic letters from so many of you asking that another Etta Kett doll with costumes be printed. So, he's very happy to print another Etta Kett doll for you today with four new costumes, three of which are removable. Just look at all those pretty things to wear—that clever bathing suit, those darling pajamas the little suit of shorts and shirt and that perfectly beautiful gown with handsome sash. The editor hopes you like this Etta Kett cut-out as well as the other doll.

SAAR VICTORY SPURS HITLER TO REICH EXPANSION

Plebiscite returns the Sarr to Germany.

"Free city" of Danzig.

Amid the triumphant rejoicing over the Saar's return to Germany in the recent plebiscite, Realm-leader Adolf Hitler and his Nazi aids are reported seeking new colonial laurels. The city of Memel, detached from the Reich after the World war, and taken over by Lithuania, may be next to feel Nazi expansion by means of the newest Hitler "weapon", the plebiscite ballot box. Thousands of Memel Germans are appealing to the League of Nations to authorize an election so they can declare their desire for reunion. The "free port" of Danzig, also severed from the Reich, may, too, be co-ordinated by "plebiscite" if Nazi plans for "pushing to the east" are carried out.

Property Damage From Floods Is Heavy In State

Many Lives Also Been Lost During Past 150 Years

JOHNSTOWN FLOOD TOOK HEAVIEST TOLL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 8.—Floods have taken a toll of millions in property damage in Pennsylvania in the past 150 years, according to the State Planning board.

About 30 major floods have been recorded in the Delaware river during that period, 35 in the Susquehanna and about 50 in the Ohio, the commission reported, while numerous small local floods were also experienced.

The June 1, 1889 flood, more popularly called the "Johnstown flood," was the greatest on record in Pennsylvania. The storm, concentrated over the watersheds of the Juniata and the west branch of the Susquehanna, took a toll of 2142 lives at Johnstown and destroyed a large sectio nof the city.

"The Pittsburgh flood commission estimated flood toll to the city of Pittsburgh alone, from 1898 to 1908, at $12,000,000, of which $6,500,000 was causced by three floods in 1907 and 1908," the commission reported.

"The total financial loss along the Allegheny river resulting from the 1913 flood amounted to $720,000. The Shenango and Beaver valley damage from this same flood was $2,100,000.

"Along the Lehigh river, the 1902 flood loss reached $760,000. In August, 1915, in the city of Erie, 34 people were drowned and damage amounting to $2,000,000 resulted from a flood in Mill Creek. In July, 1931, Norristown suffered a loss of $1,000,000 as the result of floods in two small creeks traversing the borough. York lost $260,000 in 1884 and $4,360,000 in 1933 from floods in Codorus creek."

Many flood control projects have been undertaken as CWA, PWA and LWD projects in Pennsylvania. Eight flood control basins to be constructed at a cost of more than $40,000,000 have been recommended by the tri-state authority for Western Pennsylvania as part of the president's new works relief program.

"Floods can be controlled by retarding or storage basins, diversion channels, stream channel improvements and by construction of levees and embankments," according to the Planning Commission.

"The logical and proper method of control is to limit the quantity of water reaching the channel to the discharge capacity of the channel by means of retarding or storage basins. Protection generally may best be secured, not by any one single method, but by a combination of several methods applicable to each other in a limited way."

Flood control by this method has been effectively accomplished by completion of the state reservoir project at Pymatuning, in Western Pennsylvania, the commission reported. Had the Pymatuning reservoir been in operation during the 1913 flood, the flood height at Sharon would have been reduced by 23.3 per cent and the maximum rate of discharge, 32.5 per cent, according to the planning commission.

"A carefully determined public policy for control and supervision of the streams of the commonwealth was adopted and put into effect when the 1933 legislature enacted the dam and encroachment act which made it unlawful for anyone to construct any 'water obstruction' without a state permit," the commission reported. "Stream channels with adequate areas to discharge maximum expected floods have been conserved and protected."

BACON BATS

"Bacon bats" can be enjoyed by the whole family during the winter months on mild days. With plenty of bacon and eggs to be cooked over the camp fire, buttered rolls, a hot beverage and substantial dessert, a very satisfying meal results. The dessert can be apple pie, fruit pudding, gingerbread or any other food favorite which can be easily eaten.
